THE DIARY OF SAMUEL PEPYS

By Samuel Pepys

*Samuel Pepys,
from an Ivory Medallion by P. Le Marchand, in the British Museum.*

Waller & Doulton, P.A.S.

*Samuel Pepys.
from the Picture by Sir Godfrey Kneller in the Pepysian Library, Magdalene College, Cambridge.*

Walker & Bonnell.

*Samuel Pepys.
from the Picture by Sir Peter Lely. in the Hall of Magdalene College Cambridge.*

Printed by John Hays.

Etched by C. O. Murray.

W. Kneller pin.

Samuel Pepys.
from the painting at the Admiralty Whitehall.

Mrs Pepys. as St. Katharine.

20s. in money, and what wine she needed, for the burying him

A good handsome wench I kissed, the first that I have seen

A fair salute on horseback, in Rochester streets, of the lady

A most conceited fellow and not over much in him

A conceited man, but of no Logique in his head at all

A pretty man, I would be content to break a commandment with him

A lady spit backward upon me by a mistake

A play not very good, though commended much

A cat will be a cat still

A book the Bishops will not let be printed again

A most tedious, unreasonable, and impertinent sermon

About two o'clock, too late and too soon to go home to bed

Academy was dissolved by order of the Pope

Act of Council passed, to put out all Papists in office

Advantage a man of the law hath over all other people

Afeard of being louzy

After taking leave of my wife, which we could hardly do kindly

After awhile I caressed her and parted seeming friends

After many protestings by degrees I did arrive at what I would

After oysters, at first course, a hash of rabbits, a lamb

After a harsh word or two my wife and I good friends

All ended in love

All made much worse in their report among people than they are

All the fleas came to him and not to me

All divided that were bred so long at school together

All may see how slippery places all courtiers stand in

All things to be managed with faction

All the towne almost going out of towne (Plague panic)

Ambassador—that he is an honest man sent to lie abroad

Among many lazy people that the diligent man becomes necessary

An exceeding pretty lass, and right for the sport

An offer of L500 for a Baronet's dignity

And for his beef, says he, "Look how fat it is"

And if ever I fall on it again, I deserve to be undone

And a deal of do of which I am weary

And they did lay pigeons to his feet

And there, did what I would with her

And so to sleep till the morning, but was bit cruelly

And so to bed and there entertained her with great content

And feeling for a chamber-pott, there was none

And with the great men in curing of their claps

And so by coach, though hard to get it, being rainy, home

Angry, and so continued till bed, and did not sleep friends

Aptness I have to be troubled at any thing that crosses me

Archbishop is a wencher, and known to be so

As much his friend as his interest will let him

As very a gossip speaking of her neighbours as any body

As all other women, cry, and yet talk of other things

As he called it, the King's seventeenth whore abroad

As all things else did not come up to my expectations

Asleep, while the wench sat mending my breeches by my bedside

At least 12 or 14,000 people in the street (to see the hanging)

At a loss whether it will be better for me to have him die

Badge of slavery upon the whole people (taxes)

Baker's house in Pudding Lane, where the late great fire begun

Baseness and looseness of the Court

Bath at the top of his house

Beare-garden

Because I would not be over sure of any thing

Before I sent my boy out with them, I beat him for a lie

Begun to smell, and so I caused it to be set forth (corpse)

Being there, and seeming to do something, while we do not

Being cleansed of lice this day by my wife

Being very poor and mean as to the bearing with trouble

Being taken with a Psalmbook or Testament

Below what people think these great people say and do

Best fence against the Parliament's present fury is delay

Better now than never

Bewailing the vanity and disorders of the age

Bite at the stone, and not at the hand that flings it

Bleeding behind by leeches will cure him

Bold to deliver what he thinks on every occasion

Book itself, and both it and them not worth a turd

Bookseller's, and there looked for

Montaigne's Essays

Bottle of strong water; whereof now and then a sip did me good

Bought for the love of the binding three books

Bought Montaigne's Essays, in English

Bowling-ally (where lords and ladies are now at bowles)

Boy up to-night for his sister to teach him to put me to bed

Bring me a periwig, but it was full of nits

Bringing over one discontented man, you raise up three

Bristol milk (the sherry) in the vaults

Broken sort of people, that have not much to lose

Burned it, that it might not be among my books to my shame

Business of abusing the Puritans begins to grow stale

But a woful rude rabble there was, and such noises

But so fearful I am of discontenting my wife

But I think I am not bound to discover myself

But we were friends again as we are always

But this the world believes, and so let them

But if she will ruin herself, I cannot help it

But my wife vexed, which vexed me

Buy some roll-tobacco to smell to and chaw

Buying up of goods in case there should be war

Buying his place of my Lord Barkely

By his many words and no understanding, confound himself

By chewing of tobacco is become very fat and sallow

By and by met at her chamber, and there did what I would

By her wedding-ring, I suppose he hath married her at last

Called at a little ale-house, and had an eele pye

Came to bed to me, but all would not make me friends

Cannot bring myself to mind my business

Cannot be clean to go so many bodies together in the same water

Cast stones with his horne crooke

Castlemayne is sicke again, people think, slipping her filly

Catched cold yesterday by putting off my stockings

Catholiques are everywhere and bold

Cavaliers have now the upper hand clear of the Presbyterians

Charles Barkeley's greatness is only his being pimp to the King

Chocolate was introduced into England about the year 1652

Church, where a most insipid young coxcomb preached

City to be burned, and the Papists to cut our throats

Clap of the pox which he got about twelve years ago

Clean myself with warm water; my wife will have me

Comb my head clean, which I found so foul with powdering

Come to see them in bed together, on their wedding-night

Come to us out of bed in his furred mittens and furred cap

Comely black woman.—[The old expression for a brunette.]

Coming to lay out a great deal of money in clothes for my wife

Commons, where there is nothing done but by passion, and faction

Compliment from my aunt, which I take kindly as it is unusual

Confidence, and vanity, and disparages everything

Confusion of years in the case of the months of January (etc.)

Consult my pillow upon that and every great thing of my life

Content as to be at our own home, after being abroad awhile

Contracted for her as if he had been buying a horse

Convenience of periwiggs is so great

Could not saw above 4 inches of the stone in a day

Counterfeit mirth and pleasure with them, but had but little

Court is in a way to ruin all for their pleasures

Court attendance infinite tedious

Craft and cunning concerning the buying and choosing of horses

Credit of this office hath received by this rogue's occasion

Cruel custom of throwing at cocks on Shrove Tuesday

Cure of the King's evil, which he do deny altogether

Dare not oppose it alone for making an enemy and do no good

Declared he will never have another public mistress again

Delight to see these poor fools decoyed into our condition

Deliver her from the hereditary curse of child-bearing

Desk fastened to one of the armes of his chayre

Did dig another, and put our wine in it; and I my Parmazan cheese

Did extremely beat him, and though it did trouble me to do it

Did so watch to see my wife put on drawers, which (she did)

Did take me up very prettily in one or two things that I said

Did much insist upon the sin of adultery

Did go to Shoe Lane to see a cocke-fighting at a new pit there

Did find none of them within, which I was glad of

Did tumble them all the afternoon as I pleased

Did trouble me very much to be at charge to no purpose

Did see the knaveries and tricks of jockeys

Did not like that Clergy should meddle with matters of state

Did put evil thoughts in me, but proceeded no further

Dined with my wife on pease porridge and nothing else

Dined upon six of my pigeons, which my wife has resolved to kill

Dined at home alone, a good calves head boiled and dumplings

Dinner, an ill and little mean one, with foul cloth and dishes

Discontented at the pride and luxury of the Court

Discontented that my wife do not go neater now she has two maids another than if we are doggs*

Disorder in the pit by its raining in, from the cupola

Disquiet all night, telling of the clock till it was daylight

Do outdo the Lords infinitely (debates in the Commons)

Do look upon me as a remembrancer of his former vanity

Do bury still of the plague seven or eight in a day

Doe from Cobham, when the season comes, bucks season being past

Dog attending us, which made us all merry again

Dog, that would turn a sheep any way which

Doubtfull of himself, and easily be removed from his own opinion

Down to the Whey house and drank some and eat some curds

Dr. Calamy is this day sent to Newgate for preaching

Drink a dish of coffee

Driven down again with a stinke by Sir W. Pen's shying of a pot

Duke of York and Mrs. Palmer did talk to one another very wanton

Duodecimal arithmetique

Durst not take notice of her, her husband being there

Dying this last week of the plague 112, from 43 the week before

wife, and blows too*

Every man looking after himself, and his owne lust and luxury

Every small thing is enough now-a-days to bring a difference

Every body leads, and nobody follows

Every body is at a great losse and nobody can tell

Every body's looks, and discourse in the street is of death

Exceeding kind to me, more than usual, which makes me afeard

Exclaiming against men's wearing their hats on in the church

Excommunications, which they send upon the least occasions

Expectation of profit will have its force

Expected musique, the missing of which spoiled my dinner

Faced white coat, made of one of my wife's pettycoates

Familiarity with her other servants is it that spoils them all

Fanatiques do say that the end of the world is at hand

Fashionable and black spots

Fear all his kindness is but only his lust to her

Fear that the goods and estate would be seized (after suicide)

Fear it may do him no good, but me hurt

Fear I shall not be able to wipe my hands of him again

Fear she should prove honest and refuse and then tell my wife

Feared I might meet with some people that might know me

Fearful that I might not go far enough with my hat off

Fears some will stand for the tolerating of Papists

Fell to sleep as if angry

Fell a-crying for joy, being all maudlin and kissing one another

Fell to dancing, the first time that ever I did in my life

Fetch masts from New England

Feverish, and hath sent for Mr. Pierce to let him blood

Few in any age that do mind anything that is abstruse

Find that now and then a little difference do no hurte

Find it a base copy of a good originall, that vexed me

Find myself to over-value things when a child

Finding my wife not sick, but yet out of order

Finding my wife's clothes lie carelessly laid up

Fire grow; and, as it grew darker, appeared more and more

First time that ever I heard the organs in a cathedral

First their apes, that they may be afterwards their slaves

First thing of that nature I did ever give her (L10 ring)

First time I had given her leave to wear a black patch

Fixed that the year should commence in January instead of March

Fool's play with which all publick things are done

For my quiet would not enquire into it

For, for her part, she should not be buried in the commons

For a land-tax and against a general excise

For I will not be inward with him that is open to another

For I will be hanged before I seek to him, unless I see I need

Force a man to swear against himself

Forced to change gold, 8s. 7d.; servants and poor, 1s. 6d.

Forgetting many things, which her master beat her for

Formerly say that the King was a bastard and his mother a whore

Found my brother John at eight o'clock in bed, which vexed me

Found him a fool, as he ever was, or worse

Found him not so ill as I thought that he had been ill

Found in my head and body about twenty lice, little and great

Found to be with child, do never stir out of their beds

Found guilty, and likely will be hanged (for stealing spoons)

France, which is accounted the best place for bread

Frequent trouble in things we deserve best in

Frogs and many insects do often fall from the sky, ready formed

From some fault in the meat to complain of my maid's sluttish

Gadding abroad to look after beauties

Galileo's air thermometer, made before 1597

Gamester's life, which I see is very miserable, and poor

Gave him his morning draft

Generally with corruption, but most indeed with neglect

Gentlewomen did hold up their heads to be kissed by the King

Get his lady to trust herself with him into the tavern

Give the King of France Nova Scotia, which he do not like

Give her a Lobster and do so touse her and feel her all over

Give the other notice of the future state, if there was any

Glad to be at friendship with me, though we hate one another

Gladder to have just now received it (than a promise)

God knows that I do not find honesty enough in my own mind

God forgive me! what thoughts and wishes I had

God help him, he wants bread.

God forgive me! what a mind I had to her

God! what an age is this, and what a world is this

Going with her woman to a hot-house to bathe herself

Gold holds up its price still

Goldsmiths in supplying the King with money at dear rates

Good sport of the bull's tossing of the dogs

Good wine, and anchovies, and pickled oysters (for breakfast)

Good purpose of fitting ourselves for another war (A Peace)

Good writers are not admired by the present

Got her upon my knee (the coach being full) and played with her

Great thaw it is not for a man to walk the streets

Great newes of the Swedes declaring for us against the Dutch

Great deale of tittle tattle discourse to little purpose

Great many silly stories they tell of their sport

Greater number of Counsellors is, the more confused the issue

Greatest businesses are done so superficially

Had no more manners than to invite me and to let me pay

Had his hand cut off, and was hanged presently!

*Had what pleasure almost I would with

Had the umbles of it for dinner

Half a pint of Rhenish wine at the Still-yard, mixed with beer

Hanged with a silken halter

Hanging jack to roast birds on

Hard matter to settle to business after so much leisure

Hate in others, and more in myself, to be careless of keys

Hates to have any body mention what he had done the day before

Hath not a liberty of begging till he hath served three years

Hath a good heart to bear, or a cunning one to conceal his evil

Hath given her the pox, but I hope it is not so

Have not known her this fortnight almost, which is a pain to me

Have not any awe over them from the King's displeasure (Commons)

Have not much to lose, and therefore will venture all

Have been so long absent that I am ashamed to go

Having some experience, but greater conceit of it than is fit

He that will not stoop for a pin, will never be worth a pound

He made but a poor sermon, but long

He has been inconvenienced by being too free in discourse

He having made good promises, though I fear his performance

He hoped he should live to see her "ugly and willing"

He is too wise to be made a friend of

He was fain to lie in the priest's hole a good while

He was charged with making himself popular

He is, I perceive, wholly sceptical, as well as I

He is a man of no worth in the world but compliment

He is not a man fit to be told what one hears

Heard noises over their head upon the leads

Heeling her on one side to make her draw little water

Helping to slip their calves when there is occasion

Her months upon her is gone to bed

Here I first saw oranges grow

Hired her to procure this poor soul for him

His enemies have done him as much good as he could wish

His readiness to speak spoilt all

His satisfaction is nothing worth, it being easily got

His company ever wearys me

Holes for me to see from my closet into the great office

Hopes to have had a bout with her before she had gone

Houses marked with a red cross upon the doors

How the Presbyterians would be angry if they durst

How highly the Presbyters do talk in the coffeehouses still

How little merit do prevail in the world, but only favour

How little heed is had to the prisoners and sicke and wounded

How unhappily a man may fall into a necessity of bribing people

How natural it is for us to slight people out of power

How little to be presumed of in our greatest undertakings

Hugged, it being cold now in the mornings

I took occasion to be angry with him

I could not forbear to love her exceedingly

I do not value her, or mind her as I ought

I did what I would, and might have done anything else

I have itched mightily these 6 or 7 days

I know not whether to be glad or sorry

I was as merry as I could counterfeit myself to be

I could have answered, but forbore

I have a good mind to have the maidenhead of this girl

I know not how in the world to abstain from reading

I fear that it must be as it can, and not as I would

I had six noble dishes for them, dressed by a man-cook

I find her painted, which makes me loathe her (cosmetics)

I did get her hand to me under my cloak

I perceive no passion in a woman can be lasting long

I having now seen a play every day this week

I was very angry, and resolve to beat him to-morrow

I know not yet what that is, and am ashamed to ask

I do not like his being angry and in debt both together to me

I will not by any over submission make myself cheap

I slept soundly all the sermon

I and she never were so heartily angry in our lives as to-day

I calling her beggar, and she me pricklouse, which vexed me

I love the treason I hate the traitor

I would not enquire into anything, but let her talk

I kissed the bride in bed, and so the curtain drawne

I have promised, but know not when I shall perform

I met a dead corps of the plague, in the narrow ally

I am a foole to be troubled at it, since I cannot helpe it

I was exceeding free in dallying with her, and she not unfree

I was a great Roundhead when I was a boy

I pray God to make me able to pay for it.

I took a broom and basted her till she cried extremely

I was demanded L100, for the fee of the office at 6d. a pound

I never designed to be a witness against any man

I fear is not so good as she should be

If the exportations exceed importations

If it should come in print my name maybe at it

Ill from my late cutting my hair so close to my head

Ill all this day by reason of the last night's debauch

Ill sign when we are once to come to study how to excuse

Ill humour to be so against that which all the world cries up

Ill-bred woman, would take exceptions at anything any body said

In my nature am mighty unready to answer no to anything

In men's clothes, and had the best legs that ever I saw

In our graves (as Shakespeere resembles it) we could dream

In discourse he seems to be wise and say little

In perpetual trouble and vexation that need it least

In comes Mr. North very sea-sick from shore

In a hackney and full of people, was ashamed to be seen

In my dining-room she was doing something upon the pott

Inconvenience that do attend the increase of a man's fortune

Inoffensive vanity of a man who loved to see himself in the glass

Instructed by Shakespeare himself

Irish in Ireland, whom Cromwell had settled all in one corner

It not being handsome for our servants to sit so equal with us

Justice of God in punishing men for the sins of their ancestors

Justice of proceeding not to condemn a man unheard

Keep at interest, which is a good, quiett, and easy profit

King is at the command of any woman like a slave

King shall not be able to whip a cat

King was gone to play at Tennis

King hath lost his power, by submitting himself to this way

King do resolve to declare the Duke of Monmouth legitimate

the King*

Lady Castlemayne's nose out of joynt

Lady Castlemayne is now in a higher command over the King

Lady Castlemayne do rule all at this time as much as ever

Laissez nous affaire—Colbert

Last day of their doubtfulness touching her being with child

Last act of friendship in telling me of my faults also

Laughing and jeering at every thing that looks strange

Lay long caressing my wife and talking

Lay long in bed talking and pleasing myself with my wife

Lay chiding, and then pleased with my wife in bed

Lay with her to-night, which I have not done these eight (days)

Learned the multiplication table for the first time in 1661

Learnt a pretty trick to try whether a woman be a maid or no

Lechery will never leave him

Let me blood, about sixteen ounces, I being exceedingly full

Let her brew as she has baked

Lewdness and beggary of the Court

Liability of a husband to pay for goods supplied his wife

Liberty of speech in the House

Listening to no reasoning for it, be it good or bad

Little content most people have in the peace

Little children employed, every one to do something

Little worth of this world, to buy it with so much pain

Long cloaks being now quite out

Look askew upon my wife, because my wife do not buckle to them

Lord! to see the absurd nature of Englishmen

Lord! in the dullest insipid manner that ever lover did

Lust and wicked lives of the nuns heretofore in England

Luxury and looseness of the times

Lying a great while talking and sporting in bed with my wife

Made a lazy sermon, like a Presbyterian

Made to drink, that they might know him not to be a Roundhead

Made him admire my drawing a thing presently in shorthand

Magnifying the graces of the nobility and prelates

Make a man wonder at the good fortune of such a fool

Man cannot live without playing the knave and dissimulation Matters in Ireland are full of discontent

Meazles, we fear, or, at least, of a scarlett feavour

Methought very ill, or else I am grown worse to please

Milke, which I drank to take away, my heartburne

Mirrors which makes the room seem both bigger and lighter

Money I have not, nor can get Money, which sweetens all things

Montaigne is conscious that we are looking over his shoulder

Most flat dead sermon, both for matter and manner of delivery

Most homely widow, but young, and pretty rich, and good natured

Mr. William Pen a Quaker again

Much discourse, but little to be learned

Musique in the morning to call up our new-married people

Muske Millon

My wife, coming up suddenly, did find me embracing the girl

My wife hath something in her gizzard, that only waits

My heart beginning to falsify in this business

My old folly and childishnesse hangs upon me still

My new silk suit, the first that ever I wore in my life

My Lord, who took physic to-day and was in his chamber

My wife will keep to one another and let the world go hang

My wife this night troubled at my leaving her alone so much

My wife was making of her tarts and larding of her pullets

My head was not well with the wine that I drank to-day

My first attempt being to learn the multiplication-table

My intention to learn to trill

Necessary, and yet the peace is so bad in its terms

Never laughed so in all my life. I laughed till my head ached

Never, while he lives, truckle under any body or any faction

Never to trust too much to any man in the world

Never was known to keep two mistresses in his life (Charles II.)

Never could man say worse himself nor have worse said

New Netherlands to English rule, under the title of New York

No Parliament can, as he says, be kept long good

No manner of means used to quench the fire

No pleasure—only the variety of it

No money to do it with, nor anybody to trust us without it

No man is wise at all times

No man was ever known to lose the first time

No man knowing what to do, whether to sell or buy

No sense nor grammar, yet in as good words that ever I saw

No good by taking notice of it, for the present she forbears

Nonconformists do now preach openly in houses

None will sell us any thing without our personal security given

Nor would become obliged too much to any

Nor will yield that the Papists have any ground given them

Nor was there any pretty woman that I did see, but my wife

Nor offer anything, but just what is drawn out of a man

Not well, and so had no pleasure at all with my poor wife

Not eat a bit of good meat till he has got money to pay the men

Not the greatest wits, but the steady man

Not when we can, but when we list

Not to be censured if their necessities drive them to bad

Not more than I expected, nor so much by a great deal as I ought

Not thinking them safe men to receive such a gratuity

Not permit her begin to do so, lest worse should follow

Nothing in the world done with true integrity

Nothing in it approaching that single page in St. Simon

Nothing of the memory of a man, an houre after he is dead!

Nothing is to be got without offending God and the King

Nothing of any truth and sincerity, but mere envy and design

Now above six months since (smoke from the cellars)

Offer me L500 if I would desist from the Clerk of the Acts place

Offered to stop the fire near his house for such a reward

Officers are four years behind-hand unpaid

Once a week or so I know a gentleman must go

Opening his mind to him as of one that may hereafter be his foe

Ordered him L2000, and he paid me my quantum out of it

Ordered in the yarde six or eight bargemen to be whipped

Origin in the use of a plane against the grain of the wood

Out also to and fro, to see and be seen

Painful to keep money, as well as to get it

Sermon ended, and the church broke up, and my amours ended also

Sermon upon Original Sin, neither understood by himself

Sermon; but, it being a Presbyterian one, it was so long

Shakespeare's plays

Shame such a rogue should give me and all of us this trouble

She is conceited that she do well already

She used the word devil, which vexed me

She was so ill as to be shaved and pidgeons put to her feet

She begins not at all to take pleasure in me or study to please

She is a very good companion as long as she is well

She also washed my feet in a bath of herbs, and so to bed

She had got and used some puppy-dog water

She hath got her teeth new done by La Roche

as I always find her*

She so cruel a hypocrite that she can cry when she pleases

She finds that I am lousy

Short of what I expected, as for the most part it do fall out

Shy of any warr hereafter, or to prepare better for it

Sick of it and of him for it

Sicke men that are recovered, they lying before our office doors

Silence; it being seldom any wrong to a man to say nothing

Singing with many voices is not singing

Sir W. Pen was so fuddled that we could not try him to play

Sir W. Pen did it like a base raskall, and so I shall remember

Sit up till 2 o'clock that she may call the wench up to wash

Slabbering my band sent home for another

Smoke jack consists of a wind-wheel fixed in the chimney

So home to supper, and to bed, it being my wedding night

So great a trouble is fear

So to bed, to be up betimes by the helpe of a larum watch

So much is it against my nature to owe anything to any body

So home, and after supper did wash my feet, and so to bed

So home to prayers and to bed

So I took occasion to go up and to bed in a pet

So to bed in some little discontent, but no words from me

So home and to supper with beans and bacon and to bed

So we went to bed and lay all night in a quarrel

So much wine, that I was even almost foxed

So good a nature that he cannot deny any thing

So time do alter, and do doubtless the like in myself

So home and to bed, where my wife had not lain a great while

So out, and lost our way, which made me vexed

So every thing stands still for money

Softly up to see whether any of the beds were out of order or no

Some merry talk with a plain bold maid of the house

Some ends of my own in what advice I do give her

Sorry in some respect, glad in my expectations in another respect

Sorry for doing it now, because of obliging me to do the like

Sorry thing to be a poor King that drove like mad*

Thence to Mrs. Martin's, and did what I would with her

There is no passing but by coach in the streets, and hardly that

There eat and drank, and had my pleasure of her twice

There did 'tout ce que je voudrais avec' her

There setting a poor man to keep my place

There is no man almost in the City cares a turd for him

There being ten hanged, drawn, and quartered

These young Lords are not fit to do any service abroad

These Lords are hard to be trusted

They were so false spelt that I was ashamed of them

They want where to set their feet, to begin to do any thing

This day churched, her month of childbed being out

This absence makes us a little strange instead of more fond

This week made a vow to myself to drink no wine this week

This day I began to put on buckles to my shoes

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER

THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility: www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
