Ellen M. Cyr

The background of the lower half of the page is a teal color. Overlaid on this is an abstract pattern of thick purple lines and shapes. These include horizontal, vertical, and diagonal lines of varying lengths, as well as quarter-circle arcs and solid geometric shapes like triangles and a diamond. The pattern is scattered across the teal area, creating a modern, geometric aesthetic.

amiguita--linda--fiesta--resfriarse.

hol'iday--hand'some--years.--Lou'ise.

--¡Buenos días, amiguita Luisa!
¿Adónde vas con una muñeca tan linda?

"Good morning, little Louise!
Where are you going with such a handsome doll?"

--¡Buenos días, abuelito! Voy a ver a María.

"Good morning, grandpa! I am going to see Mary."

--¿Porqué no vas a la escuela?

"Why aren't you going to school?"

--¡Pero, abuelito! Hoy es día de fiesta.
No tenemos escuela, hoy.
¿No lo sabía V.?

"Why, grandpa! To-day is a holiday.
We do not have school to-day.
Didn't you know?"

María y yo vamos a jugar a las muñecas.

¿Ha visto V. mi muñeca nueva?

--No, no creo haberla visto.

¿Te ha dado mamá esta muñeca?

--Sí, me la dió el día de mi cumpleaños.

V. sabe que ahora tengo seis años.

--¡Qué muñeca tan bonita!

¿Dónde está el sombrero de tu muñeca?

--No tiene sombrero, abuelito.

--Tu pobre muñeca va a resfriarse.

Pídele a tu abuelita que le haga uno.

Yo sé que ella se lo hará.

Mary and I are going to play with our dolls.

Have you seen my new doll?"

"No, I don't think I have.

Did mamma give you that doll?"

"Yes, she gave it to me on my birthday.

You know I am six years old now."

"What a pretty doll!

Where is your doll's hat?"

"She hasn't any hat, grandpa."

"Your poor doll will take cold.

Ask grandma to make one for her.

I know she will."

chiquita--jabón--muñequitas ampollas recogedor.

car'riage--soap--fall--pipe--blow; dust'pan bub'bles.--brought.

Mire V. qué coche tan raro tiene mi muñeca.

Estoy en casa de mi abuelo.

Ahora él no tiene niñas chiquitas.

Mamá era su niña chiquita.

Traje a mi muñeca conmigo.

No podía traer el coche de mi muñeca.

Mamá dijo que era demasiado grande.

Mi abuela me buscó un coche.

Ella dijo que el recogedor serviría.

Me parece un coche muy raro.

¡No se caigan, muñequitas mías!

No caerían de muy alto.

Vamos a ver a María.

¡Mire V.! me está buscando.

María y yo vamos a hacer ampollas de jabón.

¿Ve V. mi pipa?

La he puesto en la pala.

A mí me gusta hacer ampollas de jabón.

¡Son tan bonitas!

See what a funny carriage my doll has.

I am at grandpa's house.

He hasn't any little girls now.

Mamma was his little girl.

I brought my doll with me.

I couldn't bring my doll's carriage.

Mamma said it was too big.

Grandma looked for a carriage for me.

She said that the dustpan would do.

I think it's a very funny carriage.

Don't fall off, dollies!

They wouldn't fall very far.

We are going to see Mary.

See! she is looking for me.

Mary and I are going to blow soap bubbles.

Do you see my pipe?

I put it on the dustpan.

I like to blow soap bubbles.

They are so pretty!

sábado--merienda--ferrocarril compañera--violetas--cuchillo.

car'ried--vi'o'lets--play'mate plant--knife.

Mamá nos llevó al campo el sábado pasado.

Mamma took us to the country last Saturday.

Trajimos nuestra merienda en una cesta.

We carried our lunch in a basket.

Dimos un largo paseo en ferro-carril.

We had a long ride on the cars.

Después llegamos a un campo muy bonito.

Then we came to a very pretty field.

Anita no pudo venir con nosotras.

Annie couldn't come with us.

Ella está enferma.

She is sick.

Ahora no puede ir a ninguna parte.

She can't go anywhere now.

Anita es mi compañera de juego.

Annie is my playmate.

Encontramos unas cuantas violetas bonitas.

We found some pretty violets.

Había otras flores también.

There were other flowers too.

Me gustan más las violetas.

I like the violets best.

Encontré una mata de violetas muy bonita.

Dije que me gustaría que Anita la pudiese ver.

--Y la verá,--dijo mamá.

--Puedes llevársela a su casa.

Ella arrancó la planta con su cuchillo.

Yo la llevé a casa de Anita.

¡Le dió tanto gusto tenerla!

I found a very pretty violet plant.

I said I wished Annie could see it.

"So she shall," said mamma.

"You can take it to her house."

She took the plant up with her knife.

I took it to Annie's house.

She was so glad to have it!

Mayito--plumaje--compañerita--oscuro--yerbas
Jazmines--arroz--insectos--moscas--verano.

Yo soy un mayito.

Hago mi nido en los prados.

Bob'o'link--feath'ers--jas'mine--rice
Gras'ses.--white--to'ward--col'ored.

I am a bobolink.

I make my nest in the meadows.

Mira mi hermoso plumaje.

Es blanco y negro.

¿Ve V. a mi compañerita?

Tiene un plumaje oscuro.

A mí me gustan las margaritas y las yerbas.

Me balanceo en los jazmines y en las zarzas.

Soy tan dichoso y tan alegre.

Vuelo hacia los campos de arroz.

Como todo el arroz que puedo.

Yo creo que el arroz crece para mí.

Cojo insectos, moscas y gusanos.

Y creo que yo podría tener arroz también.

En el verano voy al norte.

¡Mayito, mayito! ésta es mi canción.

Búscame en los prados.

Look at my fine coat of feathers.

It is black and white.

Do you see my little mate?

She has a dress of dark-colored feathers.

I like the daisies and the grasses.

I swing on the jasmines and on the blackberry bushes.

I am so happy and so gay.

I fly toward the rice fields.

I eat all the rice I can.

I think the rice grows for me.

I catch bugs, flies, and worms.

And I think I might have rice too.

In summer I go north.

Bobolink, bobolink! this is my song.

Look for me in the meadows.

burro--cardos--arroyo--lilas divertimos--columpio--maduras.

don'key--this'tles--brook--li'lacs blind--buff--stones--crossed.

Hemos estado en los bosques.

We have been in the woods.

¿Ve V. todas nuestras flores?

Do you see all our flowers?

¿Le gusta a V. nuestro burro?

Do you like our donkey?

Se llama Perico.

His name is Pete.

Perico lleva puestas algunas flores.

Pete is wearing some flowers.

Es un burro viejo muy manso.

He is a very gentle old donkey.

Le gusta comer cardos.

He likes to eat thistles.

Encontramos un arroyo muy bonito.

We found a very pretty brook.

Las lilas crecían cerca del arroyo.

The lilacs were growing near the brook.

Atravesamos el arroyo sobre piedras.

We crossed the brook on stones.

Merendamos cerca del arroyo.

We had lunch near the brook.

Jugamos a la gallina ciega en los bosques.

We played blind man's buff in the woods.

¡Cuánto nos divertimos!

What fun we had!

Nuestro burro merendó en el campo.

Our donkey had lunch in the field.

Comió todos los cardos y toda la yerba que pudo.

He ate all the thistles and all the grass he could.

Enrique nos hizo un columpio.

Henry made us a swing.

Lo puso en un castaño grande.

He put it on a big chestnut tree.

Vamos a coger nueces cuando estén maduras.

We are going nutting when the nuts are ripe.

¿No le gustaría a V. venir con nosotros?

Shouldn't you like to come with us?

abeja--colmenas--recoger miel--pica--observa.

bees--hives--hon'ey--gath'er sting--watch.

¡Mire V. las abejas!

Look at the bees!

Mire V. cómo vuelan a sus colmenas.

See how they fly to their hives.

Recogen la miel de las flores.

They gather the honey from flowers.

La ponen en sus colmenas.

A María le gusta mirar las abejas.

Le gusta verlas recoger la miel.

No la pican.

A ella le gusta ayudarlas.

María coge una bonita flor.

Se la trae a una abeja.

La abeja vuela hacia la flor.

No la pica.

María observa la abeja recogiendo miel.

Quiere ver cómo lo hace.

Éstas son abejas que hacen miel.

* * * *

polen--amarillo--cera.

Una abeja sale de un huevo.

Primeramente es un gusano pequeño.

Las abejas lo alimentan de polen.

Recogen el polen de las flores.

El polen parece polvo amarillo.

El gusano se alimenta durante cinco días.

Entonces parece que va a dormir.

Las abejas lo cubren con cera.

Al poco tiempo se despierta.

Sale de su cama de cera.

They put it into their hives.

Mary likes to watch the bees.

She likes to see them gather honey.

They do not sting her.

She likes to help them.

Mary picks a pretty flower.

She takes it to a bee.

The bee flies toward the flower.

It does not sting her.

Mary watches the bee gather honey.

She wants to see how it does it.

These are honey bees.

* * * *

dust--pol'len--wax--yel'low.

A bee comes out of an egg.

At first it is a little worm.

The bees feed it on pollen.

They gather the pollen from flowers.

Pollen looks like yellow dust.

The worm is fed for five days.

Then it seems to go to sleep.

The bees cover it with wax.

By and by it wakes up.

It comes out of its wax bed.

Es una abeja chiquitina.

It is a little baby bee.

zumbido fuerte
colibrí--musgo---azúcar.

could--moss
humm'ming--bill--loud--sug'ar.

María jugaba en el jardín un día.

Mary played in the garden one day.

Oyó un zumbido fuerte.

She heard a loud humming.

Era demasiado fuerte para una abeja.

It was too loud for a bee.

Era un colibrí.

It was a humming-bird.

María se quedó quieta para mirarlo.

Mary kept still to watch it.

¡Qué bonitas eran sus plumas!

How pretty its feathers were!

¡Qué aprisa movía las alitas!

How fast it moved its little wings!

Tenía un pico muy largo.

It had a very long bill.

Podía llegar con él al fondo de las flores.

El colibrí come miel.

La recoge de las flores.

Es un pájaro muy pequeño.

Tiene un nido de musgo.

El nido contiene dos huevecitos.

¡Qué pequeños deben ser los pajaritos!

María esperaba al colibrí todos los días.

Un día tomó una de las tazas de su muñeca.

Puso un poco de azúcar y agua en la taza.

Después puso la taza en el jardín.

El colibrí voló hacia la tacita.

Puso su largo pico en la taza.

Le gustó el agua con azúcar.

¡Qué contenta estaba María!

Tenía azúcar para él todos los días.

It could reach to the bottom of the flowers with it.

The humming-bird eats honey.

It gathers it from the flowers.

It is a very little bird.

It has a nest of moss.

The nest holds two little eggs.

How tiny the baby birds must be!

Mary watched for the humming-bird every day.

One day she took a doll's cup.

She put a little sugar and water in the cup.

Then she put the cup in the garden.

The humming-bird flew to the cup.

It put its long bill into the cup.

It liked the water with sugar.

How pleased Mary was!

She had sugar for it every day.

parda--roble--ahínco--otoño manso--carrillos--invierno--claridad.

gray--oak--cheeks
among--hard.

Yo soy una ardilla parda.

I am a gray squirrel.

Me llamo Bunía.

My name is Bunny.

Vivo en un roble.

I live in an oak tree.

Corro por los árboles todo el verano.

I run among the trees all summer.

Trabajo con ahínco en el otoño.

I work hard in the fall.

Mi roble está cerca de un granero.

My oak tree is near a barn.

En aquel granero hay un caballo manso.

In that barn there is a gentle horse.

Tiene todos los días maíz para comer.

He has corn to eat every day.

Él me da un poco de su maíz.

He gives me a little of his corn.

Lleno mis carrillos de maíz.

I fill my cheeks with corn.

Después lo traigo a mi nido.

Then I carry it to my nest.

Recojo nueces para el invierno.

En el invierno duermo en el roble.

A veces viene un día de calor.

Entonces me despierto.

Salgo a la claridad del sol.

Después me vuelvo a dormir.

Algún día quizás tú me encuentres en mi nido.

Ten la bondad de no quitarme mis nueces.

Me costó mucho trabajo conseguirlas.

Yo necesitaré esas nueces en el invierno.

I gather nuts for the winter.

In winter I am asleep in the oak tree.

Sometimes there comes a warm day.

Then I wake up.

I come out into the sunshine.

Then I go back to sleep.

Some day maybe you will find me in my nest.

Please do not take away my nuts.

It was a great deal of work for me to get them.

I shall need those nuts in the winter.

bosque--camino--conejo--monísimo.

ber'ries--might--bush'es.--fright'en.

--Cómo, Gracia, ¿dijo mamá que podrías venir?

--Sí, lo dijo. Quiero coger moras.

--¿Cómo nos encontraste?

--Duque me enseñó el camino.

--¿Dónde está él ahora?

--Corrió hacia el bosque.
Vio allí un conejo pequeño.

--¡Oh, querida mía! Lo asustará.

--Lo llamé, pero no quiso venir.
¿Tenéis muchas moras en vuestros cubos?

--Sí, hemos encontrado algunos arbustos grandes.

Catalina encontró un nido monísimo en una rama.

Hay cinco huevos en el nido.

Ven, y te lo enseñaremos.

No cojamos moras en ese arbusto.

Asustaríamos a la madre.

Coge tus moras ahora, Gracia

Luego nos iremos a casa

--Quiero llenar mi taza para mamá.

Le daré a ella todas mis moras.

"Why, Grace, did mamma say you might come?"

"Yes, she did. I want to pick berries."

"How did you find us?"

"Duke showed me the way."

"Where is he now?"

"He ran toward the woods.
He saw a little rabbit there."

"Oh, my dear! He will frighten it."

"I called him, but he wouldn't come.
Have you many berries in your pails? "

"Yes, we found some big bushes.

Kate found a dear little nest on a branch.

There are five eggs in the nest.

Come, and we will show it to you.

Let's not pick berries on that bush.

We should frighten the mother.

Pick your berries now, Grace.

Then we will go home."

"I want to get my cup full for mamma.

I will give her all my berries."

paredes--escritorio--ratonera--jaula.

wall--desk--ought--cage.

Un ratoncito vivía en nuestras paredes.

A little mouse was living in our walls.

Todas las noches salía para jugar.

Every night it came out to play.

Venía al cuarto de Sofía.

It would come into Sophy's room.

Le gustaba jugar sobre su escritorio.

It liked to play on her desk.

Sofía ponía a veces azúcar allí para él.

Sophy would put sugar there for it.

El ratoncito la encontraba.

The little mouse would find it.

Un día mamá lo vio.

One day mamma saw the mouse.

Dijo que el gatito debía cogerlo.

She said the kitty ought to catch it.

Sofía estaba muy triste.

Sophy was very sorry.

No quería que se lo comiese el gatito.

She didn't want the kitty to eat it.

Habló a papá del ratoncito.

She talked to papa about the mouse.

Él le dio una ratonera pequeñita.

Parecía una jaula.

El ratoncito podía vivir en ella.

Puso azúcar en la ratonera.

El ratoncito entró en la ratonera.

Sofía lo mimaba mucho.

Le daba de comer todos los días.

Le daba agua en la tacita de su muñeca.

El ratoncito quiere a Sofía.

Está feliz en su jaula.

He gave her a little bit of a trap.

It looked like a cage.

The little mouse could live in it.

He put sugar in the trap.

The little mouse went into the trap.

Sophy made a great pet of it.

She fed it every day.

She gave it water in her doll's cup.

The little mouse loves Sophy.

It is happy in its cage.

Navidad--regalos--médico--hospital.

pres'ents--an'swer--hos'pital--clothes.

¡Qué día de Navidad tan feliz tuvo Juanita!

Recibió algunos regalos bonitos.

Le dieron tres muñecas grandes.

--Bien, Juanita,--dijo papá,--¿qué vas a hacer con tres muñecas?

--Jugaré con ellas,--dijo Juanita.

--Tres muñecas no son demasiado.

¿No le gustaría a V. tener tres niñas, papá?

A esto papá no podía responder: No.

El padre de Juanita era médico.

Iba al hospital todos los días.

Un día Juanita fué al hospital con él.

Allí vió a dos niñas.

Tenían que quedarse en cama todo el día.

A Juanita le dió mucha lástima.

Cuando volvió a casa, cogió sus muñecas.

Vistió dos de ellas con sus trajes más bonitos.

Después se las llevó a su padre.

--¿Puedo regalar mis muñecas a las niñas?--le preguntó.

--Sí, puedes,--dijo su papá.

Juanita llevó las muñecas a las niñas.

Mira qué contentas están.

What a happy Christmas Day Jennie had!

She received some pretty presents.

They gave her three big dolls.

"Well, Jennie," said papa, "what are you going to do with three dolls?"

"I will play with them," said Jennie.

"Three dolls are not too many.

Shouldn't you like to have three little girls, papa?"

Papa couldn't answer "no" to that.

Jennie's father was a doctor.

He went to the hospital every day.

One day Jennie went to the hospital with him.

She saw two little girls there.

They had to stay in bed all day.

Jennie was very sorry about it.

When she went home, she took her dolls.

She dressed two of them in their prettiest clothes.

Then she took them to her father.

"May I make the little girls a present of my dolls?" she asked him.

"Yes, you may," said papa.

Jennie took the dolls to the girls.

See how pleased they are.

Juanita también estaba muy contenta.

Jennie was very much pleased too.

amable--anciana--semillas--ventana.

before--pack'age--blos'soms--seeds
Flor'ence--mor'ning--peep.

Elena es una niña amable.

Helen is a dear little girl.

A ella le gusta hacer dichosos a los demás.

She likes to make the other people happy.

Una pobre señora anciana vive cerca de ella.

A poor old lady lives near her.

Elena va a verla.

Helen goes to see her.

Ella dice,--Buenos días, doña Florencia.

She says "Good morning, Mrs. Florence.

¿Está V. bien esta mañana?

Are you well this morning?"

--No muy bien,--responde ella.

"Not very well," she answers.

--Pero me alegro de verte.

"But I am glad to see you."

Un día doña Florencia dió a Elena un paquetito.

Era un paquetito de semillas.

--Siémbrales bajo tu ventana,--le dijo.

--Antes de mucho tiempo brotarán las flores.

Se asomarán y te mirarán.

Yo no puedo ir para decirte: Buenos días.

Las flores lo dirán por mí.

A Elena le gustaron mucho las semillas.

Las sembró debajo de su ventana.

Pronto salieron las hojas.

A los pocos días brotaron las flores.

Elena cogió algunas para la anciana.

--Yo digo buenos días una vez solamente,--dijo Elena.

--Sus flores lo dicen muchas veces.

* * * * *

amanecía--migajas--echaba--tordo.

Elena daba los buenos días también a los pájaros.

Cantaban para ella así que amanecía.

Ella tomaba una cesta de migajas de pan.

Llevaba las migajas a la ventana.

One day Mrs. Florence gave Helen a little package.

It was a little package of seeds.

"Sow them under your window," she told her.

"Before long the blossoms will come out.

They will peep in at you.

I cannot come to say good morning to you.

The blossoms will say it for me."

Helen liked the seeds very much.

She sowed them underneath her window.

Soon the leaves came out.

In a few days the flowers came.

Helen picked some for the old lady.

"I say good morning only once," said Helen.

"Your flowers say it over and over."

* * * * *

crumbs--learned--near--mock'ing.

Helen used to say good morning to the birds too.

They sang for her as soon as it was light.

She used to get a basket of bread crumbs.

She took the crumbs to the window.

--¡Venid, pajaritos!--decía.

--Mirad lo que tengo para vosotros.

Entonces los pájaros volaban a la ventana.

Elena les echaba las migajas para que ellos comiesen.

--Aquí hay todo un almuerzo para vosotros, pajaritos.

Los pájaros aprendieron a conocer a Elena.

Volaban muy cerca de ella.

Elena les daba de comer.

Aprendió los nombres de todos los pájaros.

--¡Buenos días, sinsonte!--decía ella.

--Y aquí hay un tordo.

Quiero ver tus huevos, sinsonte.

Son muy bonitos tus huevos.

El mayito hace su nido en los prados.

Puedo mirar dentro del nido.

Voy a los prados para verle.

Él nunca viene a verme.

"Come, birdies!" she said.

"Look what I have for you."

Then the birds flew to the window.

Helen threw them the crumbs to eat.

"Here is a whole breakfast for you, birdies."

The birds learned to know Helen.

They would fly very near her.

Helen would feed them.

She learned the names of all the birds.

"Good morning, mocking-bird!" she would say.

"And here is a thrush.

I want to see your eggs, mocking-bird.

Your eggs are very pretty.

The bobolink makes his nest in the fields.

I can look into the nest.

I go to the fields to see him.

He never comes to see me.

Oeste--indios--squaw (scuó) papoose (papús)--tabla--colgaba.

hang'ing--West--In'dian--board papoose'--squaw.

El padre de Gilberto vivía lejos en el Oeste.

Gilbert's father lived far off in the West.

Un día llevó a Gilberto a ver a los indios.

One day he took Gilbert to see the Indians.

Una india tenía un bebé.

One Indian woman had a baby.

Una india se llama una squaw.

An Indian woman is called a squaw.

Un bebé indio se llama un papoose.

An Indian baby is called a papoose.

El papoose estaba atado a una tabla que colgaba de un árbol.

The papoose was tied to a board hanging on a tree.

Miró a Gilberto con sus ojos vivos.

It looked at him with its bright eyes.

--¡Qué bonito es!--dijo Gilberto.

"How pretty it is!" said Gilbert.

La squaw dejó a Gilberto que lo cogiese,

The squaw let Gilbert hold it.

"My little papoose," said she.

--Mi pequeño papoose,--dijo ella.

--Me gustaría que mamá lo viese,--dijo Gilberto.

--¿Puedo llevárselo a mamá?

--No, no te lleves mi papoose,--dijo la squaw.

Gilberto le dió el papoose.

Volvió a ponerlo en el árbol.

¡Qué sitio tan raro para un niño!

El viento puede mecerlo.

Los pájaros pueden cantarle.

¿Cree V. que le gustaría a su hermanita?

"I should like to have mamma see it," said Gilbert.

"May I take it to mamma?"

"No, don't carry off my papoose," said the squaw.

Gilbert gave her the papoose.

She put it back on the tree.

What a funny place for a baby!

The wind can rock it.

The birds can sing to it.

Do you think your little sister would like it?

wigwam (uíguom) jaca--pieles--arco--flechas tirar--tumbar.

wig'wam mar'bles--shoot--bow--ar'rows.

Gilberto vió a un muchacho indio.
Estaba cuidando una jaca.
Gilberto empezó a hablar con él.
No podían hablar muy bien.
El indio le enseñó su wigwam.
Un wigwam es la casa de un indio.
Es una casita hecha de pieles.
El indio dejó a Gilberto entrar en su casa.
Le dio un arco y flechas.
Los indios saben tirar muy bien.
Él enseñó a Gilberto a tirar la flecha.
Gilberto le dió algunas canicas muy bonitas.
Le enseñó a jugar a las canicas.
El indio puso una canica en el árbol.
Podía tumbarla con su flecha.
Gilberto no podía hacer lo mismo.
Su flecha se clavó en el árbol.

Gilbert saw an Indian boy.
He was taking care of a pony.
Gilbert began to talk with him.
They couldn't talk very well.
The Indian showed him his wigwam.
A wigwam is an Indian's house.
It is a little house made of skins.
The Indian let Gilbert go into his house.
He gave him a bow and arrows.
Indians can shoot very well.
He taught Gilbert to shoot an arrow.
Gilbert gave him some very pretty marbles.
He showed him how to play marbles.
The Indian put a marble on the tree.
He could shoot it off with his arrow.
Gilbert could not do the same.
His arrow stuck in the tree.

lago--crecían--remar--falda.

row--lake--lil'ies--leaves.

Juan y Catalina viven cerca del lago.

John and Kate live near the lake.

Juan tiene un bonito bote nuevo.

John has a handsome new boat.

Él puede remar muy bien.

He can row very well.

Llevó a mamá, a Lucía y a Catalina a dar un paseo en bote.

He took mamma, Lucy, and Kate for a row.

Los lirios acuáticos crecían en el agua.

The water-lilies were growing in the water.

--¿Quieren Vds. algunos lirios?--preguntó Juan.

"Do you want some lilies?" asked John.

--¡Oh sí!--respondieron todas.

"O yes!" they all answered.

Juan remó hacia donde estaban los lirios.

John rowed toward where the lilies were.

--¡Qué bonitos lirios blancos!--dijo Lucía.

"What pretty white lilies!" said Lucy.

--Tengo que llevarlos a casa conmigo.

"I must take them home with me."

Cogió cuantos pudo.

Catalina tenía su falda llena de lirios.

--¡Qué bonitos son!--dijo ella.

--Las hojas son bonitas.

En el lago había peces.

A Catalina le gustaba ver nadar a los peces.

Les daba a comer migajas de pan.

She picked as many as she could.

Kate had her lap full of lilies.

"How pretty they are!" said she.

"The leaves are pretty."

In the lake there were fishes.

Kate liked to see the fishes swim.

She fed them bread-crumbs.

charco--roca marinas--erizos pescador--olas chapaleaban--brazos--tentáculos boca--lomo.

rock--pool feel'ers--mouth ur'chins--waves
Fish'er'man---sea'weeds pad'dled.

En el fondo de un charco pequeño vivían algunas estrellas de mar.

El charco estaba en una gran roca.

Algas marinas crecían en el charco.

Había bonitos erizos allí.

Parecían botones de cardos.

Dos niños jugaban sobre la roca.

Su padre era pescador.

Vivían en una casa vieja y parda.

Huían de las olas.

Ellos chapaleaban en el agua.

Les gustaba mirar el fondo del charco.

Un día vieron una linda estrella de mar.

La estrella tenía cinco brazos.

Estos brazos se movían.

Tenían pequeños tentáculos.

Estos tentáculos la ayudaban a moverse.

La boca estaba en el centro de la estrella.

Mira las estrellas marinas en el dibujo.

En la de abajo se ven las antenas
y la boca.

En la de arriba se ve el lomo de la

Down in a little pool lived some starfish.

The pool was in a large rock.

Seaweeds grew in the pool.

There were pretty sea urchins there.

They looked like thistle buds.

Two children played on the rock.

Their father was a fisherman.

They lived in an old brown house.

They ran away from the waves.

They paddled in the water.

They liked to look down in the pool.

One day they saw a pretty starfish.

The starfish had five arms.

These arms moved.

They had little feelers.

These feelers helped it to move about.

The mouth was in the middle of the starfish.

Look at the starfish in the picture.

In the lower one you see the feelers and the mouth.

In the upper one the back of the starfish is seen.

Estoy haciendo un nido en un árbol alto.
¡Va a ser un nido tan delicado y Agradable!

I am making a nest in a tall tree.
It is going to be such a soft, cozy nest!

Busco material para tejer el nido.

I am looking for material to weave the nest.

Quiero usar un poco de esta brillante seda amarilla.

I want to use a bit of this bright yellow silk.

Mi nido estará colgado, para que la brisa lo balancee.

My nest shall be hung for the breeze to swing.

Yo me sentaré en el árbol y cantaré alegremente.

I will sit on the tree and sing gayly.

La madre y los pequeños dormirán dulcemente.

The mother and the little ones will sleep sweetly.

Entre tanto, yo cuidaré mucho a mis queridos pájaros.

Meanwhile I will take good care of my dear birds.

Mire V. donde está mi nido cuando pase por el árbol.

Look where my nest is, when you pass by the tree.

Verá V., seguramente, la suave seda amarilla.

You will surely see the soft yellow silk.

Entonces sabrá V. que es mío, aunque
V. no me vea.

Then you will know it is mine, even if you do not see me.

She and Henry went to play.

Un ganso viejo se paseaba por el patio.

An old gander was walking through the yard.

Vió el vestido color de rosa a través de la palizada.

He saw the pink dress through the fence.

El ganso viejo quería aquel vestido color de rosa.

The gander wanted that pink dress.

Metió su cabeza por entre la valla.

Cogió el vestido con su pico grande.

La pobra Pepita tenía miedo.

--¡Oh Enrique, ven!--dijo ella.

--Aquí hay un grandísimo pájaro.
Quiere mi vestido nuevo.

Enrique cogió un buen palo.

Y dijo: ¡Suéltala, pájaro malvado!
Tú no puedes llevarte el vestido de Pepita.

El viejo ganso soltó el vestido.

Salió corriendo del patio.

epita se alegró de verlo huir.

Y dió las gracias a Enrique.

He put his head through the fence.

He caught the dress in his big bill.

Poor Josie was afraid.

"O Henry, come!" said she.

"Here is a great big bird.
He wants my new dress."

Henry got a good big stick.

And he said, "Let her go, you naughty bird!
You can't have Josie's dress."

The old gander let go of the dress.

He went running out of the yard.

Josie was glad to see him run away.

She said "Thank you" to Henry.

Diego puso un huevo de pato en un nido de gallina.

James put a duck's egg into a hen's nest.

Un patico se crió con los pollos.

A duckling hatched out with the chickens.

¡Qué gracioso era el patico!

How funny the duckling was!

Los pollos corrían por todos lados
y escarbaban la tierra buscando gusanos.

The chickens ran every way and scratched for worms.

El patico no podía escabar tan bien.

The duckling could not scratch so well.

Tenía las patas palmeadas.

It had web feet.

Estaban hechas para nadar.

They were made for swimming.

Él quería agua para nadar.

It wanted water to swim in.

Un día Enriqueta lo encontró.
Lo cogió en sus manos.
--¿Qué tienes, pobre patito?
--¡Pip, pip!--dijo el patito.
--¿Quieres nadar?--dijo Enriqueta.
--¡Pip, pip! Sí, que quiero.
--Tendrás agua.
Enriqueta fué corriendo a casa.
Trajo agua en una palangana.
Puso la palangana en el zacate.
El patito corrió hacia la palangana.
Le gustaba estar en el agua.
La gallina vieja dijo,--¡Clo, clo!
Vas a ahogarte, patito malvado.
Los pollos corrieron hacia la palangana.
Bebieron el agua; pero no podían nadar.
La gallina tenía miedo de que se ahogasen.
--¡Clo, clo!--dijo ella.
--Aquí está un gusano gordo.
Entonces los pollos corrieron hacia ella.
El patito se quedó y nadó.
Le hubiera gustado que pudiesen nadar los pollos también.
Todos los pájaros nadadores tienen las patas palmeadas.

One day Hattie found it.
She took it up in her hands.
"What is the matter, poor ducky?"
"Peep, peep!" said the duckling.
"Do you want to swim?" said Hattie.
"Peep, peep! Yes, I do."
"You shall have some water."
Hattie went running to the house.
She brought some water in a pan.
She set the pan on the grass.
The duckling ran to the pan.
It liked to be in the water.
The old hen said, "Cluck, cluck!"
You will be drowned, you naughty ducky."
The chickens ran to the pan.
They drank the water; but they could not swim.
The hen was afraid that they would drown.
"Cluck, cluck!" said she.
"Here is a big worm."
Then the chickens ran to her.
The duckling stayed and swam.
It would have liked it if the chickens could swim too.

Quisiera que el tren parase aquí.

I wish the train would stop here.

He visto algunas flores muy lindas.

I saw some very pretty flowers.

Allí hay algunos caballos.

There are some horses.

¡Mira cómo corren!

La locomotora les da miedo.

Mira, mamá, a esos niños.

Mira cómo me hacen señas con las manos.

--¿Les has hecho señas tú, Carlos?

--Oh, sí, les hice señas con la mano primero.

¿Habrá niños en la playa, mamá?

--Sí, creo que habrá algunos.

Podrás jugar en la playa con ellos.

See how they run!

The engine frightens them.

Look at those children, mamma.

Look how they wave their hands to me."

"Did you wave to them, Charles?"

"O yes, I waved my hand to them first.

Will there be children at the beach, mamma?"

"Yes, I think there will be some.

You can play on the beach with them."

lucos--apaga--viento faroles--hadas--gusanos.

Roberto estaba en el campo.

coun'try--wind--fire shine--lan'terns--fair'y.

Robert was in the country.

Una noche vió algunas luces en la yerba.

Parecían estrellitas.

--Tengo que coger una de esas estrellas,--dijo él.

Las luces no estaban quietas.

Algunas veces no lucían.

--¿Adonde vais?--dijo Roberto.

--¿Os apaga el viento?

reo que sois faroles de hadas.

Preguntaré a mamá lo que sois.

Entonces corrió hacia su casa.

--Mamá, el campo está lleno de estrellitas.

No lucen siempre.

Hazme el favor de venir y decirme lo que son.

--Son gusanos de luz, Roberto,--dijo su mamá.

--Procuraré coger uno para ti.

Cogió uno y se lo puso en la mano a Roberto.

--¿Dónde están sus alas?--dijo Roberto.

--Ésta es la madre de los gusanos de luz,--dijo la mamá.

--Sus alas son muy pequeñas.

No puede volar muy de prisa.

One night he saw some lights in the grass.

They looked like little stars.

"I must catch one of those stars," said he.

The lights did not keep still.

Sometimes they did not shine.

"Where do you go?" said Robert.

"Does the wind blow you out?

I think you are fairy lanterns.

I will ask mamma what you are."

Then he ran to his house.

"Mamma, the field is full of little stars.

They do not always shine.

Please come and tell me what they are."

"They are fireflies, Robert," said his mamma.

"I will try to catch one for you."

She caught one and put it in Robert's hand.

"Where are its wings?" said Robert.

"This is the mother of the fireflies," said mamma.

"Its wings are very small.

It cannot fly very fast.

Mira cómo la luz va y viene.

Mi casa está en el sol.

My home is in the sun.

Me deslizo por sus rayos.

I glide along its rays.

Las flores se despiertan cuando las toco.

The flowers wake up when I touch them.

Por la mañana despierto a los pájaros.

In the morning I wake the birds.

Sus casas están en la cima de los árboles.

Their home is in the tree-tops.

Cuando me ven, empiezan a cantar.

When they see me they begin to sing.

Abro los lirios en el lago.

I open the lilies on the lake.

Saco los botones de lirios de debajo del agua.

Cuando toco las semillas las plantas brotan.

Beso la fruta, la hago madurar y la hago dulce.

Bebo el rocío de la mañana.

Llevo agua a las nubes.

Algunos días vienen las hadas de la lluvia.

Entonces no me ves.

Necesitas los servicios de las hadas de la lluvia.

Riegan las lindas flores.

Nada podría crecer sin ellas.

dark--heavy--path--across indigo--drops--beautiful

Sometimes the rain fairies meet the sun fairies.

What a good time they have!

They are not dark or heavy now.

They shine and are bright with colors.

Some are red, others orange, and some of them yellow.

There are others green, blue, indigo, or violet.

Forman una senda a través del cielo.

They form a path across the sky.

Esta senda se llama arco iris.

This path is called a rainbow.

Está formada por el sol y las gotas de agua. It is formed by the sun and the drops of water.

Cada gota de agua ayuda a formarla.

Each drop of water helps form it.

Las nubes son oscuras de por sí.

The clouds are dark by themselves.

La claridad del sol las hace brillantes y hermosas.

The sunshine makes them bright and beautiful.

dulces--centavo--calle.

button--candy--took--cent--buy.

¿Qué crees que hizo nuestra chiquitina?

What do you think our baby did?

Hay un hombre viejo que vende dulces.

There is an old man who sells candy.

Un día llevamos a la chiquitina allí.

One day we took baby there.

Le dejamos comprar algunos dulces.

We let her buy some candy.

Dió un centavo al viejo y él le dió
algunos dulces.

She gave the old man a cent and he gave her some candy.

El otro día la encontramos en la calle.

The other day we found her in the street.

Se había puesto su gorra y su abrigo.

She had put on her cap and cloak.

Tenía su muñeca en una mano.

She had her doll in one hand.

--¡Pero chiquitina! ¿adónde vas?--dije yo.

"Why, baby! where are you going?" said I.

--¡A comprar dulces!--respondió la chiquitina.

"To buy candy!" the baby answered.

--¿Porqué te llevas la muñeca?

"Why do you take the doll?"

--La muñeca quiere dulces también.

"The doll wants candy too."

--No puedes comprar dulces, querida mía.
No tienes un centavo.

"You cannot buy candy, dear.
You haven't any cent."

--Sí, sí, mira mi centavo.

"Yes, yes, see my cent."

¿Qué crees que tenía?

What do you think she had?

Tenía un botón.

She had a button.

Iba a comprar dulces con un botón.

She was going to buy candy with a button.

¿No era graciosa la chiquitina?

Wasn't baby funny?

Creo que el viejo le habría dado
algunos dulces.

I think the old man would have given her some candy.

Es un hombre muy bueno.

He is a very kind man.

"Grandma, will you teach me to cook?"
she said.

--Sí, querida mía,--dijo su abuela.

"Yes, dear," said grandma.

--Puedes cocinar algo hoy.

"You may cook something to-day."

--¡Oh, gracias!--dijo Ana.

"O, thank you!" said Anna.

--A papá le dará mucho gusto que yo aprenda a cocinar.

--Su santo será dentro de poco tiempo,--dijo su abuela.

--Le harás un pastel para su santo.

Yo los hacía cuando él era niño.

Ana hizo todo lo que pudo para aprender.

Pasados algunos días llegó el del santo.

Ana hizo el deseado pastel.

Lo llevó a su papá.

Lo puso cerca de su plato.

--¡Vaya! ¿qué es esto?--dijo papá.

--Un pastel para el día de tu santo.

--¿Quién me ha hecho este pastel?

--Yo lo he hecho,--dijo Ana;--mi abuela me enseñó a hacerlo.

--¡Es posible! ¿has hecho tú este hermoso pastel?

¡Tú eres una niña preciosa!

"It will be his birthday very soon," said grandma.

"You shall make him a birthday cake.

I used to when he was a boy."

Anna did her best to learn.

In a few days the birthday came.

Anna made the cake as she wished.

She took it to papa.

She set it near his plate.

"Well! what is this?" said papa.

"A birthday cake for you."

"Who made this cake for me?"

"I did," said Anna; "grandma showed me how."

"Is it possible? did you make this beautiful cake?"

You are a dear girl!

I haven't had a birthday cake for a long time.

It is very nice indeed."

En la carreta había plantas.

In the cart there were plants.

--Compra una planta, chiquita,--dijo el hombre.

--Aquí tienes, una planta bonita por diez centavos.

--A Marianita le gustaría tener una planta,--dijo Lucía.

--Ella podría verla crecer.

Creo que le compraré una.

Tenga V. la bondad de darme una que tenga botones.

Quiero darla a una niña enferma.

Tomó la planta y corrió a ver a Marianita.

--Mira lo que te traigo,--dijo ella.

--¡Oh, qué bonita es! Muchas gracias, Lucía.

Me gustará verla crecer.

Mira los libros de dibujos que me ha traído Enrique.

--Sí, me dijo que los tenía para ti. ¿Te encuentras mejor? Queremos que estés buena.

--Sí, espero estar buena pronto.

Mañana voy a dar un paseo en coche con el médico.

Todos han sido muy buenos conmigo.

Casi me alegro de haber estado enferma.

"Buy a plant, little girl," said the man.

"Here is a pretty plant for ten cents."

"Marion would like to have a plant," said Lucy.

"She could see it grow.

I think I will buy her one.

Please give me one that has buds.

I want to give it to a sick girl."

She took the plant and ran to see Marion.

"See what I have brought you," said she.

"O, how pretty it is! Thank you very much, Lucy.

I shall like to see it grow.

Look at the picture books Henry brought me."

"Yes, he told me he had them for you. Are you better? We want you to be well."

"Yes, I hope to be well soon.

To-morrow I am going to ride with the doctor.

La Señora Pata dió una tertulia.

Mrs. Duck gave a party.

Todos los patos del corral estaban allí.

All the ducks in the yard were there.

Se fueron todos a nadar en el río.

They all went swimming in the river.

Hallaron un sitio tranquilo.

They found a quiet place.

--Comeremos nuestra merienda aquí,--dijo la Señora Pata.

"We will have our lunch here," said Mrs. Duck.

--Aquí hay muchos insectos.

"There are a great many insects here.

Es un sitio muy a propósito para hallar comida.

Y se tiró de cabeza al agua.

Y al agua se tiraron también los otros patos.

Y luego subieron de nuevo.

Los patos tienen el pico grande y plano.

Llenan sus picos de lodo.

En el lodo hay insectos.

¡Cómo se divierten los patos!

Algunas ranas viejas estaban sentadas cerca de los lirios.

Miraban a los patos nadando por los alrededores.

--¡Qué extraños son los patos!-- dijeron ellas.

--¿Cómo está V., Señora Pata?--dijo una de las ranas.

--¿Vive V. siempre en el agua?

--No, de ninguna manera,--dijo la Señora Pata.

--Nuestra casa está en la hacienda. Tenemos una casa como la gente.

--¡Vaya! ¡vaya! ¿porqué les hacen a Vds. una casa?

A nosotras no nos hacen casa.

--Nosotras ponemos huevos para la gente,--dijo la Señora Pata.

It is a first-rate place to find food."

And she plunged into the water head first.

And into the water plunged the other ducks too.

And then they came up again.

Ducks have large flat beaks.

They fill their beaks with mud.

In the mud there are insects.

What a good time ducks have!

Some old frogs were sitting near the lilies.

They looked at the ducks swimming all around.

"How queer ducks are!" they said.

"How are you, Mrs. Duck?" said one of the frogs.

"Do you live in the water all the time?"

"No indeed," said Mrs. Duck.

"Our home is at the farm. We have a house like people."

"Well! well! why do they make you a house?"

They don't make a house for us."

"We lay eggs for the people," said Mrs. Duck.

--Y nosotras también ponemos huevos,--dijo la rana.

--Vds. ponen sus huevos en el agua.
A la gente no les gustan sus huevos.
Nuestros huevos son grandes y buenos para comer.

"And so do we lay eggs," said the frog.

"You lay your eggs in the water.
People do not like your eggs.
Our eggs are big and good to eat."

Le enviaron a Jaime y Dolores.

¡Qué felices eran los niños!

Corrían siempre por el campo.

Cogían frutas y flores.

Oían cantar a los pájaros.

Podían ayudar al señor Blas y a su señora en muchas cosas.

Jaime aprendió a ordeñar las vacas.

Dolores aprendió a desnatar la leche.

Jaime podía rastrillar el heno.

Dolores también podía rastrillar el heno.

Los niños paseaban en la carreta del heno.

El señor Blas les dejaba guiar los caballos.

Les divertía mucho pasear en coche.

Veían muchas cosas maravillosas.

--¡Qué hermoso mundo es éste!--decían ellos.

--No sabíamos antes que fuese tan hermoso.

--No volverán a la casa de huérfanos,--dijo la señora.

--Se quedarán a vivir con nosotros.

Jaime y Dolores estaban muy contentos.

He sent to several people in the city.

He asked them to send him two poor children.

They sent him James and Dolores.

How happy the children were!

They were always running in the fields.

They picked fruits and flowers.

They heard the birds sing.

They could help Mr. and Mrs. Blas in many ways.

James learned to milk the cows.

Dolores learned to skim the milk.

James could rake the hay.

Dolores could rake the hay too.

The children rode on the hay cart.

Mr. Blas let them drive the horses.

They enjoyed taking drives about the country very much.

They saw many wonderful things.

"What a beautiful world this is!" they said.

"We didn't know before that it was so beautiful."

"They shall not go back to the asylum," said Mrs. Blas.

"They shall stay to live with us."

James and Dolores were very glad.

La madre de Federico le había dicho que algunos gusanos se volvían mariposas.

Él quería ver a uno transformarse en mariposa.

Un día cogió un gusano en el jardín.

Lo trajo sobre una hoja a su mamá.

Ella le dio una cajita para guardarlo.

Federico le daba a comer hojas frescas todos los días.

Poco después el gusano cesó de comer.

Federico creyó que se moriría.

Su mamá le dijo: No, Federico, va a dormir.

Cuando se despierte será una mariposa.

El gusano hiló un tejido alrededor de su cuerpo.

Estaba pegado a un lado de la caja.

--Se ha muerto, mamá,--dijo Federico.

--No se mueve ni come.

--No se ha muerto,--dijo mamá.

Un día Federico miró la caja.

Vió un insecto de forma extraña.

Sus alas no eran bonitas ni brillantes.

Llamó a su madre para que lo viera.

--Es tu mariposa,--dijo mamá.

--¡Qué extraña y fea es!--dijo Federico.

--Yo creía que sería más bonita.

Fred's mother had told him that some worms turn to butterflies.

He wanted to see one change to a butterfly.

One day he got a worm in the garden.

He carried it to his mamma on a leaf.

She gave him a box to keep it in.

Fred gave it fresh leaves to eat every day.

Pretty soon the worm stopped eating.

Fred thought it would die.

His mamma told him, "No, Fred, it is going to sleep.

When it wakes up it will be a butterfly."

The worm spun a web round its body.

It was stuck to one side of the box.

"It is dead, mamma," said Fred.

"It does not move nor eat."

"It is not dead," said mamma.

One day Fred looked at the box.

He saw a strange-looking insect.

Its wings were not pretty or bright.

He called his mother to see it.

"It is your butterfly," said mamma.

"How queer and ugly it is!" said Fred.

"I thought it would be prettier."

A los pocos momentos empezó a moverse y desplegó las alas.

Los colores se volvieron más brillantes.

--¡Oh, qué hermosa!--dijo Federico.

Desplegó sus alas y voló a la ventana.

Federico abrió la ventana y la dejó escaparse.

--Ves tú cómo no se había muerto,--dijo mamá.

--La mariposa había estado allí siempre.

In a few moments it began to move, and spread out its wings.

The colors turned brighter.

"O, how beautiful!" said Fred.

It spread its wings and flew to the window.

Fred opened the window and let it fly out.

"You see it wasn't dead," said mamma.

"The butterfly had been there all the time."

Mamá, Inés y el niño fueron a visitar al abuelo.

Mamma, Agnes, and baby went to visit grandpa.

El pobre papá no pudo ir.

Tuvo que quedarse en casa.

--¿Qué haré yo sin ti?--dijo él.

--Te escribiré una carta,--contestó Inés.

--Te diré lo que estemos haciendo.

--¿Sabes escribir una carta?--dijo papá.

--¡Oh! sí, la puedo escribir,--dijo Inés.

--Ya tengo siete años.

Verás que puedo escribir una carta.

Inés se divirtió mucho.

Un día dijo ella:--Abuelita, ¿puedo tomar una pluma?

Quiero escribir a papá.

--Sí,--dijo su abuela,--en el escritorio hay plumas.

Inés corrió al escritorio de su abuelo.

--¡Oh abuelita! aquí hay una pluma muy rara.

--Ésta es una pluma de ave,--dijo la abuela.

--Tu abuelo la cortó para mí.
Es una pluma de ganso.

En tiempos pasados todo el mundo escribía con plumas de ave.

--Me parece muy bonita,--dijo Inés.

--No creo que pueda escribir con ella.

Poor papa could not go.

He had to stay at home.

"What shall I do without you?" said he.

"I will write you a letter," Agnes answered.

"I will tell you what we are doing."

"Can you write a letter?" said papa.

"O yes, I can," said Agnes.

"I am seven now.

You shall see that I can write a letter."

Agnes had a very good time.

One day she said, "Grandma, may I take a pen?

I want to write to papa."

"Yes," said grandma, "there are pens on the desk."

Agnes ran to grandpa's desk.

"O grandma! here is such a funny pen!"

"That is a quill pen," said her grandma.

"Grandpa made it for me.
It is a goose quill.

In old times everybody used to write with quill pens."

"I think it is very pretty," said Agnes.

"I don't think I can write with it."

Tomó otra pluma y se fué.

Al poco tiempo volvió al escritorio.

¿Qué vió allí?

La chiquitina había tomado la pluma de ave.

Había escrito con ella a su papá.

¡Y qué carta había escrito!

Había derramado la tinta sobre el escritorio.

--¡Oh chiquitína, chiquitína! ¿porqué has hecho esto?

Mamá envió la carta de la chiquitina a su papá.

Él dijo que se alegraba de recibir las dos cartas.

CARTA DE INÉS A SU PADRE.

SITIO GRANDE, 8 de Julio de 1917.

MI QUERIDO PAPA:

Nos estamos divirtiendo mucho. Mi abuelito tiene un gran caballo oscuro. Algunas veces me monta en el caballo. ¡Es tan divertido! Juego mucho en el campo. Mi abuelito me deja pasear sobre los montones de yerba. Cojo moras para mi abuelita. Nos dan queso con el café. Quisiera que estuvieses aquí con nosotros. La chiquitína te ha escrito una carta. Cogió la pluma de ave de nuestra abuela, y derramó la tinta. ¿Puedes leer su carta? Dice que ha escrito: ¿Cómo estás, papá? Te quiero mucho.

Tu hijita

INÉS.

She took another pen and went off.

In a little while she went back to the desk.

What did she see there?

Baby had taken the quill pen.

She had been writing to papa with it.

And what a letter she had written!

She had spilled the ink over the desk.

"O baby, baby! what did you do that for?"

Mamma sent baby's letter to papa.

He said he was glad to get both letters.

AGNES'S LETTER TO HER FATHER.

SITIO GRANDE, JULY 8, 1917.

DEAR PAPA:

We are having a very good time. Grandpa has a big bay horse. Sometimes he puts me on the horse's back. It is such fun! I play in the field a great deal. Grandpa lets me walk on the haycocks. I pick berries for grandma. They give us cheese with our coffee. I wish you were here with us. Baby has written you a letter. She took grandma's quill pen, and she spilled the ink. Can you read her letter? She says she wrote "How are you, papa? I love you a great deal."

Your little girl,

AGNES.

Una niña pobre fué a la escuela con Consuelo.

A poor girl went to school with Consuelo.

Su vestido era muy viejo.

Her dress was very old.

Su madre no le podía comprar otro vestido.

Her mother could not buy her another dress.

Consuelo se había puesto un nuevo delantal blanco.

Consuelo had put on a new white apron.

Se lo puso para ir a la escuela un día.

She put it on to go to school one day.

La pobre Juana la miró.

Poor Jane looked at her.

Hubiera querido tener un delantal como aquél.

She wished she had an apron like that.

Cuando Consuelo volvió a casa, se fué adonde estaba su mamá.

When Consuelo got home, she went where mamma was.

Y le dijo: Mamá, ¿puedo dar mi delantal a Juana?

Su vestido es muy viejo y pobre.

Es una niña tan buena.

Permíteme darle mi delantal.

Su mamá dijo: Sí, puedes dárselo, si quieres.

Consuelo dijo a Juana que fuera a su casa con ella.

Le regaló el delantal blanco.

La mamá de Consuelo se lo puso a Juana.

La pequeña Juana estaba muy contenta.

--Muchas gracias, Consuelo,--dijo ella.

--Cubrirá mi vestido viejo.

Nunca me he puesto un delantal tan bonito.

Juana se puso el delantal para ir a la escuela.

A Consuelo le gustaba verla usándolo.

--No me parecía tan bonito cuando yo lo usaba,--se dijo.

--Ahora puedo mirarlo tanto como quiera.

Nunca se arrepintió de habérselo dado.

And she said to her, "Mamma, may I give Jane my apron?"

Her dress is very old and poor.

She is such a good girl.

Let me give her my apron."

Her mamma said, "Yes, you may if you want to."

Consuelo told Jane to come home with her.

She gave her the white apron.

Consuelo's mamma put it on Jane.

Little Jane was very happy.

"Thank you very much, Consuelo," said she.

"It will cover up my old dress.

I never had on such a pretty apron."

Jane wore the apron to school.

Consuelo liked to see her using it.

"It did not look so pretty to me when I wore it," she said to herself.

"Now I can look at it as much as I want to."

She was never sorry she had given it to Jane.

Carlos vivía cerca de la ciudad de la Habana.

Su padre tenía un potrero.

Hermosos plátanos crecían alrededor de la casa.

El padre de Carlos tenía muchos caballos, bueyes y puercos.

Un día Carlos vió a un marinero viejo sentado debajo de una palma.

El marinero tenía una cotorra.

Carlos nunca había visto cotorras.

The water passes over our gills.

Charles lived near the city of Havana.

His father had a stock farm.

Beautiful banana trees grew around the house.

Charles's father had many horses, oxen, and hogs.

One day Charles saw an old sailor sitting under a palm tree.

The sailor had a parrakeet.

La vió trepar sobre el marinero viejo.

Una cotorra trepa con su pico al mismo tiempo que lo hace con sus patas.

--¿Cómo está V.?--dijo la cotorra.

A Carlos le sorprendió mucho oír hablar a un pájaro.

--¿ Quién es V.?--dijo la cotorra.

Carlos le dijo su nombre.

Al marinero viejo esto le hizo reír.

--¿Quiere V. venderme esa cotorra?
-- preguntó Carlos.

--La venderé por ocho pesos,--dijo el marinero.

Carlos corrió hacia su padre con la cotorra.

--Aquí está un pájaro que habla,
-- dijo él.

--Hágame el favor de comprármelo, papá.

--Yo soy un pájaro hermoso,--dijo la cotorra,--déme azúcar.

Al padre de Carlos le pareció el pájaro muy bien enseñado.

Lo compró para su niño.

La cotorra fué su gran favorita.

Charles had never seen parakeets.

He saw it climb over the old sailor.

A parakeet climbs with its bill at the same time as with its feet.

"How do you do?" said the parakeet.

Charles was much surprised to hear a bird talk.

"Who are you?" said the parakeet.

Charles told it his name.

This made the old sailor laugh.

"Would you sell me that parakeet?" asked Charles.

"I will sell it for eight dollars," said the sailor.

Charles ran to his father with the parakeet.

"Here is a bird that talks," said he.

"Please buy it for me, papa."

"I'm a pretty bird," said the parakeet;
"give me some sugar."

Charles' father thought the bird was very well trained.

He bought it for his boy.

The parakeet was his favorite pet.

¡La pobre anciana! No supo qué hacer.

Fué a la puerta y miró hacia el camino.

No pudo ver ni un solo ganso.

Temía que se hubiesen extraviado.

Juanito y Catalina estaban jugando en el patio vecino.

Doña Matilde les preguntó si habían visto a sus gansos.

--Los he visto,--dijo Juanito,--iban para el estanque.

--¡Dios mío! ¡Dios mío!--dijo doña Matilde.

--¿Creéis que volverán?

--Iremos a buscarlos,--dijo Catalina.

Los niños se marcharon en dirección del estanque.

Juanito vio los gansos apenas se acercó al estanque.

She was fond of her geese and took great care of them.

One day the geese got out.

Poor old lady! She didn't know what to do.

She went to the gate and looked toward the road.

She could not see a single goose.

She was afraid they were lost.

Johnny and Kate were playing in the yard next door.

Miss Matilda asked them if they had seen her geese.

"I saw them," said Johnny, "they were going toward the pond."

"Dear! dear!" said Miss Matilda.

"Do you think they will come back?"

"We'll go looking for them," said Kate.

The children went off toward the pond.

Johnny saw the geese almost as soon as he came near the pond.

Cuando papá llegó a la acequia estaba llena de agua clara de las montañas.
--Abre la puerta, Pablo,--dijo papá.
Pablo abrió la puerta de prisa.
El agua entró corriendo dentro del campo de alfalfa.
Pablo y papá trabajaron todo el día.
Por la noche estaban muy cansados, pero el campo estaba regado.
--¡Qué fresca y verde se ve la alfalfa!--dijo Pablo.
--Me alegro que le dimos agua.
--Sí, dice papá,--se moriría sin agua.

--A mí me gusta el agua, también,--dijo
Pablo.

"Paul," said papa, "are you coming?
We must irrigate the alfalfa to-day."
"Good!" said Paul. "I want to help."
"You may take your hoe," said papa.
"I will take the big shovel."
Paul and papa walked through the alfalfa.
"The blossoms are sweet," said Paul.
"Yes," said papa, "the bees know it.
See this one gathering honey."
When papa came to the ditch it was full of clear water from the mountains.
"Open the gate, Paul," said papa.
Paul opened the gate quickly.
The water ran into the alfalfa field.

Paul and papa worked all day.
At night they were very tired, but the field was irrigated.
"How fresh and green the alfalfa looks!" said Paul.
"I am glad we gave it some water."
"Yes," said papa. "It would die without the water."

"I like the water, too!" said Paul.

Luisa miró al perro extraño y se rió.

--Ése no es un perro,--dijo ella.

--Ése es un coyote. Llamaré a Turco para que le eche fuera.

Turco corrió ladrando tras el coyote.

El coyote se alejó muy de prisa.

Por la noche María oyó un aullido extraño.

--¿Qué es eso?--le preguntó a Luisa.

--Ése es el coyote,--dijo Luisa.

--Él aulla porque quiere su cena.

"See what a sharp nose he has!

His ears are pointed, too.

See how bushy his tail is!"

Louise looked at the strange dog and laughed.

"That is not a dog," she said.

"That is a coyote. I'll call Turk to drive him away."

Turk ran after the coyote and barked.

The coyote ran off very fast.

In the night Mary heard a strange cry.

"What is that?" she asked Louise.

"It is the coyote," said Louise.

"He is crying for his supper."

Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, “Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation.”
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you ‘AS-IS’, WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility: www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
