THE LITTLE WOMAN

There was a lit-tle woman, as I've heard say, Fol, lol, did-dle, did-dle dol;

She went to mar-ket, her eggs for to sell, Fol, lol, did-dle, did-dle dol.

She went to market all on a market day, And she fell asleep up-on the king's highway;

'AND THE PEDLAR'

- 2 And there came a pedlar whose name was Stout,
Fol, lol, &c.,
 He cut her petticoats all round about,
Fol, lol, &c.,
 He cut her petticoats up to her knees,
 Which made the little woman te shiver and freeze,
Fol de rol, &c.

Fol, lol, &c.,
 She began to shiver, and she began to shake,
Fol, lol, &c.,
 She began to shake, and she began to cry,
 Lawk-a-mercy on me ! this is none of I,
Fol de rol, &c.,

 I've a little dog at home, and he knows me ;
Fol, lol, &c.,
 If it be I, he will wag his little tail,
 If it be not I, he will bark and rail,

THE LITTLE DISASTER

Once there lived a lit - tle man, Where a lit - tle ri - ver ran, And he had a lit - tle farm and lit - tle dai - ry O! And he had a lit - tle plough, And a lit - tle dap - pled cow, Which he of - ten called his pret - ty lit - tle Fai - ry O!

2 And his dog he called Fidelle,
For he loved his master well;
And he had a little pony for his pleasure O!
In a sty not very big
He'd a frisky little pig,
Which he often called his little piggy treasure O!

3 Once his little maiden, Ann,
With her pretty little can,
Went a-milking when the morning sun was beaming O!
When she fell, I don't know how,
But she stumbled o'er the plough,
And the cow was quite astonished at her screaming O!

4 Little maid cried out in vain,
While the milk ran o'er the plain,

Little pig ran grunting after it so gally O!
While the little dog behind,
For a share was much inclined,
So he pulled back squeaking piggy by the taily O!

5 Such a clatter now began
As alarmed the little man,
Who came capering from out his little stable O!
Pony trod on doggy's toes,
Doggy snapped at piggy's nose,
Piggy made as great a noise as he was able O!

6 Then to make the story short,
Little pony with a snort
Lifted up his little heels so very clever O!
And the man he tumbled down,
And he nearly cracked his crown,
And this only made the matter worse than ever O!

THE OLD WOMAN
TOSSED UP IN A BLANKET

There was an old woman tossed up in a blan-ket, Sev-en-teen times as high as the moon; Where she was go-ing I could not but ask it,
For in her hand she car-ried a broom. "Old woman, old woman, old woman," quoth I; "O whither, O whither, O whither so high?" "To sweep the cob - webs from the sky, And I'll be with you by - and-by!"

The image shows a musical score for the song "The Old Woman Tossed Up in a Blanket". The score is written in 3/4 time and G major. It consists of five systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score is framed by a decorative border featuring a woman in a yellow dress and a broom, a crescent moon, and various insects like spiders and flies.

There was an old woman tossed up in a blanket,
Seventeen times as high as the moon;
Where she was going I could not but ask it,
For in her hand she carried a broom.
“Old woman, old woman, old woman,” quoth I;
“O whither, O whither, O whither so high?”
“To sweep the cobwebs from the sky,
And I’ll be with you by-and-by!”

The music is written on three systems of staves, each with a treble and bass clef. The lyrics are written below the staves. IF ALL THE WORLD WERE PAPER

If all the world were pa - per, And all the sea were ink,..... And all the trees were bread and cheese, What should we do for drink?

2 If all the world were sand—O!
Oh, then what should we lack—O!
If, as they say, there were no clay,
How should we take tobacco?

3 If all our vessels ran—a,
If none but had a crack,
If Spanish apes ate all the grapes,
How should we do for sack?

If all the world were paper,

And when this fairy ship set sail,
The captain he said, "Quack!"

A ship, a ship a-sailing,
A-sailing on the sea,
And it was deeply laden
With pretty things for me;
There were raisins in the cabin,
And almonds in the hold;
The sails were made of satin,

The first system has a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one flat and a time signature of 6/8. The lyrics are: 'Il é - tait un' ber - gè - re, Et ron, ron, ron, pe - tit pa - ta - pon ; Il é - tait'. The second system continues the melody with the lyrics: 'un' ber - gè - re, Qui gar - dait ses mou - tons, Ron, ron, Qui gar - dait ses mou - tons.' Below the score, the lyrics are divided into two columns. The left column contains stanzas 2 and 3, and the right column contains stanzas 4 and 5. The illustration at the bottom shows a woman in a blue dress and white apron, wearing a straw hat, leaning over a wooden stand and milking a sheep. A black cat is perched on a small stool next to her, looking up at her. To the left, another sheep is standing. In the background, there is a window with a striped curtain, a hanging basket, and various household items like a vase and a bowl.

LOOBY LIGHT

[Listen] [PDF] [MusicXML]

The musical score for "Looby Light" is presented in a traditional sheet music format with a decorative border. The border features a top illustration of seven children in a line, holding hands and dancing. The sides are decorated with vertical panels, each containing a full-length illustration of a girl in a white dress with a red sash, performing a dance move. The bottom border shows the lower legs and feet of the dancers. The music is written in 6/8 time, indicated by the '6' over the '8' in the first staff. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the melody is written on a treble clef staff. The lyrics are written below the staff. The score consists of four systems of music. The first system has two staves (treble and bass) and the lyrics "Now we dance loo - by, loo - by, loo - by, Now we dance loo - by, loo - by light ;". The second system also has two staves and the lyrics "Now we dance loo - by, loo - by, loo - by, Now we dance looby as yes - ter - night.". The third system has two staves and the lyrics "Shake your right hand a lit - tle, Shake your left hand a lit - tle,". The fourth system has two staves and the lyrics "Shake your head a lit - tle, And turn you round a - bout." followed by a "D.C." (Da Capo) instruction. The bottom border illustration shows the feet of the dancers in various positions, corresponding to the dance steps described in the lyrics.

Now we dance loo - by, loo - by, loo - by, Now we dance loo - by, loo - by light ;

Now we dance loo - by, loo - by, loo - by, Now we dance looby as yes - ter - night.

Shake your right hand a lit - tle, Shake your left hand a lit - tle,

Shake your head a lit - tle, And turn you round a - bout. D.C.

Now we dance looby, looby, looby,
Now we dance looby, looby light;
Now we dance looby, looby, looby,
Now we dance looby as yesternight.
Shake your right hand a little,
Shake your left hand a little,
Shake your head a little,
And turn you round about.

The musical score is presented in three systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score is framed by a decorative border featuring various illustrations: a jester on the left, a wheel of fortune in the center, a bird on the right, and a spider on the far right. At the bottom, there are two larger illustrations: one of a man in a red shirt and brown pants running, and another of a man in a top hat and red pants sitting on the ground, looking down at something in his hands.

The illustration features a central scene with a fly and a bee. The fly is depicted as a small, winged insect, and the bee is a larger, more detailed insect. They are surrounded by a decorative border of flowers and leaves. At the bottom, there is a row of small figures, possibly representing the 'parson' and the 'pair' mentioned in the lyrics, along with other characters. The entire page is framed by a decorative border of flowers and leaves.

The fly has married the humble bee.
Says the fly, says he,
“Will you marry me,
And live with me,
Sweet humble bee?”

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
