PUSSY CAT, PUSSY CAT, WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN?

[MusicXML]

"Pussy cat, pussy cat, where have you been?"
"I've been to London to see the new Queen."
"Pussy cat, pussy cat, what did you there?"
"I caught a little mouse under her chair."

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB.

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB.

Mary had a lit-tle lamb its fleece was white as snow— And e-very where that Ma-ry went The lamb was sure to go— He fol-lowed her to school one day, That was a-gainst the rule— It made the chil-dren laugh and play To see a lamb at school.

2. So the Teacher turned him out
But still he lingered near,
And waited patiently about
Till Mary did appear;
And then he ran to her and laid
His head upon her arm
As if he said "I'm not afraid,
You'll keep me from all harm!"

3. "What makes the lamb love Mary so?"
The eager children cry,
"O, Mary loves the lamb you know,
The Teacher did reply:
And you each gentle animal
In confidence may bind,
And make them follow at your call
If you are always kind."

Sugar and spice and all things nice,
And such are little girls made of;
Sugar and spice and all things nice,
And such are little girls made of.

What are our young men made of?
Sighs and leers, and crocodile tears,
And such are our young men made of;
Sighs and leers, and crocodile tears,

 4. What are young women made of, made of?
What are young women made of?
Ribbons and laces, and sweet pretty faces,

THERE WAS A LITTLE MAN.

THERE WAS A LITTLE MAN.

1. There was a lit.tle man, And he wooed a lit.tle maid, And he said "Lit.tle maid! will you wed, wed, wed? I have lit.tle more to say, Then will you? yea, or nay! For least said is soon-est men - ded, ded, ded, ded!"

2. The little maid replied,
(Some say a little sighed)
But what shall we have to eat, eat, eat?
Will the love that you're so rich in,
Put a fire into the kitchen?
Or the little God of Love turn the spit, spit, spit.

3. The little man replied,
(Some say a little cried.)
For his little heart was filled with sorrow, row;
With the little that I have,
I will be your little slave,
And the rest my little dear we will borrow, row.

4. Thus did the little gent,
Make the little maid relent,
For her little heart began to beat, beat, beat;
Though his offers were but small,
She accepted of them all,
Now she thanks her little stars for her fate, fate, fate.

He's under the haycock fast asleep.
Will you wake him? No, not I!

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
