The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is primarily a deep red color with a fine, pebbled texture. A vertical strip of marbled paper runs down the center, featuring a pattern of concentric, wavy lines in shades of red and brown. A diagonal line cuts across the cover from the top right towards the bottom left, separating a section of the red cover from another section of the marbled paper. The text is printed in a yellow, serif font.

THE BOOK OF LIFE

By Upton Sinclair

CONTENTS OF _VOL_I

	PAGE
Chapter I. The Nature of Life	3
Attempts to show what we know about life; to set the bounds of real truth as distinguished from phrases and self-deception.
Chapter II. The Nature of Faith	8
Attempts to show what we can prove by our reason, and what we know intuitively; what is implied in the process of thinking, and without which no thought could be.
Chapter III. The Use of Reason	12
Attempts to show that in the field to which reason applies we are compelled to use it, and are justified in trusting it.
Chapter IV. The Origin of Morality	17
Compares the ways of Nature with human morality, and tries to show how the latter came to be.
Chapter V. Nature and Man	21
Attempts to show how man has taken control of Nature, and is carrying on her processes and improving upon them.
Chapter VI. Man the Rebel	27
Shows the transition stage between instinct and reason, in which man finds himself, and how he can advance to a securer condition.
Chapter VII. Making Our Morals	31

Attempts to show that human morality must change to fit human facts, and there can be no judge of it save human reason.

Chapter VIII. The Virtue of Moderation 37

Attempts to show that wise conduct is an adjustment of means to ends, and depends upon the understanding of a particular set of circumstances.

Chapter IX. The Choosing of Life 42

Discusses the standards by which we may judge what is best in life, and decide what we wish to make of it.

Chapter X. Myself and My Neighbor 50

Compares the new morality with the old, and discusses the relative importance of our various duties.

Chapter XI. The Mind and the Body 53

Discusses the interaction between physical and mental things, and the possibility of freedom in a world of fixed causes.

Chapter XII. The Mind of the Body 61

Discusses the subconscious mind, what it is, what it does to the body, and how it can be controlled and made use of by the intelligence.

Chapter XIII. Exploring the Subconscious 67

Discusses automatic writing, the analysis of dreams, and other methods by which a new universe of life has been brought to human knowledge.

Chapter XIV. The Problem of Immortality 74

Discusses the survival of personality from the moral point of view: that is, have we any claim upon life, entitling us to live forever?

Chapter XV. The Evidence for Survival 81

Discusses the data of psychic research, and the proofs of spiritism thus put before us.

Chapter XVI. The Powers of the Mind 91

Sets forth the fact that knowledge is freedom and ignorance is slavery, and what science means to the people.

Chapter XVII. The Conduct of the Mind 98

Concludes the Book of the Mind with a study of how to preserve and develop its powers for the protection of our lives and the lives of all men.

PART TWO: THE BOOK OF THE BODY

Chapter XVIII. The Unity of the Body 105

Discusses the body as a whole, and shows that health is not a matter of many different organs and functions, but is one problem of one organism.

Chapter XIX. Experiments in Diet 115

Narrates the author's adventures in search of health, and his conclusions as to what to eat.

Chapter XX. Errors in Diet 123

Discusses the different kinds of foods, and the part they play in the making of health and disease.

Chapter XXI. Diet Standards 134

Discusses various foods and their food values, the quantities we need, and their money cost.

Chapter XXII. Foods and Poisons 145

Concludes the subject of diet, and discusses the effect upon the system of stimulants and narcotics.

Chapter XXIII. More About Health 156

Discusses the subjects of breathing and ventilation, clothing, bathing and sleep.

Chapter XXIV. Work and Play 163

Deals with the question of exercise, both for the idle and the overworked.

Chapter XXV. The Fasting Cure 169

Deals with Nature's own remedy for disease, and how to make use of it.

Chapter XXVI. Breaking the Fast 177

Discusses various methods of building up the body after a fast, especially the milk diet.

Chapter XXVII. Diseases and Cures 182

Discusses some of the commoner human ailments, and what is known about their cause and cure.

INDEX VOLUME I

CONTENTS_VOL_II

PART THREE: THE BOOK OF LOVE

	PAGE
Chapter XXVIII. The Reality of Marriage	3
Discusses the sex-customs now existing in the world, and their relation to the ideal of monogamous love.
Chapter XXIX. The Development of Marriage	8
Deals with the sex-relationship, its meaning and its history, the stages of its development in human society.
Chapter XXX. Sex and Young America	15
Discusses present-day sex arrangements, as they affect the future generation.
Chapter XXXI. Sex and the "smart Set"	23
Portrays the moral customs of those who set the fashion in our present-day world.
Chapter XXXII. Sex and the Poor	29
Discusses prostitution, the extent of its prevalence, and the diseases which result from it.
Chapter XXXIII. Sex and Nature	33
Maintains that our sex disorders are not the result of natural or physical disharmony.
Chapter XXXIV. Love and Economics	36

Maintains that our sex disorders are of social origin, due to the displacing of love by money as a motive in mating.

Chapter XXXV. Marriage and Money 40

Discusses the causes of prostitution, and that higher form of prostitution known as the "marriage of convenience."

Chapter XXXVI. Love Versus Lust 46

Discusses the sex impulse, its use and misuse; when it should be followed and when repressed.

Chapter XXXVII. Celibacy Versus Chastity 51

The ideal of the repression of the sex-impulse, as against the ideal of its guidance and cultivation.

Chapter XXXVIII. The Defense of Love 55

Discusses passionate love, its sanction, its place in life, and its preservation in marriage.

Chapter XXXIX. Birth Control 60

Deals with the prevention of conception as one of the greatest of man's discoveries, releasing him from nature's enslavement, and placing the keys of life in his hands.

Chapter XL. Early Marriage 66

Discusses love marriages, how they can be made, and the duty of parents in respect to them.

Chapter XLI. The Marriage Club 71

Discusses how parents and elders may help the young to avoid unhappy marriages.

Chapter XLII. Education for Marriage 75

Maintains that the art of love can be taught, and that we have the right and the duty to teach it.

Chapter XLIII. The Money Side of Marriage 79

Deals with the practical side of the life partnership of matrimony.

Chapter XLIV. The Defense of Monogamy 83

Discusses the permanence of love, and why we should endeavor to preserve it.

Chapter XLV. The Problem of Jealousy 89

Discusses the question, to what extent one person may hold another to the pledge of love.

Chapter XLVI. The Problem of Divorce 93

Defends divorce as a protection to monogamous love, and one of the means of preventing infidelity and prostitution.

Chapter XLVII. The Restriction of Divorce 97

Discusses the circumstances under which society has the right to forbid divorce, or to impose limitations upon it.

PART FOUR: THE BOOK OF SOCIETY

Chapter XLVIII. The Ego and the World 103

Discusses the beginning of consciousness, in the infant and in primitive man, and the problem of its adjustment to life.

Chapter XLIX. Competition and Co-operation 107

Discusses the relation of the adult to society, and the part which selfishness and unselfishness play in the development of social life.

Chapter L. Aristocracy and Democracy 115

Discusses the idea of superior classes and races, and whether there is a natural basis for such a doctrine.

Chapter LI. Ruling Classes 119

Deals with authority in human society, how it is obtained, and what sanction it can claim.

Chapter LII. The Process of Social Evolution 122

Discusses the series of changes through which human society has passed.

Chapter LIII. Industrial Evolution 126

Examines the process of evolution in industry and the stage which it has so far reached.

Chapter LIV. The Class Struggle 132

Discusses history as a battle-ground between ruling and subject classes, and the method and outcome of this struggle.

Chapter LV. The Capitalist System 136

Shows how wealth is produced in modern society, and the effect of this system upon the minds of the workers.

Chapter LVI. The Capitalist Process 142

How profits are made under the present industrial system and what becomes of them.

Chapter LVII. Hard Times 145

Explains why capitalist prosperity is a spasmodic thing, and why abundant production brings distress instead of plenty.

Chapter LVIII. The Iron Ring 148

Analyzes further the profit system, which strangles production, and makes true prosperity impossible.

Chapter LIX. Foreign Markets 151

Considers the efforts of capitalism to save itself by marketing its surplus products abroad, and what results from these efforts.

Chapter LX. Capitalist War 155

Shows how the competition for foreign markets leads nations automatically into war.

Chapter LXI. The Possibilities of Production 158

Shows how much wealth we could produce if we tried and how we proved it when we had to.

Chapter LXII. The Cost of Competition 162

Discusses the losses of friction in our productive machine, those which are obvious and those which are hidden.

Chapter LXIII. Socialism and Syndicalism 166

Discusses the idea of the management of industry by the state, and the idea of its management by the trade unions.

Chapter LXIV. Communism and Anarchism 170

Considers the idea of goods owned in common, and the idea of a society without compulsion, and how these ideas have fared in Russia.

Chapter LXV. Social Revolution 175

How the great change is coming in different industries, and how we may prepare to meet it.

Chapter LXVI. Confiscation Or Compensation 179

Shall the workers buy out the capitalists? Can they afford to do it, and what will be the price?

Chapter LXVII. Expropriating the Expropriators 183

Discusses the dictatorship of the proletariat, and its chances for success in the United States.

Chapter LXVIII. The Problem of the Land 188

Discusses the land values tax as a means of social readjustment, and compares it with other programs.

Chapter LXIX. The Control of Credit 192

Deals with money, the part it plays in the restriction of industry, and may play in the freeing of industry.

Chapter LXX. The Control of Industry 198

Discusses various programs for the change from industrial autocracy to industrial democracy.

Chapter LXXI. The New World 202

Describes the co-operative commonwealth, beginning with its money aspects; the standard wage and its variations.

Chapter LXXII. Agricultural Production 206

Discusses the land in the new world, and how we foster co-operative farming and co-operative homes.

Chapter LXXIII. Intellectual Production 210

Discusses scientific, artistic, and religious activities, as a superstructure built upon the foundation of the standard wage.

Chapter LXXIV. Mankind Remade 215

Discusses human nature and its weaknesses, and what happens to these in the new world.

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project

Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
