A soldier came back from the war, with many an honorable scar;

And the world as a Tory is branding him.

With War Democrats Seymour's for war; with Peace cowards for peace he'll hurrah;
 Let him get in the way of the mower some day,
 And He'll find there's no quibbling with war.

Original

The Copperhead lotteric hath a curious policie;
 For a man of low rank can draw naught save a blank,
 Unless an accomplice he be.

Original

There once was a twistified Reed who took for his pattern Snake-Weed;
 Till the Copperheads all, great, middling, and small
 Seemed straight by the side of this Reed.

Original

here's a character very well known, Who bubbles for ages has blown;
 But the best he has made since at bubbling he played,

T

From a Copperhead pipe have been thrown.

Original

"And what Stock he springs of!!!"—Coriolan, II. 3.

Copper stocks are uncertain to buy, though this Copperhead's stock's very high;

But we still might improve this stock of his love,

By adding the right sort of tie.

Original

There was an old War Horse, a clerical, who thought our Republic chimerical;

"For the Union," he said, "he never had prayed,"

This mordacious old War Horse choleric.

Original

" There is no goodness in the worm,"—Antony and Cleopatra,

Original

"And so the lion vanished."—Midsummer Night's Dream, V. 1.

Now with Copperhead tale he stings himself pale.

And furaciously scorns Abolition.

Original

"Will this Wood take fire?"—Merry Wives of Windsor, V. 5.

U nion, a fagot we take; But 'twould be a tremendous mistake,
To use rotten old Wood which never was good,

Original

T here once was a Patriot whose rigor reached such a remarkable figure,
That he'd rather go down in the water and drown

Than be saved by the help of a nigger.

Original

There once were some rascals near Reading thought fighting was easy

 But being well kicked, and most terribly licked,
 They mournfully mizzled from Reading.

 The Copperheads came and completed its shame

By sticking their Bills on this Wall.

Original

There once was a bottle of Porter, which the Copperheads thought was all water;
But when the cork popped, the Copperheads dropped,
And were stunned by the vim of the Porter!

Original

There once was a Snake who said "Hey! There's an Eagle I'll take for my prey!"
But the bird with his bill did the Copperhead kill,

And bore him in triumph away.

Original

"Exit shall be strangling a snake."—Love's Labor's Lost, V. 1.

The Copperhead traitors all, our army "base hirelings" call
But some fine summer day The "boys," just for play,

Will settle the Copperheads all.

Amen!

GOTHAM-MITES.

I like such Brooks," said Falstaff once;
Had he meant ours he'd been a dunce;
The devil, whom all things evil please,
Could never stand such Brooks as these.

In the Tyrol on mountain high
"The Devil's Marble" you may spy;
And if in the World you long remain,
You'll probably meet the same again.

Och, Johnny, my gun—let the truth be aid,
What the divil made ye turn Copperhid?
Sure it was hivvy what ye bore,
Wid the brass in your face yees had before.

There's a song how Old Nick took a journey,
With a corporation attorney;
But there is one fouler, whom even the old prowler
Would fear as a friend on a journey.

"The man who made that order," said
Judge B. in court, "was a meat-head."
Oh what a head that head would be,
Just meted Judge, to match with thee!

2.

"Just roll that nigger out of court!"

The Judge exclaimed with solemn port;
"I tell you very truly now,
Nigs at the bar I won't allow!"

At a Copperhead meeting the crier
Paused an instant to hear his gun fire;
The cannon was loaded, and when it exploded,
Said he—"List to the voice of our sire!"

There was old party named M———,
Who went from bad doctrines to worse.
If at law he should see his name prefaced by re,
It will show what he should feel; this M———.

There was a small Cozening shyster;
Said he, "Every case is an eyester;
Give the parties the shells if you can, and nought else,
Unless the Court tips you a hi-ster."

There's a man at the Bar who, we know,
Is in politics terribly low;
For he keeps in the clubs the secessional cubs,
Who in propria persona can't go.

There's a very bad-minis-trator,
A très petite pomme de tater,

Who tears feelings to rags, presenting of flags;
This oily old adminis-traitor.

There's a wide-awake Copperhead cratur',
Who is Eli by name and by natur';
Displaying for one neither fashion nor ton,
This un-national nativist traitor.

CHECKER-BOARDS AND KEYSTONERS

There was an old person, J. B.,
An old Public Func-tion-arie; [agreed,
When they swore, "We'll secede!" he just smiled, "I'm
"You've a sure friend, you know, in J. B.

There was a smart lawyer named W———
Who from Union men made quite a fortun';
But his wealth he despised, with Secesh fraternized,
This apo-state-olical W———.

There was a twistortulous Heed,
Who hoped that Secesh might succeed;
For he said, "It's my natur' to act like a traitor,
Since it runs in the joints of a Heed."

There once was a Copperhead Diddle,
Who played to the Heed second fiddle;
When they said, "It is small!" it replied, not at all,
Says he, "I ain't dead—as a live Copperhead
I'm a squirmulous vermiform Wiggler."

There was an old servant called Peter,
So moody in humor and feature
Because the good people from the church with a steeple
Expelled this old saturnine Peter.

There was a sharp lawyer, one P-,

Whose thoughts never got through his still lips;
And all he would say was "ah!" "h'm!" "oh!" and "ay
This pauciloquent person named P-.

There was a neat serpent—a Coiler—
True son of the ancient Beguiler;
Who told such a whopper, he burst out his copper,
And frightfully fractured his biler.

It's a full-blooded Copperhead Diddle!"

There was an ex-governing Wiggler,
A political huckster and higgler;
Quoth "Aristocracy"
To Fourth Ward "Vulgarity,"
"You are dregs, I am froth; and our interests both
Are opposed to this working, d'ye see!"

MODERN HEATHEN-ANS

There was an ex-editor, L———,
Who rowed in the Courier punt,
But to twist around more, he jumped out on the shore,
That contortious poetical L———.

Oh G——— T——— C——— was one
Who thought himself quite a great gun;
So Treason he shouted, "Constitution" he spouted,
But Boston grew hot for such "Union Men"—so
He herds in New York with Fernando & Co.

To the cause of his country adverse,
Is the man whom all honest men curse.
Do you ask what's his name? oh, ne'er believe Fame,
If it be not Ex-President Pierce.

In Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-Six,
A poet, disgusted with Pierce's tricks,
Said that he down to the dust should go,
To grovel there in infamy low.
And in Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-Three,
The prophecy came to pass, I see,
Since in the dust and on the ground,
As a Copperhead Pierce goes squirming round".

What a pity that Joshua D.
A good Insolvency lawyer should be,

Yet cannot, in politics, as we see,
Keep his own good name from bankruptcie!

John C. passes, now and then,
For one of Boston's League-al men.
Mistake me not—he doth intrigue
With the Liquor—not the Union—League!

Gamblers, Wood-ites, thieves, and asses,
Scrapings of the dangerous classes,
Pettifoggers malign, but weak,
Who dare not fight and cannot speak;
Trash which the war-tide rolling high
Has cast ashore in scorn to dry;
"Aristocrats" who fear to wage
Brave battle in a stirring age,
As did their glorious sires before,
Who won thereby the fame they wore;
Oh G. S. H———, tell us true.
Is this fit company for you?

SHAKSPEARE ON THE COPPERHEADS.

"What would you have, you curs,
That like nor peace nor war? The one affrights you,
The other makes you proud. He that trusts to you,
Where he should find you lions, finds you hares;
Where foxes, geese; you are no surer, no,
Than is the coal of fire upon the ice,
Or hailstone in the sun. Your virtue is,
To make him worthy whose offence subdues him,
And curse that justice did it. Who deserves greatness
Deserves your hate; and your affections are
A sick man's appetite, who desires most that
Which would increase his evil. He that depends
Upon your favors swims with fins of lead,
And hews down oaks with rushes."—Coriolanus, I. 1.

"THOSE DEVOTED COPPERHEADS."

"Our sympathies are all confined at home; yet it is just possible we may help those devoted Copperheads in the only way we know how—also, that they, on their side, are now about ripe to aid us in the only way we could accept their aid. If our troops should this summer appear within their borders anywhere between Cairo and Philadelphia, they would be hailed as friends by a population pretty well cured now of Pluribus Unum. Their cry would be, not Union, but deliverance. Wait then, and watch, and keep your lights burning, ye Knights of the Golden Circle!"—Richmond Enquirer, 18th May, 1863.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
