GENERAL LITERATURE, CRITICISM, POETRY, ETC.

English Writers of To-Day: Being a Series of Monographs on living Authors. The following are the first volumes in the Series:—

Rudyard Kipling. The Man and His Work. Being an attempt at an “Appreciation.” By G. F. MONKSHOOD, Author of “Woman and The Wits,” “My Lady Ruby,” etc. Containing a portrait of Mr Kipling and an autograph letter to the author in facsimile. A new and cheaper edition. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Daily Telegraph.—“He writes fluently, and he has genuine enthusiasm for his subject, and an intimate acquaintance with his work. Moreover, the book has been submitted to Mr Kipling, whose characteristic letter to the author is set forth on the preface.... Of Kipling’s heroes Mr Monkshood has a thorough understanding, and his remarks on them are worth quoting” (extract follows).

Globe.—“It has at the basis of it both knowledge and enthusiasm—knowledge of the works estimated and enthusiasm for them. This book may be accepted as a generous exposition of Mr Kipling’s merits as a writer. We can well believe that it will have many interested and approving readers.”

Scotsman.—“This well-informed volume is plainly sincere. It is thoroughly well studied, and takes pains to answer all the questions that are usually put about Mr Kipling. The writer’s enthusiasm carries both himself and his reader along in the most agreeable style. One way and another his book is full of interest, and those who wish to talk about Kipling will find it invaluable, while the thousands of his admirers will read it through with delighted enthusiasm."

Bret Harte: a Treatise and a Tribute. By T. EDGAR PEMBERTON, Author of "The Kendals," "Life of Sothern," etc., with a new portrait of Mr Bret Harte and a Bibliography. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Spectator.—"A highly interesting book."

Daily Mail.—"An interesting biography full of good things."

Sunday Sun.—"A pleasant and interesting memoir."

Whitehall Review.—"a truly delightful book.... Written in no mean spirit of adulation, it is a well-balanced, characteristic, and fair estimate of a personality and a mind far above the average."

Sunday Special.—"It is an intensely interesting life story Mr Pemberton has to tell.... This little volume is eminently readable, full of excellent stories and anecdotes, and is in short a very admirable commentary upon the work of one of the brightest masters of the pen that the great continent oversea has produced."

Daily Express.—"Every true lover of Bret Harte ought to get Mr T. Edgar Pemberton's book. There are not many authors, alas! that would bear study at close range, but here certainly is one where knowledge of his early struggles and trials will only increase our affection and interest in the man himself and his stories. Mr Pemberton has shown in this book the qualities of an ideal biographer. His touch is light, his figure stands clear, and we find in his work a strong human note we learned long years ago to associate with the creator of M'Liss."

Algernon Charles Swinburne. A Study. By THEODORE WRATISLAW (Dedicated to Theodore Watts-Dunton), with a new portrait of Mr Swinburne and a Bibliography. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Daily News.—"Mr Wratislaw's work is always dignified and eloquent, and not without critical acuteness."

Review of the Week.—"It is not only a study, it is an entertainment. It has dignity and no dulness.... Though an appreciation, it is not an exaggeration. The summing up, though masterly, is not tyrannical. It is concise and sufficient, and is as artistically written as artistically informed. Author and publisher have combined to make the book one not only to peruse, but to possess. The price is more than moderate, the format more than presentable."

Court Circular.—"This little volume forms an excellent handbook to his (Swinburne's) writing. It is not simply an eulogy, but rather a discriminate appreciation and a loving analysis of the poet's works, which are dealt with chronologically as they were published. The exposition helps greatly to elucidate many of the poems, and the criticisms are fair and unbiassed. Those who know their Swinburne well will find a new pleasure in the poems after reading this book, and those who have hitherto been deterred from studying him are put in possession of a golden key to unlock the gateway of an enchanted garden. Mr Wratislaw has fulfilled his task ably and well, and has earned the gratitude of all lovers of English poetry."

Weekly Sun (T. P. O'Connor) says:—A Book of the Week—"I have found this slight and unpretentious little volume bright, interesting reading. I have read nearly every line with pleasure."

Illustrated London News.—"The story Mr Scott has to tell is full of varied interest, and is presented with warmth and buoyancy."

Punch.—"What pleasant memories does not Clement Scott's little book, 'The Wheel of Life,' revive! The writer's memory is good, his style easy, and above all, which is a great thing for reminiscences, chatty."

Some Notable Hamlets of the Present Time. (SARAH BERNHARDT, HENRY IRVING, BEERBOHM TREE, WILSON BARRETT and FORBES ROBERTSON.) By CLEMENT SCOTT, Author of "The Drama of Yesterday and the Drama of To-day," etc. Illustrated with portraits drawn by W. G. MEIN, and an appreciation of Mr Clement Scott by L. ARTHUR GREENING. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

Pilot.—"This book will be eagerly read by all who, not having had an opportunity of seeing this or that actor in the character, is anxious to know 'how it was done.'"

Court Circular.—"Interesting and valuable. Indeed it would be difficult to name any better theatrical criticism. The style is nervous and vivid, and the critical acumen displayed of a high order.... The criticisms are a valuable contribution to dramatic literature, and will be read with great interest by all playgoers."

Glasgow Herald.—"The dramatic critic's vivid impressions and subtle analysis enable us to compare the varied interpretations which dramatic genius have put upon Shakespeare's great creation. They will make interesting reading for the student as well as the playgoer, for Mr Scott does not fail to note deviations from this or that text, and departures from traditional 'points' and hackneyed effects."

"Sisters by the Sea." Seaside and Country Sketches. By CLEMENT SCOTT, Author of "Blossom Land," "Amongst the Apple Orchards," Etc. Frontispiece and Vignette designed by GEORGE POWNALL. Long 12mo, attractively bound in cloth, 1s.

Observer.—"The little book is bright and readable, and will come like a breath of country air to many unfortunates who are tied by the leg to chair, stool, or counter."

Dundee Advertiser.—"It is all delightful, and almost as good as a holiday. The city clerk, the jaded shopman, the weary milliner, the pessimistic dyspeptic, should each read the book. It will bring a suggestion of sea breezes, the plash of waves, and all the accessories of a holiday by the sea."

A Vagabond in Asia. A Volume of Travel off the Beaten Track. By EDMUND CANDLER. With Illustrations from Photographs, and a Map showing the Author's route. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Morning Post.—"Brightly written and full of observation that throws vivid and playful sidelights here and there, and provides entertainment that does not always appertain to works of travel."

Daily Express.—"A delightful and intimate work."

Sunday Special.—"There is an intense enthusiasm, a poetic fervour, and a dry sense of humour, such as you only find at intervals among books."

Outlook.—"These records of Reiselust, or go-fever, as we may call them, are off the beaten track, are novel, manly and picturesque."

Standard.—"The book is written with humour, his impressions of men and places are vivid, and the charm of the volume is heightened by illustrations, some of which bring us face to face with typical natives of the East, whilst others afford fair glimpses of tropical scenery."

Captain Mayne Reid: His Life and Adventures. By his WIDOW and CHAS. COE, U.S.A. With numerous Portraits and Illustrations. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Daily Graphic.—"A fascinating work in which Captain Mayne Reid's life is carefully and sympathetically sketched."

World.—"The career of this popular writer was adventurous and thrilling, and Mrs Mayne Reid tells in the most entertaining manner the literary history of her husband and the eventful incidents of his career. Altogether it is a fascinating biography of an interesting person."

Weekly Despatch.—"A truly fascinating volume which should be read by everyone."

The Messiahship of Shakspeare. Sung and expounded by CLELIA (CHAS. DOWNING). Demy 8vo, art cloth gilt, 5s.

Daily Telegraph (W. L. COURTNEY) says:—"It is a wonderful book that Mr Downing has written, and no brief analysis could do it adequate justice."

Review of the Week.—"It is a very remarkable book, and the ideas set forth in it are startlingly original.... The man who is not moved to think deeply after reading this book must indeed be 'dead to the soul.' In a style that is beautiful in its simplicity, Clelia works out his conclusions with marvellous skill."

Westminster Review.—"Contains much sound criticism of a new and daring kind.... The book should be read by all Shakspearean students."

God in Shakspeare. An Evolution of the Ideal in the Poet's Works. By CLELIA (CHAS. DOWNING), Author of "The Messiahship of Shakspeare." Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Daily Chronicle.—"Intelligent and scholarly, acute and careful."

Glasgow Herald.—"A knowledge of Shakspeare unrivalled except by Mr Swinburne."

Scotsman.—"Really profound insight. Keen and clever analysis."

A Book of the Poster. By W. S. ROGERS. Profusely Illustrated with Examples of Poster Work by the famous Poster Artists of the day. 4to, cloth, 7s. 6d.

Sketch.—"A complete and valuable work upon an important and interesting subject."

St James's Gazette.—"A large and handsome book. Well written and beautifully illustrated."

Whitehall Review.—"The way Mr Rogers has done his work is a testimonial at once to his knowledge and a monument to his taste. This very handsome volume ... is worthy of a place in anybody's library."

Bookman.—"An interesting and valuable book for all interested in poster work and poster collections. The illustrations are thoroughly representative and excellently produced."

Northern Lights and Shadows. Stories of Eskimo Life. By R. G. TABER, with some folk lore tales translated from the original Eskimo, and an autograph letter from the Marquis of Lorne reproduced in facsimile. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Daily Chronicle.—"We take pleasure in commending the book because of its freshness and genuine excellence. Mr Taber has undoubtedly struck what is a virgin soil so far as fiction is concerned. The local colour of the story is novel—so novel, in fact, as to give quite an unusual interest and value to the book."

Umpire (Book of the Week).—"Mr Taber has the gift of story-telling, and he has the peculiar satisfaction of being first in an entirely new field. There is undoubted fascination in his pages."

Outlook.—"Well written and decidedly entertaining. It is to be hoped that Mr Taber may produce another series of characteristic stories, as direct in their appeal to the sympathy as are these."

Literature.—"Fresh and uncommon. Mr Taber really gets the Arctic atmosphere and feeling into his work."

Woman: A Study and Defence. Adapted from the French of ALFRED FOUILLÉE by the Rev. T. A. SEED. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

Review of the Week.—"An interesting little book. The scientific arguments are lucidly and convincingly put."

Sunday Special.—"There is much curious information in this little book, first as to the scientific origin and formation of the feminine portion of humanity, and next as to woman's limitations and powers."

Scotsman.—"It is a suggestive essay on the eternal question of the Eternal Feminine, the principal points in which problem it states with neatness and brevity, and argues out with commendable conciseness."

Some Home Truths* re The Maori War, 1863 to 1869, on the West Coast of New Zealand. By Lt.-Col.

EDWARD GORTON (New Zealand Militia), late Captain H. M.
29th and 57th Regiments. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.

A Trip to Paradoxia, and other Humours of the Hour.
Being Contemporary Pictures of Social Fact and Political Fiction. By T. H. S. ESCOTT, Author of "Personal Forces of the Period," "Social Transformation of the Victorian Age," "Platform, Press, Politics, and Play," Etc. A new and cheaper edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Standard.—"A book which is amusing from cover to cover. Bright epigrams abound in Mr Escott's satirical pictures of the modern world.... Those who know the inner aspects of politics and society will, undoubtedly, be the first to recognise the skill and adroitness with which he strikes at the weak places in a world of intrigue and fashion.... There is a great deal of very clever sword-play in Mr Escott's description of Dum-Dum (London), the capital of Paradoxia (England)."

Bye-Ways of Crime. With some Stories from the Black Museum. By R. J. POWER-BERREY. Profusely Illustrated.
Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Outlook.—"Decidedly you should read Mr Power-Berrey's interesting book, taking laugh and shudder as they come."

Sheffield Independent.—"We do not remember to have ever seen a more popularly-written summary of the methods of thieves than this bright and chatty volume. It is the work of a writer who evidently has a most intimate knowledge of the criminal classes, and who can carry on a plain narrative briskly and forcibly. The book fascinates by its freshness and unusualness."

Liverpool Review.—"This is no fanciful production, but a clear, dispassionate revelation of the dodges of the professional criminal. Illustrated by numerous pen and ink sketches, Mr Power-Berrey's excellent work is useful as well as interesting, for it will certainly not assist the common pilferer to have all his little tricks made public property in this lucid and easily-rememberable style.”

The Art of Elocution and Public Speaking. By ROSS FERGUSON. With an Introduction by GEO. ALEXANDER. Dedicated by permission to Miss ELLEN TERRY. Second Edition. Crown 8vo, strongly bound in cloth, 1s.

Australian Mail.—“A useful little book. We can strongly recommend it to the chairmen of public companies.”

Stage.—“A carefully-composed treatise, obviously written by one as having authority. Students will find it of great service.”

Literary World.—“The essentials of elocution are dealt with in a thoroughly capable and practical way. The chapter on public speaking is particularly satisfactory.”

The Path of the Soul. Being Essays on Continental Art and Literature. By S. C. de SOISSONS, Author of “A Parisian in America,” etc. Illustrated with portraits, etc. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 10s. 6d. (in preparation).

From the Book Beautiful. Being Some Old Lights Re-lit. By the Author of “The Hypocrite” and “Miss Malevolent.” Cloth gilt, gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

Lloyd’s.—“Full of reverence, yet glows with vivid imagination.... These are Bible stories in a most novel and attractive form, never irreverent, but full of the keenest interest.”

British Weekly.—“Among the many attempts which have recently been made to fill out the Bible stories with the realistic touches suggested by our increased knowledge of the conditions of life in ancient times, this anonymous volume will take a high place. Seven stories are retold, some from the Old, some from the New Testament. To certain tastes they may seem too elaborately wrought, the author evidently relishes what is gorgeous, and his descriptions of Potiphar's house are very richly inlaid with ornament, but whatever be the judgment of readers in this respect, there can be no question as to the effective realism of the narratives. Certainly some of the stories will convey both to children and adults fresh and memorable conceptions of Biblical scenes."

MARIE CORELLI

Patriotism or Self-Advertisement? A Social Note on the Transvaal War, 1899-1900. By MARIE CORELLI. Sixth Edition. 4to, sewed, 2d.

Nebo: The Merchant of Susa. A Drama in Three Acts. By A. J. FERREIRA. Small 8vo, hand-made paper, art cloth, gilt, 2s. 6d. nett.

Daily Mail (Glasgow).—"The story unfolded is very interesting and full of exciting incidents."

Aberdeen Free Press.—"A highly readable piece of work, and it would, we feel sure, if suitably mounted and in the hands of capable actors, prove eminently effective on the stage. The action is rapid, there are no diffuse vapourings, and there is ample scope for attractive scenic effect."

Independent (Sheffield).—"The Assyrian setting makes a novel background, and there is movement and some striking situations in the play."

Ideal Physical Culture, And the Truth about the Strong Man. By APOLLO (the Scottish Hercules and Sandow's Challenger). Fourth Edition. Profusely illustrated, cloth, 2s. 6d.

To-day.—"It is a very sensible book, and Apollo knows what he is talking about."

County Gentleman.—"Will prove useful to aspiring young athletes."

Westminster Gazette.—"Those who take an interest in Physical Culture will find the manual instructive and useful."

Football Echo.—"Ideal Physical Culture' scatters to the wind much of the nonsense and bunkum written ad nauseam about the strong man, his biceps, his triceps, the muscular fat, and his stupendous feats."

The Year Book of the Stage. Being an annual record of criticisms of all the important productions of the English Stage, with copious Index and complete Cast of each Play recorded. Compiled by L. ARTHUR GREENING. About 260 pages, strongly bound in cloth, 3s. 6d.

A History of Nursery Rhymes. By PERCY B. GREEN.
This interesting Book is the result of many years research among nursery folklore of all nations, and traces the origin of nursery rhymes from the earliest times. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Morning Post.—"Contains a great deal of pleasing information concerning the origin of our nursery songs, fairy tales and games ... and the author treats his subject in a manner which is both entertaining and intelligible."

World.—"Will be found entertaining by everybody."

Spectator.—"The reader will find much curious matter in Mr Green's volume."

Examiner (Cork).—"A comprehensive and thoroughly interesting book."

Madame.—"A most interesting book.... To those mothers who have their children round them in the story-telling twilight this book of Mr Green's should be a treasury of delight."

In Quaint East Anglia. Descriptive Sketches. By T. WEST CARNIE. Illustrated by W. S. ROGERS. Long 12mo, cloth, 1s.

Observer.—"That East Anglia exercises a very potent spell over those who once come under its influence is proved by the case of George Borrow, and all who share in the fascination will delight in this brightly written, companionable little volume."

Graphic.—"It is a prettily got up and readable little book."

Saturday Review.—"Will be welcomed by all who have come under the charm of East Anglia."

A Man Adrift. Being Leaves from a Nomad's Portfolio. By BART KENNEDY, Author of "Darab's Wine-Cup," "The Wandering Romanoff," etc. This very entertaining book is a narrative of adventures in all parts of the world. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Mr ANDREW LANG, in the course of a long and laudatory notice in Longman's Magazine, said:—"It is a strange photograph of rude and violent life. The narrator always carries his life in his fist. He describes, better than any other writer, the existence of a tramp, and gives an amazing account of the brutality, and even torture, practised on workers in some parts of the United States.... The book is as simple in style as Swift's writing; a kind of labouring Trelawny might have fathered these adventures of a younger son."

Mr RICHARD LE GALLIENNE (in the Idler).—"A Man Adrift' has held me as few recent books have power to do. The book is 'real' because it has first been really lived, and then been really written. Mr Kennedy's book has held me, not only by its reality, but by its courage, its pity, its humour, its all-embracing humanity, its quiet fierceness. 'A Man Adrift' is a brave book."

Morning Leader.—"The record of an adventurous life, when well told, always appeals to the imagination and sympathy of the reader, and 'A Man Adrift' is such a record. Presumably the adventures are real; they have all the vividness of reality at all events, and one follows the hardships and wanderings of the narrator with keen interest.... Mr Kennedy is to be congratulated on his 'Man Adrift.'"

County Gentleman.—"This is the book of a strong man. It has vigour, originality and power, and comes as a refreshing change after the maudlin sentimentality of most modern stories.... Mr Kennedy has a characteristic style. He writes in short, crisp sentences that are at once direct and fearless. It is mainly his own story that he tells in this strangely fascinating volume."

Woman and the Wits. Epigrams on Woman, Love, and Beauty. Collected and edited by G. F. MONKSHOOD, Author of "Rudyard Kipling: The Man and His Work," "Lady Ruby," etc. New and revised edition. Small 8vo, art vellum, gilt extra, gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

Great Thoughts.—"The most beautiful book on my table is 'Woman and the Wits.'... In this lovely volume of about 200 pages some of the wisest, wittiest, tenderest epigrams on woman and on cognate topics to be found in ancient and modern times, have been brought together with taste and judgment."

Ladies' Pictorial.—"The compiler of this dainty little volume has produced a veritable lucky bag for the dipper who is anxious to find something smart and clever."

Madame.—"A book that should find favour on every woman's table."

Literary World.—"The epigrams are well selected, and should form a perfect armoury for any young bachelor put up to propose the toast of 'The Ladies.'... There is good variety too."

Dress in a Nutshell. By “R.” A Booklet every woman who wishes to dress tastefully should certainly possess. Crown 16mo, cloth, 1s.; sewed, 6d.

Weeds and Flowers. Poems by WILLIAM LUTHER LONGSTAFF, Author of “The Tragedy of the Lady Palmist.” Crown 8vo, art cloth, gilt extra, gilt top, 2s. 6d. nett.

Sun.—“Mr Longstaff has real fire and passion in all of his work. He has a graceful touch and a tuneful ear. There is exquisite melody in his metre.”

Times.—“He has passion and energy enough to stock half a dozen average minor poets.... But he has in him something of the stuff of which poetry—as opposed to verse—is made.”

Court Circular.—“Unquestionably a poet of a very high order—musical, suggestive, imaginative and picturesque. ‘In the Times to come’ is a beautiful poem, full of suggestion, with a subtle melody of its own. How well Mr Longstaff can write is seen in ‘A Hopeless Dawn.’ It is the work of a true poet. Mr Longstaff’s poems deserve more extended notice. There is art in his work, and music; and his verse is full of promise. Mr Longstaff’s muse is frank and sincere, and many of his readers will forgive her for not posing as a prude.”

Ballads of Ghostly Shires. By GEORGE BARTRAM, Author of “The People of Clopton,” “The White-headed Boy,” etc. Dedication accepted by Theodore Watts-Dunton. Small 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d. nett.

Speaker.—“We hail with the greatest pleasure Mr George Bartram’s ‘Ballads of Ghostly Shires.’”

Academy.—“His descriptive passages have the true poetic touch, and a fresh grace about them. He is, in truth, well worth reading, and has the distinction of writing narrative verse well in a lyric age. It is a breezy, picturesque, taking little book."

Athenæum.—"Mr Bartram has the gift of description, and his vigorous narrative verse moves swiftly."

Sunday Sun.—"Remarkable and beautiful poems. Enjoyable reading."

Village Life and Feeling. Songs and Verses. By RUPERT UPPERTON, the Ploughboy Poet. 2s. 6d. nett.

Scotsman.—"This is a pleasant and an interesting volume of healthy English verse.... The book deserves to be read, and will interest any curious lover of poetry."

North Star.—"Amusing and instructive poems illustrative of village life. Those who are on the lookout for new recitations should examine this volume."

Glasgow Herald.—"His humour and satire are genial and well-meaning. He is not without sentiment, and his lyrical pieces will be heartily appreciated."

Morning Leader.—"There is some good stuff and not a little quaint feeling in the verses of Rupert Upperton."

St Andrew's.—"Many a simple soul—and there are millions of such in our land—utterly unable to appreciate the poetry of the critics, will find itself charmed, purified and elevated by the kindly muse of Mr Upperton. Messrs Greening & Co. have done their work well, and enshrined these 'woodnotes wild' in a beautiful piece of letterpress."

POPULAR FICTION

An Obscure Apostle. A Powerful and Dramatic Tale, translated from the Polish of Mdme. ORZESZKO by Count S. C. de SOISSONS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Saturday Review.—"An absorbing and delightful story, and we are sure it will be read with the greatest pleasure by those who can best appreciate the merits of the finer kinds of fiction."

British Weekly.—"A good story, dramatic, poetic and pathetic."

Daily Graphic.—"An admirable translation of a fine, intensely human tragedy. One reads it from first to last entirely fascinated."

Bookman.—"A deeply impressive story it is, and if Madame Orzeszko has written others equally good, we must hope Count de Soissons will translate them for us."

St James's Gazette.—"A curious and interesting story, which, apart from its power, deserves notice because of the novelty of its material. The jaded appetite, weary of English drawing-rooms, Californian mines, and Indian flirtations, will here find an absolutely fresh entourage to a very remarkable story.... It is pictorial, poetic and dramatic."

The Modern Argonauts. A Novel. By ELIZA ORZESZKO, Author of "An Obscure Apostle." Translated from the Polish by Count S. C. de SOISSONS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Liverpool Review.—"The Modern Argonauts' is a remarkable piece of fiction; a work of powerful conception, of original and charming expression, and of noble and exhilarating thought."

Spectator.—"Madame Orzeszko paints in 'The Modern Argonauts' the domestic tragedy of a successful modern millionaire with a boldness and a vigour that remind one of Jokai. The characterisation shows the influence of modern ideas in their most advanced and disintegrating form.... It is a luridly picturesque problem novel."

Daily News.—"The picture which Madame Orzeszko presents, painted on impressionist lines, with suggestions of the symbolistic school, is distinctly striking.... Each of the characters in this stirring work is individualised with great skill."

Daily Chronicle.—"A powerful story, clever and amusing."

Dundee Courier.—"The story is powerful; the English vigorous; the moral commendable."

Evening Times.—"Its power fascinates us. The originality of the conception, the skill with which the characters are drawn, and the vigour and vividness of the writing testify not only to keen insight into human nature, but to Madame Orzeszko's maintenance to the eve of threescore years rare and youthful freshness."

A Girl of the North. A Tale of London and Canada. By HELEN MILECETE. Second Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Saturday Review.—"It is piquant and up-to-date. Miss Milecete's style is engagingly direct and simple, and she has a natural talent for story-telling."

Topical Times.—"A pretty story, charmingly written.... It is pleasant to read, mainly because it is well written, but its glimpses of existence in Canada and West End life do not lack either picturesqueness or humour."

Outlook.—"There is some clever writing in this novel, and the Canadian chapters are particularly fresh and picturesque."

An Exile in Bohemia. A powerful and enthralling Novel. By ERNEST E. WILLIAMS, Author of "Made in

A Detached Pirate. A Novel. By HELEN MILECETE,
Author of "A Girl of the North." Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Ladies' Pictorial.—"A clever and audacious book. The story is told in letters, and very clever letters they are ... Miss Vandeleur is not nervy, and I prefer her wholesome audacity to the wild wailing of 'The Love Letters of an Englishwoman.'"

Court Circular.—"A bright and fascinating book."

Truth.—"A light and bright modern story of a divorcée with herself as co-respondent. Her habit of masquerading as a man got her into this truly American scrape, and the truly American way in which she got out of it and was re-united to her Othello, is told in the difficult form of letters with a spirit worthy of so whimsical a plot."

Committed to His Charge. A Canadian Romance.
By KATE and ROBINA LIZARS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Athenæum.—"This book is decidedly interesting. The authors have a very pleasant gift of gaiety and an agreeable way of expressing themselves."

Daily News.—"Both interesting and amusing."

Record.—"Very clever and humorous."

Where the Oranges Grow. A Humorous Novel. By N. A. LEYKEN (the Russian Mark Twain). Translated from the original by Count S. C. de SOISSONS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

The Tragedy of a Pedigree. An Interesting Story. By HUGO AMES. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Sketch.—"Such easy epigrammatic talk as is to be found in this book is not often met with. It is witty and delightful, and the characters seem to be drawn from life with a master-pen."

Scotsman.—"An excellent story, well written and easily read."

Sunday Special.—"Can be recommended as a bright, terse, epigrammatic novel of to-day. There are so few writers who are capable of constructing a neat and telling epigram that the present volume is doubly welcome."

Vanity Fair.—"This novel is entertaining, suggestive, gently cynical and quick with promise."

Madame.—"It is a crisp delineation of modern social life, abounding in excellent characterisation, sparkling dialogue and epigrams that are new and smart. There is scarcely a page of the book that does not contain a sentence worth reading a second time and then marking with pencil for another perusal."

Red Fate. A Powerful Novel. By EDMUND FORBES. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

Daily Despatch.—"In 'Red Fate' we have a daring book. Messrs Greening have in Mr Forbes the writer of a strong book that will cause some talk."

The Scotsman.—"The story possesses the merits of freshness, originality and ingenuity. It is written in an animated and picturesque style, and is full of life and incident."

Onlooker.—"Mr Edmund Forbes has drawn a striking study, and his style and language are always most scholarly. Grellier is a real and living character. It is a book that could only have been written by one endowed with the imagination and musical pen that betray the poet."

The Prettiness of Fools. A Realistic and Powerful Novel. By EDGAR HEWITT. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Literary World.—"Very entertaining reading."

Dundee Advertiser.—"A singularly strong story."

Morning Post.—"An ambitious book, ambitious in its style and in the bold way it affects to tackle matters which are generally reserved for private conversation. At the same time it were ungracious to deny that Mr Edgar Hewitt has written a very clever book, full of keen observation, and not unseasoned with humour."

Gentlewoman.—"A powerful and interesting book, with the interest kept up till the end ... altogether a very amusing and clever book."

The Magnetism of Sin. A Tale Founded on Fact. By "ÆSCULAPIUS." Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Midland Mail.—"An interesting story.... Exceedingly well written."

Daily Despatch.—"The 'Magnetism of Sin' is a story as choke full of mystery as any tale could be.... The author of the book—who is obviously a very daring young man—has written a story which is as remarkable in its way as 'The Mystery of a Hansom Cab.'"

Evening News (Manchester).—"Lovers of the sensational in fiction will find plenty to interest them in 'The Magnetism of Sin.'... The story is full of romance and dramatic incident, the chapters dealing with the raid on the house by the police, the fight for liberty, the bold escape of the double-dyed traitor, and his subsequent capture and execution in Australia being particularly thrilling."

The After-Taste. A Novel. By COMPTON READE, Author of "Hard Lines," "Under which King," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Dr PARKER (of the City Temple) says:—"From beginning to end the action of the story is most vivid and most natural. It must certainly win itself many readers."

Daily Graphic.—"Amplly repays for the reading, for it is written with a keen sense of the fitness of things, and without setting probability at nought—qualities not too frequently found in novels. It is written in a sympathetic style, and keeps the attention centred in the interesting career of the heroine."

Daughters of Pleasure. A Novel. By ANNA, COMTESSE DE BRÉMONT. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

Topical Times.—"Brisk and spicy without being blatant and salacious ... a very good book, which says a lot of things that wanted saying frankly but delicately. It is, at the same time, an engrossing romance."

Globe.—"Readers will find plenty of cleverness and 'go,' the Bohemian side of artistic life being described with verisimilitude as well as graphic force."

Books of To-day.—"A story of deep human interest, set forth with undoubted literary talent, sense of style, and an ability to handle pure narrative that is rare and welcome. A book which can not only be read with interest, but re-read."

The Seekers Of Sentiment. A Series of Powerful Stories. By a "WESTMINSTER SCHOOLBOY." Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

The Power of the Past. A Novel. By DAISY HUGH PRYCE, Author of "The Pasha," "Goddesses Three," "Valda Hanem," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

A Son of Africa. A Tale of Marvellous Adventures. By ANNA, COMTESSE DE BRÉMONT, Author of "Daughters of Pleasure," "The Gentleman Digger," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Morning Post.—"Written with unmistakable power."

Weekly Times.—"Deserves to be the success of the season."

World.—"Contains striking incidents graphically related. We cannot fail to admire the ingenuity displayed by the writer."

St James's Gazette.—"A strange and weird story is 'A Son of Africa,' the latest from the pen of Anna, Comtesse de Brémont, author of 'The Gentleman Digger.' From the writer of that story we expect and get vivid word-pictures and local colouring. The descriptions of scenery and incident are wonderfully striking and impressive.... Such is the story of 'A Son of Africa' in brief outline. The filling in is sometimes lurid, but always forceful. It is written with power and grip."

The Gentleman Digger. Realistic Pictures of Life in Johannesburg. By ANNA, COMTESSE DE BRÉMONT, Author of “A Son of Africa,” etc. New Edition, revised to date, with a new Preface. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Academy.—“The Comtesse de Brémont presents us with a terribly realistic picture of life in Johannesburg during the raging of the gold fever.”

Daily Telegraph.—“Those who like a good story, pleasantly told, should read ‘The Gentleman Digger.’... Readers who turn their attention to this volume will, apart from the interesting plot, gain much insight into the manners and customs of a land which is only just breaking into civilisation as we understand it.”

Spectator.—“The characters are true to life, and the narration is continuous and spirited. The Comtesse de Brémont knows how to describe people and places, and there is local colouring.”

Cynthia’s Damages. A Story of Stage-craft. By REGINALD TURNER. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

In The World of Mimes. A Story of Theatrical Life. By LEWIS MELVILLE, Author of “The Life of Thackeray,” etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Mora: One Woman’s History. An Interesting Novel by T. W. SPEIGHT, Author of “The Crime in the Wood,” “The Mysteries of Heron Dyke,” etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Scotsman.—“One may run through the story of ‘Mora’ with considerable enjoyment of the brisk development of an amusing little drama.... It is clever in contrivance, and lively and entertaining.”

Athenæum.—"The story is pleasing and wholesome. Its general character is that of a comedy with occasional lapses into the realm of drama.... 'Mora' is quite like literature, with some amusing scenes, and a general prevalence of good temper."

Two Days in a Life-time. a Novel. By T. W. SPEIGHT, Author of "Mora," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

For Himself Alone. A Novel. By T. W. SPEIGHT, Author of "The Mystery of Heron Dyke," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Lady.—"A strong and dramatic novel."

Record.—"The story shows great power and the character of Julie is a wonderful creation."

North Star.—"The book is considerably above the average, and bears evidence of insight into character and skill in plot construction of no mean order. The story has a thrilling interest, and is dramatically told."

Ira Lorraine. A Story of To-day. By CORALIE FEVEZ. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

Illustrated London News.—"Full of incident and movement."

Weekly Despatch.—"This is a very pretty love story charmingly told. The characters are cleverly drawn. There are, of course, trials, and the lights and shadows of a woman's troubled career, but what love story was ever written without its trials and the inevitable 'all's well'? In the case of 'Ira Lorraine' the end is satisfactory."

A Comedy of Temptation; or, The Amateur Fiend. A Tale. By TRISTRAM COUTTS, Author of "The Pottle Papers." Cloth, 3s. 6d.

Daily News.—"A very bright and breezy little story, wholesome and amusing."

Athenæum.—"May be heartily recommended. A really ingenious story, and provides quite pleasurable excitement, while throughout the book runs a vein of facetious humour which will make it doubly welcome."

Echo.—"A very sprightly tale, which, despite the extravagance of its leading motive, is full of humour—good humour and human nature."

Daily Telegraph.—"The author of the unquestionably humorous and conspicuously successful 'Pottle Papers' has given the novel-reading public another 'taste of his quality' in this fantastic story.... The element of surprise predominates throughout this eminently entertaining narrative; unexpectedness is the essential characteristic of all its more salient incidents, comical or tragical; its dialogue sparkles with genuine, irresistible fun."

Spectator.—"Mr Tristram Coutts has a genuine gift of humour, and his account of the chequered courtship of a young London clerk is enlivened with many hilarious touches. The account of the household of Mr Merridew, the irrepressible, if impecunious, optimist who named all his numerous progeny after famous commanders and authors, is really delightful."

The Weird Well. A Tale of To-day. By Mrs ALEC M'MILLAN, Author of "The Evolution of Daphne," "So Runs my Dream," etc. Art cloth, 3s. 6d.

Scotsman.—"Carefully constructed and written with skill, which makes it always agreeable to read."

Literary World.—"An interesting, brightly-written story."

Weekly Times.—"Very powerfully written. Will be read with breathless interest."

Such is the Law. An Interesting Story. By MARIE M. SADLEIR, Author of "An Uncanny Girl," etc. Cloth, 6s.

Vanity Fair.—"A very entertaining novel."

Sun.—"An undoubtedly clever novel, told in vigorous language."

St James's Budget.—"So full of incident is 'Such is the Law' that we are unable to do more than touch the fringe of the plot, and must leave to the reader the task of watching the development of the new romance, which produces an aftermath of happiness for Lavender, and brings a thoroughly interesting story to a satisfactory close."

—— And Afterwards? A Powerful Novel. By Mrs HAROLD GORST, Author of "Possessed of Devils." Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

A Virtue of Necessity. A Powerful Tale. By HERBERT ADAMS. Cloth gilt, 6s.

Sun.—"A powerful, stirring tale of the present day. From start to finish it is interesting, especially to lady readers."

Literary World.—"The writing is good, and many of the remarks are smart and pungent while free from any straining after cleverness."

Record.—"Eminently readable throughout."

Athenæum.—"The dialogue is natural and well rendered."

The Shadow on the Manse. A Story of Religion and the Stage. By CAMPBELL RAE-BROWN, Author of "Kissing-Cup's Race," etc. Cloth gilt, 3s. 6d.

Public Opinion.—"An excellent novel in every way."

Bookman.—"An interesting story well told."

Weekly Sun.—"A touching story and a clever one."

Literature.—"The situations are ... treated with a satirical bitterness of tone. But many of the scenes are strong in themselves, cleverly arranged, and treated with power and reticence.... There are occasional faults, but the tenderness with which Mary Paul's self-sacrifice is recorded, makes us inclined to condone them and to congratulate the author."

A Social Upheaval. An Unconventional Dramatic Satirical Tale. By ISIDORE G. ASCHER, Author of "An Odd Man's Story," "The Doom of Destiny," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

Daily Telegraph.—"The hero is an interesting dreamer, absorbed in his schemes, which are his one weakness. To women, save when they can further the good of his cause, he is obdurate; in business, strong, energetic and powerful. He is shown to us as the man with a master mind and one absorbing delusion, and as such is a pathetic figure. No one can dispute the prodigality and liveliness of the author's imagination; his plot teems with striking incidents."

Vanity Fair.—"The story tells itself very clearly in three hundred pages of very pleasant and entertaining reading. The men and women we meet are not the men and women we really come across in this world. So much the better for us. But we are delighted to read about them, for all that; and we prophesy success for Mr Ascher's book, particularly as he has taken the precaution of telling us that he is 'only in fun.'"

A Cry in the Night. An exciting Detective Story. By ARNOLD GOLSWORTHY, Author of "Death and the Woman,"
"Hands in the Darkness," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Pall Mall Gazette.—"The book is ingenious and cleverly constructed, and there is no lack of exciting reading, it is melodramatic, but is relieved by humour characteristic of Mr Golsworthy."

Athenæum.—"A creditably ingenious tale of crime and detection, drawn with spirit and humour."

Morning Post.—"We must give Mr Golsworthy high praise for the way in which he plays the game. Old hands as we are at these things, we were for a long time completely baffled by the plot as the most wooden-headed detective of fiction.... It is an excellent book of its particular kind. Mr Golsworthy has succeeded admirably in the careful, clever, amusing character-drawing of an odd group of subsidiary folk. These are very human people who stick in the mind after the book is closed."

A Dead Woman's Vow. A Powerful Story. By EMILE
ZOLA. Translated by Count S. C. de SOISSONS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Sapho. A new Translation, by G. F. MONKSHOOD, of DAUDET'S celebrated Romance. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Thaïs. A new Translation, by E. F. MOODY, of the celebrated
Romance of Old Egypt by the great French novelist, ANATOLE FRANCE. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Shams! A Social Satire. By ——? This is a remarkable and interesting story of Modern Life in London Society. It is a powerful work, written with striking vividness. The plot is fascinating, the incidents exciting, and the dialogue epigrammatic and brilliant. “Shams” is written by one of the most popular novelists of the day. Sixth Edition. Crown 8vo, art cloth, gilt, 3s. 6d.

Public Opinion.—“This novel is a daring attack. The author, whoever he may be, is a clever writer, and the pictures of the seamy side of idle London life are described by him with vivid power.”

The Outlook.—“Something wrong-headed, sensual, and Corellian is anticipated, nor is one disappointed.... Bound to command the public.”

Christian World.—“A pungent, cleverly-written, and altogether out-of-the-common-rut Society novel. The author unsparingly exposes the ‘little ways’ of smart people.... Every sane reader will wish the author success in his efforts to expose the hollowness and rottenness of ‘aristocratic virtuous London.’”

The North Star.—“The book is of a most daring character, but the author has treated his theme in a very clever manner.... Messrs W. H. Smith & Son refuse to circulate ‘Shams,’ objecting to it on moral grounds. This act on their part, however, will not greatly interfere with the sale of the book, which really castigates vice. We believe it will be as widely read as the works of Ouida and Marie Corelli.”

Romance Of a Harem. Translated from the French of “Dans L’ombre du Harem” by CLARENCE FORESTIER-WALKER. Crown 8vo, art vellum, 5s.

The Idealist. A Realistic Roman-a-clef. By GROVE JOHNSON. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Zoroastro. An Historical Romance. By CRESWICK J. THOMPSON, Author of "Poison Romance and Poison Mysteries," "The Mystery and Romance of Alchemy and Pharmacy," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

To-day.—"There is no lack of excitement in 'Zoroastro.' The tale is a good one, and should be popular."

St James's Gazette.—"A sound and entertaining piece of work."

Universe.—"A splendidly-written romance of a sixteenth-century magician, and there is no lack of interest throughout the book. The various ideas of the time, descriptions of the customs and modes of living, are cleverly woven into the story."

The Sword of Fate. An Interesting Novel. By HENRY HERMAN, Author of "Eagle Joe," "Scarlet Fortune," etc., and Joint Author of the "Silver King," "Claudian." Crown 8vo, art cloth, 6s.

Vanity Fair says:—"The hand that wrote the 'Silver King' has by no means lost its cunning in painting broad effects of light and shadow. The description of life in Broadmoor is, we fancy, done from actual observation. It is quite new." And the critic of Black and White sums it up pithily as "A story which holds our attention and interests us right from the first chapter. The book is as exciting as even a story of sensation has any need to be." Speaking of the scene of Mr Herman's drama, the beautiful county of Devonshire, where the greater part of the story takes place, the Manchester Courier says: "The author's descriptive powers vividly portray the lovely spots by the winding Tamar, while the rich dialect of the district is so faithfully reproduced as to become not the least feature of an exciting tale."

Outrageous Fortune. Being the Confessions of Evelyn Gray, Hospital Nurse. A Story founded on fact, proving that truth is stranger than fiction. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Liverpool Review.—"A smart, anonymous novel. The story is capitally written, and is extremely interesting. Evelyn Gray's adventures are narrated in a style so realistic as to leave the impression that the writer is either a medical man or one who has had very intimate acquaintance with hospital life."

Lloyd's.—"A strong book, and one that readers will find interesting. It is undoubtedly clever and well written."

Daily Graphic.—"The characters are cleverly drawn, and the revelations of hospital life, of private nursing, and of the manners and customs of the 'celibate' clergy should ensure the volume considerable popularity."

Seven Nights with Satan. A Novel. By J. L. OWEN, Author of "The Great Jekyll Diamond." Cover designed by W. S. ROGERS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

St James's Gazette.—"We have read the book from start to finish with unflagging interest—an interest, by the way, which derives nothing from the 'spice,' for though its title may be suggestive of Zolaism, there is not a single passage which is open to objection. The literary style is good."

Truth.—"I much prefer the ghastly story 'Seven Nights with Satan,' a very clever study of degeneration."

The Green Passion. The Study of a Jealous Soul. A Powerful Novel. By ANTHONY P. VERT. Cover designed by ALFRED PRAGA. Crown 8vo, art cloth, 3s. 6d.

MR DOUGLAS SLADEN in The Queen.—"A remarkably clever book.... There is no disputing the ability with which the writer handles her subject. I say her subject, because the minuteness of the touches, and the odd, forcible style in which this book is written, point to it being the work of a female hand. The book is an eminently readable one, and it is never dull for a minute."

The Monitor.—"A wonderful piece of writing. The only modern parallel we can find is supplied in Mr F. C. Philipps's 'As in a Looking Glass.'"

Whitehall Review.—"In 'The Green Passion' the author traces with much ability, and not a little analytical insight, the progress of jealousy in the breast of a woman who is born with a very 'intense,' although not a very deep, nature.... There is in Mr Vert's work a certain tendency towards realism which has its due effect in making his characters real. They are no loosely-built fancies of the journalistic brain, but portraits—almost snapshot portraits—of men and women of to-day."

An Idol of Bronze. An Exciting Novel of Life in Western America. By LOUISE PALMER HEAVEN, Author of "Chata and Chinita?" Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Our Lady of the Ice. An Interesting Story of Alpine Adventure. By Miss CONSTANCE SUTCLIFFE. Crown 8vo, ornamental cloth, 6s.

Madonna Mia, and other Stories. By CLEMENT SCOTT, Author of "The Wheel of Life," "Sisters by the Sea," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Punch.—"Madonna Mia' is genuinely interesting. All the stories are good; you are 'Scott free' to pick 'em where you like." (The Baron de B. W.)

Weekly Sun.—"Shows Mr Scott's sturdy character-painting and love of picturesque adventure."

World.—"Clement Scott is nothing if not sympathetic, and every one of the ten stories is not only thoroughly readable, but is instinct with sentiment; for Mr Scott still retains a wonderful enthusiasm, usually the attribute of youth. 'Drifting' is a very fresh and convincing narrative, founded, we understand, upon truth, and containing within a small compass the materials for a very stirring drama. 'A Cross of Heather,' too, is a charming romance, told with real pathos and feeling."

The Dolomite Cavern. An Exciting Tale of Adventure.

By W. PATRICK KELLY, Author of "Schoolboys Three," etc.
Crown 8vo, cloth, 3s. 6d.

Observer.—"A story full of exciting adventure."

Saturday Review.—"The plot is ingenious, and the style pleasant."

Daily Telegraph.—"Lovers of the sensational in fiction will find abundance of congenial entertainment in Mr W. P. Kelly's new story. In the way of accessories to startling situations all is fish that comes to this ingenious author's net. The wonders of primitive nature, the marvels of latter-day science, the extravagances of human passion—all these he dexterously uses for the purpose of involving his hero in perilous scrapes from which he no less dexterously extricates him by expedients which, however far-fetched they may appear to the unimaginative, are certainly not lacking in originality of device or cleverness of construction.... This is a specimen incident—those which succeed it derive their special interest from the action of Röntgen rays, subterranean torrents, and devastating inundations. The book is very readable throughout, and ends happily. What more can the average novel reader wish for in holiday time?"

The Lady of the Leopard. A Powerful and Fascinating Novel. By CHAS. L'EPINE, Author of "The Devil in a Domino." A new edition. Crown 8vo, art cloth, 6s.

Public Opinion.—"A remarkable book.... We are plunged into a delicious and tantalising romance; incident follows incident like a panorama of exciting pictures. Fertility of imagination is everywhere apparent, and the dénouement is artfully concealed till it bursts upon the reader with a suddenness that fairly takes away his breath.”

Liverpool Post.—“A very skilfully-constructed story, mysterious and strange, with a natural explanation suggested of all the mystery which does not spoil one’s enjoyment (here follows analysis of plot). This is the bare outline of the story up to a certain point; it is impossible to convey adequately an idea of the awe-inspiring characteristics of the story. Readers can safely be recommended to turn to the book itself.”

The Love Thirst of Elaine. A Powerful Novel. By JUSTIN HANNAFORD. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

Miss Malevolent. A Realistic Study of Modern Life in London. By the Author of “The Hypocrite.” Second edition, with a new Preface. Art cloth, 3s. 6d.

Saturday Review.—“The great novel-reading public, which found ‘The Hypocrite’ to its taste, will not be disappointed in the author’s latest effort. The writer has a knack of character-presentment which means that his people live; he has a dramatic instinct; he is at times on the verge of real wit; he knows certain phases of literary and artistic life well; and his story is original enough to hold the interest throughout.”

St James’s Gazette.—“It is decidedly clever.... An improvement on ‘The Hypocrite.’ There is real power shown in the drawing of Kitty Nugent.”

Scotsman.—“You don’t get far into this novel—about a couple of pages—before the epigrams begin exploding and the repartee detonating, and the subtle terse and quart of wit with wit fuffuffing, like so many squibs and crackers on the Queen’s Birthday; and this coruscation is kept up in a way to make your hair curl until the end of the story.... The author has abundant literary aptitudes, exemplified over and over again by the pages of this clever book.”

GREENING & CO.'S POPULAR HALF-CROWN NOVELS

Well Printed in Large Type, and Strongly Bound in Artistically-Designed Cloth Covers.

The Hypocrite. A Modern Realistic Novel of Oxford and London Life. By the Author of "Miss Malevolent," "From the Book Beautiful," etc., etc. Seventh Impression. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

* * This book has been "boycotted" by Messrs Mudie and Messrs W. H. Smith & Son as being "unfit to circulate in their libraries," yet it has been praised by the press as being "a powerful sermon and a moral book."

Daily Telegraph.—"A book by an anonymous author always arouses a certain inquiry, and when the book is clever and original the interest becomes keen, and conjecture is rife, endowing the most unlikely people with authorship.... It is very brilliant, very forcible, very sad.... It is perfect in its way, in style clear, sharp and forcible, the dialogue epigrammatic and sparkling.... Enough has been said to show that 'The Hypocrite' is a striking and powerful piece of work, and that its author has established his claim to be considered a writer of originality and brilliance."

The Tragedy of the Lady Palmist. By W. LUTHER LONGSTAFF, Author of "Weeds and Flowers," etc. An exciting tale, descriptive of the "Behind-the-Scenes of the Palmist's Bohemia." Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Literature.—"The story strikes the fresh note of having been lived, experienced, and does not come to one as a stale invention. There is human nature in it, and passion, of a kind: tragedy too.... We should say, 'Read the book by all means.'"

Echo.—"Its general air of out-Bourget-ing Bourget. You will 'see life' in its story, no doubt, for it has a measure of pathos, insight and power, but most certainly you will not see life steadily."

Morning Leader.—"Vivid with the strange lusts and cruel desires of an imagination enslaved to the body ... powerful enough in the imaginative treatment of the characters.... The luridness is simply Titanic."

In Monte Carlo. A Tale by HENRYK SIENKIEWICZ, Author of "Quo Vadis," "With Fire and Sword," etc., etc. Translated by S. C. de SOISSONS. Crown 8vo, art cloth, with a new Portrait of the Author, 2s. 6d.

M. A. P.—"Very light and dainty in its tone. 'In Monte Carlo' is a typical example of the work of the great Polish writer.... It is the old, old tale of a man with a maid—plus a lady with the instincts of the vampire, who lives in the gambling hell of Europe."

Pall Mall Gazette.—"It is beyond all question the work of a great artist. It is subtly analytical and psychologically true. So triumphant is the art of the Polish novelist that we follow the story with lively sympathy and unflagging interest.... It is always interesting; the clear, able and convincing portrayal of the two leading characters gives the book its chief value. There are wise sayings and occasional epigrams, and the thumbnail sketches of Mrs Elsen's lovers are wholly admirable."

My Lady Ruby and John Basileon: Chief of Police. Two stories by G. F. MONKSHOOD, Author of “Rudyard Kipling: The Man and His Work,” etc. Cloth, 2s. 6d.

Monitor.—“‘My Lady Ruby’ is charming, and as witty as she is charming.... ‘John Basileon’ evinces imagination and subtlety of a highly vivid and intense quality. The note of the book is modern, but of a modernity far removed from that of the term understood by the French Symbolists and the English Degenerates. Messrs Greening & Co. are to be congratulated on a publication which is likely to arouse considerable attention in those literary circles from which approbation is praise indeed.”

“Fame, the Fiddler.” A Story of Literary and Theatrical Life. By S. J. ADAIR FITZ-GERALD. Crown 8vo, cloth, new and cheaper edition, 2s. 6d.

Graphic.—“The volume will please and amuse numberless people.”

Pall Mall Gazette.—“A pleasant, cheery story. Displays a rich vein of robust imagination.”

Standard.—“There are many pleasant pages in ‘Fame, the Fiddler,’ which reminds us of ‘Trilby,’ with its pictures of Bohemian life, and its happy-go-lucky group of good-hearted, generous scribblers, artists and playwrights. Some of the characters are so true to life that it is impossible not to recognise them. Among the best incidents in the volume must be mentioned the production of Pryor’s play, and the account of poor Jimmy Lambert’s death, which is as moving an incident as we have read for a long time. Altogether, ‘Fame, the Fiddler’ is a very human book, and an amusing one as well.”

Darab’s Wine-Cup, and other Powerful and Vividly-Written Stories. By BART KENNEDY, Author of “The Wandering Romanoff,” etc. New and cheaper Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

St James's Budget.—"A volume characteristic of the author's splendid powers."

M. A. P.—"Mr Kennedy writes powerfully, and can grip the reader's imagination, or whirl it off into the strangest domains of glamour and romance at will.... There is a future for this clever young man from Tipperary. He will do great things."

Critic.—"Of a highly imaginative order, and distinctly out of the ordinary run.... The author has a remarkable talent for imaginative and dramatic presentation. He sets before himself a higher standard of achievement than most young writers of fiction."

Cork Herald.—"Gracefully written, easy and attractive in diction and style, the stories are as choice a collection as we have happened on for a long time. They are clever; they are varied; they are fascinating. We admit them into the sacred circle of the most beautiful that have been told by the most sympathetic and skilled writers.... Mr Kennedy has a style, and that is rare enough nowadays—as refreshing as it is rare."

Dona Rufina. A Nineteenth Century Romance. Being a Story of Carlist Conspiracy. By HEBER DANIELS, Author of "Our Tenants." Second Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Lady.—"A thrilling romance with a mediæval atmosphere, although the scene is laid in the Cotswolds in the year of grace 1898. The story is well constructed, and is a good example of the widely-imaginative type of fiction that is so eagerly devoured by young people nowadays."

Eastern Morning News.—"Readers will be fascinated by the stirring scenes, the swiftly-moving panorama, the enacted tragedies, the wild, passionate, lawless loves depicted in the most sensational manner in this volume."

Lord Jimmy. A Story of Music-Hall Life. By GEORGE MARTYN. Second Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Outlook.—"The book is both humorous and dramatic."

Vanity Fair.—"The author has a peculiar knowledge of the 'Halls' and those who frequent them; and especially, as it seems to us, of those Jewish persons who sometimes run them. And he has made good use of his knowledge here. But there is more than this in the book; for 'George Martyn' has considerable descriptive talent. His account, for instance, of the fight between the hero and the butcher is quite good. The story is straightforward, convincing, and full of human nature and promise."

The Wandering Romanoff. A Romance. By BART KENNEDY, Author of "A Man Adrift," "Darab's Wine-Cup," etc. New and Cheaper Edition, crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

The Outlook.—"Mr Bart Kennedy, a young writer of singular imaginative gifts, and a style as individual as Mr Kipling's.... The writing of this story is strongly original in manner.... A powerful book."

Weekly Times.—"The Wandering Romanoff' is really good work.... We have read nothing finer for a long while."

A Tragedy of Grub Street. By S. J. ADAIR FITZGERALD, Author of "Fame, the Fiddler." A new and cheaper edition of this popular book, cloth, 2s. 6d.

The Gates of Temptation. A Natural Novel by MRS ALBERT S. BRADSHAW, Author of "False Gods," "Wife or Slave," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Midland Mail.—"The characters are vividly drawn. There are many pleasant and painful incidents in the book, which is interesting from beginning to end."

Aberdeen Free Press.—"Mrs Bradshaw has written several good novels, and the outstanding feature of all of them has been her skilful development of plot, and her tasteful, pleasing style. In connection with the present story we are able to amply reiterate those praises. The plot again is well developed and logically carried out, while the language used by the authoress is always happy and well chosen, and never commonplace.... The story is a very powerful one indeed, and may be highly commended as a piece of painstaking fiction of the very highest kind."

Mad? An Exciting Story of Predestination. By J. PYM
LOUGHNAN. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Evening Times.—"We must congratulate Mr Loughnan on his originality in conceiving an extraordinary character, and on working out the story with quite blood-curdling thrill."

Glasgow Herald.—"If the leading idea of the story is a little exaggerated, there can be no doubt as to the skill with which the author has worked out the details."

The Lady of Criswold. A Sensational Story. By LEONARD OUTRAM. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

North British Advertiser.—"A thrilling tale of love and madness."

Whitehall Review.—"No one can complain of lack of sensation, it is full of startling episodes. The characters are drawn with a rapid and vigorous touch. The interest is well maintained."

Court Circular.—"It reminds us forcibly of a story in real life that engrossed public attention many years ago. Whether this was in the author's mind we cannot say, but the book is deeply interesting, the characters well and strongly drawn, and we doubt not this tale will fascinate many a reader."

The Resurrection of His Grace. Being the very candid Confessions of the Honourable BERTIE BEAUCLERC. A Sporting Novel. By CAMPBELL RAE-BROWN, Author of "The Shadow on the Manse." Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Scotsman.—"The book is lightly and briskly written throughout. Its pleasant cynicism is always entertaining."

St James's Budget.—"A sporting romance which is indisputably cleverly written.... The book is full of interesting items of sporting life which are fascinating to lovers of the turf."

Sporting Life.—"The character of the heartless roue, who tells his story, is very well sustained, and the rich parvenu, Peter Drewitt, the owner of the favourite that is very nearly nobbled by the unscrupulous Beauclerc, is cleverly drawn. Altogether it is an exciting and an uncommon tale, and is quite correct in all the sporting details."

Anna Marsden's Experiment. An Interesting Novel. By ELLEN WILLIAMS. Crown 8vo, art cloth, 2s. 6d.

Outlook.—"A good story cleverly told and worked out."

Echo.—"A very natural and interesting tale is carefully set forth in Ellen Williams's clever little book."

Monitor.—"Miss Williams has here seized on an original concept, and given it fitting presentation. The 'experiment' is a novel one, and its working out is a deft piece of writing. The psychology of the work is faultless, and this study of a beautiful temperament, in a crude frame, has with it the verity of deep observation and acute insight.... We await with considerable confidence Miss Williams's next venture."

Sheffield Independent.—"The writer has treated a delicate and unusual situation with delicacy and originality. The heroine's character is drawn with firmness and clearness, and the whole story is vivid and picturesque.... The history of the experiment is exceedingly well told. Keen insight into character, and cleverness in its delineation, as well as shrewd observation and intense sympathy, mark the writer's work, while the style is terse and clear, and the management of trying scenes extremely good."

Farthest South. Being an account of the Startling Discovery made by the Wise Antarctic Expedition. A Humorous Story. By HAROLD E. GORST, Author of "Without Bloodshed," "Sketches of the Future," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Daily Graphic.—"Very easy, light reading, and reminds one of 'Three Men in a Boat.' Just the book for a railway journey."

Bookman.—"A lively and very amusing tale of a wonderful discovery made by the Wise Antarctic Expedition."

Glasgow Herald.—"An amusing skit on Polar expeditions.... The book contains plenty of fun."

Whitehall Review.—"It is an amusing book, worth reading by those who are on the lookout for a hearty laugh."

Vanity Fair.—"An amusing little book. It is very good fooling, and good fooling is sometimes better than heavy wisdom."

An Uncanny Girl. A Story. By MARIE M. SADLEIR, Author of "Such is the Law," etc. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Daily Telegraph.—"A remarkable tale. The narrative teems with surprises.... There is plenty of 'go' in 'An Uncanny Girl.'"

Sir EDWARD RUSSELL says in Liverpool Post:—"A very clever and subtle story.... The action is exciting, and the invention of incidents adroit. But beyond this popular merit there is that of clever and characteristic description.... Mrs Sadleir is ingenious as a story-teller, and vigorous and pungent as a writer."

The Cigarette Smoker. A Powerful and Daring Story.
By the Author of "The Hypocrite." Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s.
6d.

CHEAPER FICTION

The Derelict and Tommy. By the Author of “’Twixt the Devil and the Deep Sea.” Cloth, top edge gilt, 2s.

Graphic.—“A simple story invested with an unusual distinction and charm.”

Glasgow Times.—“A capital tale. Entertaining reading.”

Nottingham Guardian.—“A romance which holds one’s interest enthralled.”

Literary World.—“The story has a frank directness and a reality that make it thoroughly readable.... The story is well expressed and the characters have vitality. Altogether a satisfactory little tale.”

Daily Telegraph.—“The story is out of the common, both in manner and treatment.”

Lloyd’s.—“Clear and brilliant.”

The Black Tulip. ALEXANDRE DUMAS’S Celebrated Romance. Translated by S. ADAIR FITZ-GERALD. Illustrated with Portraits. 260 pp. Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt top, 2s.

Pelican Tails. A Collection of smart, up-to-date Tales of Modern Life, written, edited and selected by FRANK M. BOYD (Editor of “The Pelican.”) One of the most popular and entertaining volumes of short stories that has ever been published. An ideal companion for a railway journey or a spare hour or two. Demy 8vo, picture wrapper designed and drawn by W. S. ROGERS, 1s.

The Devil in a Domino. A Psychological Mystery. By CHAS. L'EPINE, Author of "The Lady of the Leopard," "Miracle Plays," etc. Long 12mo, cloth, 1s.

Truth.—"The story is written with remarkable literary skill, and, notwithstanding its gruesomeness, is undeniably fascinating."

Sketch.—"It is a well-written story. An admirable literary style, natural and concise construction, succeed in compelling the reader's attention through every line. We hope to welcome the author again, working on a larger scene."

Shadows. A Series of Side Lights on Modern Society. By ERNEST MARTIN. (Dedicated to Sir Henry Irving.) Crown 8vo, art cloth, gilt tops, 2s.

Western Mercury.—"Clever sketches, intensely dramatic, original and forceful, based on scenes from actual life, and narrated with much skill."

Weekly Times.—"A series of pictures sketched with considerable power. The last one, 'Hell in Paradise,' is terrible in the probable truth of conception."

Northern Figaro.—"Mr Martin's descriptive paragraphs are couched in trenchant, convincing language, without a superfluous word sandwiched in anywhere.... 'Shadows' may be read with much profit, and will give more than a superficial insight into various phases of society life and manners."

Death and the Woman. A Powerful Tale. By ARNOLD GOLSWORTHY. Picture cover drawn by SYDNEY H. SIME. Crown 8vo, 1s.

Literary World.—"We do not remember having read a book that possessed the quality of grip in a greater degree than is the case with 'Death and the Woman.'... Every page of every chapter develops the interest, which culminates in one of the most sensational dénouements it has been our lot to read. The flavour of actuality is not destroyed by any incredible incident; it is the inevitable thing that always happens. 'Death and the Woman' will supply to the brim the need of those in search of a holding drama of modern London life."

The Fellow-Passengers. A Mystery and its Solution. A Detective Story. By RIVINGTON PYKE, Author of "The Man who Disappeared." Long 12mo, cloth, 1s.

Whitehall Review.—"Those who love a mystery with plenty of 'go,' and a story which is not devoid of a certain amount of realism, cannot do better than pick up 'Fellow-Passengers.' The characters are real men and women, and not the sentimental and artificial puppets to which we have been so long accustomed by our sensationalists. The book is brightly written, and of detective stories it is the best I have read lately."

That Fascinating Widow, and other Frivolous and Fantastic Tales, for River, Road and Rail. By S. J. ADAIR FITZ-GERALD. Long 12mo, cloth, 1s.

The Referee.—"Another little humorous book is 'That Fascinating Widow,' by Mr S. J. Adair Fitz-Gerald, who can be very funny when he tries. The story which gives the title to the book would make a capital farce. 'The Blue-blooded Coster' is an amusing piece of buffoonery."

The Globe.—"The author, Mr S. J. Adair Fitz-Gerald, has already shown himself to be the possessor of a store of humour, on which he has again drawn for the furnishing of the little volume he has just put together. Among the tales included are several which might be suitable for reading or recitation, and none which are dull. Mr Fitz-Gerald frankly addresses himself to that portion of the public which desires nothing so much as to be amused, and likes even its amusements in small doses. Such a public will entertain itself very pleasantly with Mr Fitz-Gerald's lively tales, and will probably name as its favourites those titled 'Pure Cussedness,' 'Splidgings' First Baby,' and 'The Blue-blooded Coster.'"

Rip Van Winkle, together with "THE LEGEND OF SLEEPY HOLLOW." By WASHINGTON IRVING. Illustrated with Drawings by W. G. MEIN. Crown 8vo, art cloth, decorative cover by WILL SMART, top edge gilt, 2s.

Illustrated Books for Children

The Grand Panjandrum, and other fanciful Fairy Tales for the youthful of all Ages, Climes and Times. By S. J. ADAIR FITZ-GERALD, Author of "The Zankiwank and the Bletherwitch," etc. Many full-page and smaller Illustrations by GUSTAVE DARRÉ. Second Edition. Square 8vo, art cloth, gilt, 3s. 6d.

Truth.—"A decided acquisition to the children's library."

Ladies' Pictorial.—"Quite one of the brightest of the season's gift books."

Morning Post.—"Bright and thoroughly amusing. It will please all children. The pictures are excellent."

Echo.—"Of the pile (of children's books) before us, Mr Adair Fitz-Gerald's 'Grand Panjandrum' is the cleverest. Mr Fitz-Gerald needs no introduction to the nursery of these days."

Pall Mall Gazette.—"A charming little book. Simply written, and therefore to be comprehended of the youthful mind. It will be popular, for the writer has a power of pleasing which is rare."

Literary World.—"A handsomely-bound, mouth-watering, in every way up-to-date volume, written especially for and on behalf of the toddler or the newly breeched."

People.—"A delightful story for children, something in the style of 'Alice in Wonderland,' but also having some flavour of Kingsley's 'Water Babies.'"

Sun.—"Good fairy stories are a source of everlasting joy and delight. Mr Adair Fitz-Gerald breaks fresh ground and writes pleasantly.... The book has the added advantage of being charmingly illustrated in colour by Gustave Doré.”

Weekly Sun.—“Mr Adair Fitz-Gerald is a well-known writer of fairy stories and humorous books for the young. ‘The Grand Panjandrum’ is just the sort of book to please youngsters of all ages, being full of pleasant imaginings, and introducing its readers to a host of curious people.”

Nonsense Numbers and Jocular Jingles For Funny Little Folk. Written by DRUID GRAYL, with full-page Illustrations by WALTER J. MORGAN. 4to, cloth boards, 3s. 6d.

St James’s Gazette.—“Full of quaint pictures, which will delight and amuse the little folks.”

Record.—“A really witty book. Just the sort of nonsense that appeals to little folk, and the pictures are quite laughable. There is an abundance of really good humour to be got from these pages, which are altogether free from vulgarity.”

World.—“Appeals directly to children, and would make a delightful present for any little boy or girl.”

Daily Telegraph.—“Will be productive of many a happy half-hour.”

Lloyd’s Newspaper.—“A very amusing book indeed is this volume of nonsense verse. The jingles are excellent and such as children delight in, while the pictures are also ludicrously funny.”

Greening's Humorous Books

The Pillypingle Pastorals. A Series of Amusing Rustic Tales and Sketches. By DRUID GRAYL. Profusely Illustrated by WALTER J. MORGAN. Crown 8vo, art cloth, 3s. 6d.

Vanity Fair.—"Most certainly entertaining, and readers will enjoy it. It is well illustrated."

Scotsman.—"A lively book of comical yarns. It is frivolous, doubtless, but it is funny, and any reader will like it who enjoys a hearty laugh."

Outlook.—"The stories are well told, and tend to provoke laughter."

Phoenix.—"A delightful collection of stories. There is something refreshing and invigorating about them."

Literary World.—"An amusing bit of humour."

Midland Mail.—"A budget of fun, and good fun too. There is not a dull page in it."

The Pottle Papers. Written by TRISTRAM COUTTS, Author of "A Comedy of Temptation." Illustrated by L. RAVEN HILL. Fourth Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

Sheffield Daily Telegraph.—"Anyone who wants a good laugh should get 'The Pottle Papers.' They are very droll reading for an idle afternoon, or picking up at any time when 'down in the dumps.' They are very brief and very bright, and it is impossible for anyone with the slightest sense of humour to read the book without bursting into 'the loud guffaw' which does not always 'bespeak the empty mind.'"

Pall Mall Gazette.—"It contains plenty of boisterous humour of the Max Adeler kind ... humour that is genuine and spontaneous. The author, for all his antics, has a good deal more in him than the average buffoon. There is, for example, a very clever and subtle strain of feeling running through the comedy in 'The Love that Burned'—a rather striking bit of work. Mr Raven Hill's illustrations are as amusing as they always are."

The Pottle's Progress. Being the Further Adventures of Mr and Mrs Pottle. By TRISTRAM COUTTS, Author of "The Pottle Papers," etc. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d. (In preparation.)

Dan Leno, Hys Booke. A Volume of Frivolities: Autobiographical, Historical, Philosophical, Anecdotal and Nonsensical. Written by DAN LENO. Profusely illustrated by Popular Artists. Seventh Edition. Crown 8vo, art cloth, gilt edges, 1s. 6d. Popular Edition, sewed, picture cover, 6d.

DAN LENO, HYS BOOKE, is, says the Liverpool Review, "the funniest publication since 'Three Men in a Boat.' In this autobiographical masterpiece the inimitable King of Comedians tells his life story in a style that would make a shrimp laugh."

This enormously successful book of genuine and spontaneous humour has been received with a complete chorus of complimentary criticisms and pleasing "Press" praise and approval. Here are a few reviewers' remarks:—

Scotsman.—"Bombshells of fun."

Lloyd's.—"One long laugh from start to finish."

Globe.—"Full of exuberant and harmless fun."

English Illustrated Magazine.—"A deliciously humorous volume."

Catholic Times.—"The fun is fast and furious."

St Paul's.—"It is very funny."

These are a few opinions taken at random from hundreds of notices.

Says the Daily News (Hull):—"The funniest book we have read for some time. You must perforce scream with huge delight at the dry sayings and writings of the funny little man who has actually killed people with his patter and his antics. Page after page of genuine fun is reeled off by the great little man."

Bachelor Ballads and other Lazy Lyrics. By HARRY A. SPURR, Author of "A Cockney in Arcadia." With Fifty Illustrations by JOHN HASSALL. Crown 8vo, art cloth, 3s. 6d.

St James's Gazette.—"Distinctly clever."

Globe.—"Mr Spurr goes in for humour, and with very considerable success.... Altogether he is as funny as he is fluent. Mr Hassall's illustrations are also genuinely comic."

Nottingham Guardian.—"The fun is genuine and hearty."

Weekly Sun.—"These 'Bachelor Ballads' are excellent fun."

Literary World.—"The book is good from beginning to end, and its excellent illustrations by John Hassall are fittingly humorous."

Sheffield Independent.—"It is a rare thing to find humour in rhyme without vulgarity, and fun without feebleness. One is, as a rule, inclined to laugh too rarely with the joking poet, and sigh often at the pity of his hideous staleness. Mr Spurr is the exception. His unostentatious rhymes abound in neat literary turns, brim with good humour, and jig to a natural sprightliness. He can pass, too, the test of persistent punning without causing the gorge of the reader to rise. In brief, he is a really humorous versifier, and the illustrator of his work has happily caught his spirit. A man who can turn out in thirty-two lines twenty-five puns on cricket, and work in a love story too, may be regarded as having shouldered the mantle of Hood."

Pelican.—"As full of useful and entertaining information as is an egg of meat."

Bookman.—"A very lively and readable little guide."

To-day.—"One of the best guide books for visitors to London. It is a model of lucidity and informativeness, and the profuse illustrations are admirably executed."

 END OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK BOOKS WORTH READING ***

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER

THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility: www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
