Transcriber's Note

Led by the belief that the spelling and punctuation of each entry is based directly on the original title pages no intentional 'corrections' have been made to the content. The text in this e-book is as close to the original printed text as pgdp proofing and postprocessing could get it. In some entries larger spaces are used as spacers between bibliographic fields instead of punctuation. These have been retained to the best of our ability and are represented as non-breaking spaces.

First edition. Vignette portrait on the title-page, by S. Ravenet after Sir Joshua Reynolds.

The arrangement of preliminary leaves in this volume is so unusual as to give the impression on a first examination that c1 is missing. But as the copy in the Advocates' Library, Edinburgh, is similar to this, except for the transposition of the half-title of "The Regicide," which there precedes the Preface instead of the play itself, as in the present copy, the supposition is that no leaves are lacking.

As the present copy is in the original boards, the arrangement of signatures is easily discernible. For the preliminary leaves it is as follows: Half-title and title, one unnumbered sheet; a, eight leaves; b, eight leaves; c, six leaves, the first four lettered c2, c3, c4, and 2 (according to the actual folding of the sheet, there is no c1, the first page being misprinted c2); two leaves, with no signatures, pasted together, viz.: the end of the Preface (verso "Persons of the Drama") and the half-title of "The Regicide" (verso blank); B, six leaves, the first three lettered B2, B3, and B4; one leaf pasted to B and numbered 4. Signatures C-S are in eights.

The pagination of the preliminary leaves is as follows: Half-title and title unnumbered, i-xxix (viii misprinted iii), four unnumbered pages, and xxxvi-xxlvii, the verso of which is unnumbered. The omitted numbers between xxix and xxxvi indicate a missing leaf, but even though the half-title of "The Regicide" were to fill the place, as in the copy in the Advocates' Library, making the Preface to the whole book follow the half-title of one of the works, which is an unnatural arrangement, there would still be a missing leaf, as the first page of text of "The Regicide" is numbered 3.

The simplest explanation of the discrepancy is to suppose a printer's error in the pagination of the preliminary matter; i.e., xxxvi should be xxxiv.

There is no copy of this edition in the British Museum or the Bodleian Library, nor in the University or Trinity College Libraries, Cambridge, and the copy in the Advocates' Library, Edinburgh, bound in full calf, lacks the preliminary half-title.

With this record of signatures, the following collation gives the lettering of the leaves as actually printed.

Collation: Half-title, one leaf (verso blank). Title with portrait, one leaf (verso blank). Life, a1-a8 and b1-b7 (verso blank). Contents, b8. Preface, c2-c8 (verso "Persons of the Drama"). Half-title of "The Regicide," one leaf, which might be counted as c8, to complete the signature c, or as B1, to precede B2. "The Regicide," B2-I5, in eights. Half-title of "The Reprisal," I6 (verso "Persons represented"). Prologue, I7. Text, I8-O5 (verso blank), ending with the Epilogue. Half-title, "Advice, and Reproof: two Satires. First published in the Year 1746 and 1747," O6 (verso blank). "Advice," O7-P6. Half-title of "Reproof," P7 (verso blank). Text, P8-Q6. "The Tears of Scotland," 1746, Q7-Q8. Poems, R1-R4 recto. Odes, R4 verso-S5 recto. "Observations On Dr. Smollett's Ode to Independence," S5 verso-S8. Pages 1-272.

Although "Vanessa" [Hester Vanhomrigh] died in 1723, the present poem did not appear until 1726, when it was published by three different booksellers. The first edition was probably printed in Dublin, the second by W. Blandford, practically a reprint of the first; the third by J. Roberts, which contains some variations from the others, notably the addition on page 35 of the ten lines beginning "But what Success Vanessa met."

Collation: I. Title with floral ornament, A1 (verso blank). Text, A2-D4, in fours. Pages 1-32.

II. Title with floral ornament, A1 (verso blank). Text, A2-D4 (verso blank), in fours.

Another copy of the Roberts edition, larger than the preceding.

Collation: The same as the preceding copy.

M DCC XXVI. 8vo, four parts in two volumes, red straight-grain morocco, gilt back and sides, gilt top, uncut edges, by Rivière.

An uncut copy of one of four editions published in 1726. Presumably the first edition, with the misprints "subsidues," instead of "subsidies," Part I, page 35, line 5, and "ebe Houyhnhmns" in the running headline, Part IV, page 165.

Portrait of Gulliver by Sturt and Sheppard, with inscription around the oval and two lines of Latin beneath; also six maps.

Collation: I. A1 (verso blank). Contents, A2 recto. "The Publisher to the Reader," signed Richard Sympson, A2 verso-A4. Title of Part I, 1726, with floral ornament, A5 recto. Contents, A5 verso-A6. Pages i-xii. Text of Part I, A7-K8, in eights. Pages 1-148.

Title of Part II, 1726, A1 (verso blank). Contents, A2-A3, Plate II, A4 (recto blank). Text of Part II, B1-M2, in eights. Pages 1-164.

II. Title, A1 (verso blank). Contents, A2-A3. Plate III, A4 (recto blank). Text of Part III, B1-L5, in eights. Pages 1-154.

Title of Part IV, A1 (verso blank). Contents, A2-A4. Text, B1-O4 (verso blank). Pages 1-199. Key dated "Jan. Feb. March. 1743," one leaf (verso blank).

SWIFT, JONATHAN.—(I.) Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. In Four Parts. By Lemuel Gulliver, First a Surgeon, and then a Captain of several Ships. Vol. I. London: Printed for Benj. Motte, at the Middle Temple-Gate in Fleet-street. M DCC XX VI. (II.) Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. By Captain Lemuel Gulliver. Part III. A Voyage to Laputa, Balnibarbi, Glubbdubdrib, Luggnagg and Japan. Part IV. A Voyage to the Houyhnhnms. London: Printed for Benjamin Motte, at the Middle-Temple-Gate. M DCC XXVI. 8vo, four parts in two volumes, green levant morocco, gilt back, side borders in floral and bird design, doubled with red morocco, floral border, red figured silk guards, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery.

Presumably the second edition. One of the three large paper copies on record, a second being in the British Museum. This one measures 9 by 5-3/8 inches, and besides the six maps, has a portrait of Gulliver without the inscription around the oval. Instead of two lines in Latin beneath, the legend is "Captain Lemuel Gulliver, of Redriff Ætat. suæ 58."

The two title-pages of Volume I appear to be the same as in the preceding edition, but in Volume II "Glubbdubdrib" has one final "b" instead of two, and "Vol. II." is omitted. The type of "World" is heavier faced in this edition. The text is reset; ornaments, use of type, and spelling are different. In the Contents of Volume II, "Pirates" in Chapter I is here spelled "Pyrates." Page 74 of Part III is misprinted 44 in this edition, and not in the preceding; but the misprint in the running headline on page 165, Part IV, is here corrected to "the Houyhnhmns." "Glubbdubdrib" is spelled without the final "b" in the text of both editions, except at the head of Chapter I, in the preceding, which would point to the final "bb" on the title of Volume II as a misprint corrected in the present edition.

In both editions Chapter VII of Part III is misprinted Chapter V. Part III of the present edition contains 155 pages, whereas the previous edition contains 154 and ends with a different signature.

Collation: I. Title, A1 (verso blank). Contents, A2 (verso blank). "The Publisher to the Reader," signed Richard Sympson, A3-A5 (verso blank). Title of Part I, 1726, with the same floral ornament as in the preceding edition, A6 (verso blank). Contents, A7-A8. Pages i-xvi. Text of Part I, B1-L2, in eights. Pages 1-148.

Part II: The same as the preceding edition.

II. Title, A1 (verso blank). Contents, A2-A3. Plate III, A4 (recto blank). Text, B1-K8, in eights, L1-L4, and M1-M2 (verso blank). Pages 1-155, 74 misprinted 44.

Part IV: The same as the preceding edition, without the final Key.

SWIFT, JONATHAN.—Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. 1726. 8vo, four parts in two volumes, Spanish calf, gilt back, gilt edges, by Rivière.

Another copy, on small paper, with portrait having the inscription around the oval, and six maps.

Collation: The same as the preceding copy.

SWIFT, JONATHAN.—(I.) Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. In four parts. By Lemuel Gulliver, first a Surgeon, and then a Captain of several Ships. Vol. I. London: Printed for Benj. Motte, at the Middle Temple-Gate in Fleet-street. M,DCC,XXVI. (II.) Travels into several Remote Nations of the World. By Captain Lemuel Gulliver. Vol. II. Part III. A Voyage to Laputa, Balnibarbi, Glubbubdribb, Luggnagg, and Japan. Part IV. A Voyage to the Houyhnhnms. London: Printed for Benjamin Motte, at the Middle-Temple-Gate. M DCC XXVI. 8vo, four parts in two volumes, red levant morocco, gilt back, doubled with green morocco, gilt borders in the manner of Dérome, green moire silk guards, gilt edges, by A. Meyer.

Presumably the fourth edition. The pagination of the two parts in each volume is continuous, and Plates II and VI, preceding Parts II and IV, respectively, are both numbered Page I, as though made for the previous editions, in which those parts have a separate pagination.

The title of Volume II follows line for line that of the edition No. I preceding, with "Glubbduddribb" spelled with two final "b's," but the entire work is reset. As in the other two editions, Chapter VII of Part III is misprinted V.

Portrait by Sturt and Sheppard, and six maps.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
