Three little girls were
sitting on a rail,
Sitting on a rail,
sitting on a rail

55

Ring the bells—ring!
Hip, hurrah for the King!

56

Under the window is my garden,
Where sweet, sweet flowers grow;
And in the pear-tree dwells a robin,
The dearest bird I know.

Tho' I peep out betimes in the morning,
Still the flowers are up the first;
Then I try and talk to the robin,
And perhaps he'd chat—if he durst.

Will you be my little wife,
If I ask you? Do!
I'll buy you such a Sunday frock,
A nice umbrella, too.

And you shall have a little hat,
With such a long white feather,
A pair of gloves, and sandal shoes,
The softest kind of leather.

And you shall have a tiny house,
A beehive full of bees,

A little cow, a largish cat,
And green sage cheese.

14

You see, merry Phillis, that dear little maid,
Has invited Belinda to tea;
Her nice little garden is shaded by trees—
What pleasanter place could there be?

There's a cake full of plums, there are strawberries too,
And the table is set on the green;

I'm fond of a carpet all daisies and grass—
Could a prettier picture be seen?

A blackbird (yes, blackbirds delight in warm weather,)
Is flitting from yonder high spray;
He sees the two little ones talking together—
No wonder the blackbird is gay!

Three tabbies took out their cats to tea,
As well-behaved tabbies as well could be:
Each sat in the chair that each preferred,

They mewed for their milk, and they sipped and purred.
Now tell me this (as these cats you've seen them)—
How many lives had these cats between them?

16

Little Fanny wears a hat
Like her ancient Grannie;
Tommy's hoop was (think of that!)
Given him by Fanny.

"Margery Brown, on the top of the hill,
Why are you standing, idle still?"
"Oh, I'm looking over to London town;
Shall I see the horsemen if I go down?"

"Margery Brown, on the top of the hill,
Why are you standing, listening still?"

"Oh, I hear the bells of London ring,
And I hear the men and the maidens sing."

"Margery Brown, on the top of the hill,
Why are you standing, waiting still?"
"Oh, a knight is there, but I can't go down,
For the bells ring strangely in London town."

Little wind, blow on the hill-top,
 Little wind, blow down the plain;
Little wind, blow up the sunshine,
 Little wind, blow off the rain.

Indeed it is true, it is perfectly true;
Believe me, indeed, I am playing no tricks;
An old man and his dog bide up there in the moon,
And he's cross as a bundle of sticks.

School is over,
Oh, what fun!
Lessons finished,
Play begun.
Who'll run fastest,
You or I?
Who'll laugh loudest?
Let us try.

"Little Polly, will you go a-walking to-day?"
 "Indeed, little Susan, I will, if I may."
 "Little Polly, your mother has said you may go;
 She was nice to say 'Yes;' she should never say 'No.'"

"A rook has a nest on the top of the tree—
 A big ship is coming from over the sea:
 Now, which would be nicest, the ship or the nest?"
 "Why, that would be nicest that Polly likes best."

As I was walking up the street,
The steeple bells were ringing;
As I sat down at Mary's feet,
The sweet, sweet birds were singing.

As I walked far into the world,
I met a little fairy;
She plucked this flower, and, as it's sweet,
I've brought it home to Mary.

Five little sisters walking in a row;
Now, isn't that the best way for little girls to go?
Each had a round hat, each had a muff,
And each had a new pelisse of soft green stuff.

Five little marigolds standing in a row;
Now, isn't that the best way for marigolds to grow?

Each with a green stalk, and all the five had got
A bright yellow flower, and a new red pot.

My sister I drew;
And I've promised to draw her
The wide world through.

We have not yet started—
I own it with sorrow—
Because our trip's always
Put off till to-morrow.

Some geese went out a-walking,
To breakfast and to dine;
They craned their necks, and plumed themselves—
They numbered four from nine;
With their cackle, cackle, cackle!
They thought themselves so fine.

A dame went walking by herself,
A very ancient crone;

She said, "I wish that all you geese
Were starved to skin and bone!
Do stop that cackle, cackle, now,
And leave me here alone."

26

You are going out to tea to-day,
So mind how you behave;
Let all accounts I have of you
Be pleasant ones, I crave.

Don't spill your tea, or gnaw your bread,
And don't tease one another;
And Tommy mustn't talk too much,
Or quarrel with his brother.

Say "If you please," and "Thank you, Nurse:"
Come home at eight o'clock;
And, Fanny, pray be careful that
You do not tear your frock.

Now, mind your manners, children five,
Attend to what I say;
And then, perhaps, I'll let you go
Again another day.

Poor Dicky's dead!—The bell we toll,
And lay him in the deep, dark hole.
The sun may shine, the clouds may rain,
But Dick will never pipe again!
His quilt will be as sweet as ours—
Bright buttercups and cuckoo flowers.

Up you go, shuttlecocks, ever so high!

Why come you down again, shuttlecocks—why?

When you have got so far, why do you fall?

Where all are high, which is highest of all?

Tommy was a silly boy,
"I can fly," he said;
He started off, but very soon,
He tumbled on his head.

His little sister Prue was there,
To see how he would do it;
She knew that, after all his boast,
Full dearly Tom would rue it!

Higgledy, piggledy! see how they run!
Hopperty, popperty! what is the fun?
Has the sun or the moon tumbled into the sea?
What is the matter, now? Pray tell it me!

Higgledy, piggledy! how can I tell?
Hopperty, popperty! hark to the bell!
The rats and the mice even scamper away;
Who can say what may not happen to-day?

Which is the way to Somewhere Town?
 Oh, up in the morning early;
Over the tiles and the chimney-pots,
 That is the way, quite clearly.

And which is the door to Somewhere Town?

Oh, up in the morning early;
The round red sun is the door to go through,
That is the way, quite clearly.

The boat sails away, like a bird on the wing,
And the little boys dance on the sands in a ring.
The wind may fall, or the wind may rise—

You are foolish to go; you will stay if you're wise.
The little boys dance, and the little girls run:
If it's bad to have money, it's worse to have none.

Pipe thee high, and pipe thee low,
Let the little feet go faster;
Blow your penny trumpet—blow!
Well done, little master!

Polly's, Peg's, and Poppety's
Mamma was kind and good:
She gave them each, one happy day,
A little scarf and hood.

A bonnet for each girl she bought,
To shield them from the sun;
They wore them in the snow and rain,
And thought it mighty fun.

But sometimes there were naughty boys,
Who called to them at play,
And made this rude remark—"My eye!
Three Grannies out to-day!"

Bowl away! bowl away!
Fast as you can;
He who can fastest bowl,
He is my man!

Up and down, round about,—
Don't let it fall;
Ten times, or twenty times,
Beat, beat them all!

"For what are you longing, you three little boys?

Oh, what would you like to eat?"

"We should like some apples, or gingerbread—

Or a fine big drum to beat."

"Oh, what will you give me, you three little boys,

In exchange for these good, good things?"

"Some bread and cheese, and some radishes,

And our little brown bird that sings."

"Now, that won't do, you three little chums,

I'll have something better than that—

Two of your fingers, and two of your thumbs,

In the crown of your largest hat!"

O ring the bells! O ring the bells!
We bid you, sirs, good morning;
Give thanks, we pray—our flowers are gay,
And fair for your adorning.

O ring the bells! O ring the bells!
Good sirs, accept our greeting;
Where we have been, the woods are green.
So, hey! for our next meeting.

Then ring the bells! then ring the bells!
For this fair time of Maying;
Our blooms we bring, and while we sing,
O! hark to what we're saying.

O ring the bells! O ring the bells!
We'll sing a song with any;
And may each year bring you good cheer,
And each of us a penny.

I saw a ship that sailed the sea,
It left me as the sun went down;
The white birds flew, and followed it
To town—to London town.

Right sad were we to stand alone,
And see it pass so far away;
And yet we knew some ship would come—
Some other ship—some other day.

Yes, that's the girl that struts about,
 She's very proud,—so very proud!
Her bow-wow's quite as proud as she:
They both are very wrong to be
 So proud—so very proud.

See, Jane and Willy laugh at her,
 They say she's very proud!
Says Jane, "My stars!—they're very silly;"

"Indeed they are," cries little Willy,
"To walk so stiff and proud."

41

It was Tommy who said,

"The sweet spring-time is come;

I see the birds flit,

And I hear the bees hum.

"Oho! Mister Lark,

Up aloft in the sky,

Now, which is the happiest—

Is it you, sir, or I?"

"Shall I sing?" says the Lark,
 "Shall I bloom?" says the Flower;
"Shall I come?" says the Sun,
 "Or shall I?" says the Shower.

Sing your song, pretty Bird,
 Roses, bloom for an hour;
Shine on, dearest Sun,
 Go away, naughty Shower!

Little Miss Patty and Master Paul
Have found two snails on the garden wall.
"These snails," said Paul, "how slow they walk!
A great deal slower than we can talk.
Make haste, Mr. Snail, travel quicker, I pray;
In a race with our tongues you'd be beaten to-day."

Yes, it is sad of them—
Shocking to me;
Bad—yes, it's bad of them—
Bad of all three.

Warnings they've had from me.
Still I repeat them—
Cold is the water—the
Fishes will eat them.

Yet they will row about,
Tho' I say "Fie!" to them;
Fathers may scold at it,
Mothers may cry to them.

Now, all of you, give heed unto
The tale I now relate,
About two girls and one small boy,
A cat, and a green gate.

Alack! since I began to speak
(And what I say is true),
It's all gone out of my poor head—
And so good-bye to you!

What is Tommy running for,
Running for,
Running for?
What is Tommy running for,
On this fine day?

Jimmy will run after Tommy,
After Tommy,
After Tommy;
That's what Tommy's running for,
On this fine day.

47

A butcher's boy met a baker's boy
(It was all of a summer day);
Said the butcher's boy to the baker's boy,
"Will you please to walk my way?"

Said the butcher's boy to the baker's boy,
"My trade's the best in town,"
"If you dare say that," said the baker's boy,
"I shall have to knock you down!"

Said the butcher's boy to the baker's boy,
"That's a wicked thing to do;
And I think, before you've knocked me down,
The cook will blow up you!"

48

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Were twelve sweet little girls;
Some wore their hair in pigtail plaits,
And some of them wore curls.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Had dinner every day;—
A not uncommon thing at all,
You probably will say.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Went sometimes for a walk;
It also is a well-known fact
That all of them could talk.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes,
Of course, to school were sent;
Their parents wished them to excel
In each accomplishment.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Were always most polite—
Said "If you please," and "Many thanks,"
"Good morning," and "Good night."

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Played music—Fal-lal-la!
Which consequently made them all
The pride of their papa.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Learnt dancing and the globes;
Which proves that they were wise, and had
That patience which was Job's.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
You plainly see, were taught
To do the things they didn't like,
Which means, the things they ought.

Now, fare ye well, Miss Pelicoes,
I wish ye a good day;—
About these twelve Miss Pelicoes
I've nothing more to say.

Little baby, if I threw
This fair blossom down to you,
Would you catch it as you stand,
Holding up each tiny hand,
Looking out of those grey eyes,
Where such deep, deep wonder lies?

The finest, biggest fish, you see,
Will be the trout that's caught by me,
But if the monster will not bite,
Why, then I'll hook a little mite.

Prince Finikin and his mamma
Sat sipping their bohea;
"Good gracious!" said his Highness, "why,
What girl is this I see?

"Most certainly it cannot be
A native of our town;"
And he turned him round to his
mamma,
Who set her teacup down.

But Dolly simply looked at them,
She did not speak a word;
"She has no voice!" said Finikin;
"It's really quite absurd."

Then Finikin's mamma observed,
"Dear Prince, it seems to me,
She looks as if she'd like to drink
A cup of my bohea."

So Finikin poured out her tea,
And gave her currant-pie;
Then Finikin said, "Dear
mamma,
What a kind Prince am I!"

Heigh ho!—time creeps but slow;
I've looked up the hill so long;
None come this way, the sun sinks low,
And my shadow's very long.

They said I should sail in a little boat,
Up the stream, by the great white mill;
But I've waited all day, and none come my way;
I've waited—I'm waiting still.

They said I should see a fairy town,
With houses all of gold,
And silver people, and a gold church steeple;—
But it wasn't the truth they told.

My house is red—a little house,
A happy child am I,
I laugh and play the livelong day
I hardly ever cry.

I have a tree, a green, green tree,
To shade me from the sun;
And under it I often sit,
When all my work is done.

My little basket I will take,
And trip into the town;
When next I'm there I'll buy some cake,
And spend my bright half-crown.

Three little girls were sitting on a rail,
Sitting on a rail,
Sitting on a rail;
Three little girls were sitting on a rail,
On a fine hot day in September.

What did they talk about that fine day,
That fine day,
That fine day?
What did they talk about that fine day,—
That fine hot day in September?

The crows and the corn they talked about,
Talked about,
Talked about;
But nobody knows what was said by the crows,
On that fine hot day in September.

Ring the bells—ring!
Hip, hurrah for the King!
The dunce fell into the pool, oh!
The dunce was going to school, oh!
The groom and the cook

Fished him out with a hook,
And he piped his eye like a fool, oh!

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project

Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.

UNDER THE WINDOW

UNDER the window is my garden,
Where sweet, sweet flowers grow ;
And in the pear-tree dwells a robin,
The dearest bird I know.

Tho' I peep out betimes in the morning,
Still the flowers are up the first ;
Then I try and talk to the robin,
And perhaps he'd chat—if he durst.

KG

Will you be my little wife,
If I ask you? Do!
I'll buy you such a Sunday frock,
A nice umbrella, too,
And you shall have a little hat,
With such a long white feather,
A pair of gloves, and sandal shoes,
The softest kind of leather,
And you shall have a tiny house,
A beehive full of bees,
A little cow, a largish cat,
And green sage cheese.

You see, merry Phillis, that dear little maid,
 Has invited Belinda to tea ;
 Her nice little garden is shaded by trees—
 What pleasanter place could there be ?
 There's a cake full of plums, there are strawberries too,
 And the table is set on the green ;
 I'm fond of a carpet all daisies and grass—
 Could a prettier picture be seen ?
 A blackbird (yes, blackbirds delight in warm weather,)
 Is flitting from yonder high spray :
 He sees the two little ones talking together—
 No wonder the blackbird is gay !

THREE tabbies took out their cats to tea,
As well-behaved tabbies as well could be ;
Each sat in the chair that each preferred,
They mewed for their milk, and they sipped and purred.
Now tell me this (as these cats you've seen them) —
How many lives had these cats between them ?

LITTLE Fanny wears a hat
Like her ancient Grannie ;
Tommy's hoop was (think of that !)
Given him by Fanny.

" MARGERY BROWN, on the top of the hill,
Why are you standing, idle still ? "
" Oh, I'm looking over to London town ;
Shall I see the horsemen if I go down ? "

" Margery Brown, on the top of the hill,
Why are you standing, listening still ? "
" Oh, I hear the bells of London ring,
And I hear the men and the maidens sing. "

" Margery Brown, on the top of the hill,
Why are you standing, waiting still ? "
" Oh, a knight is there, but I can't go down,
For the bells ring strangely in London town. "

LITTLE wind, blow on the hill-top.
Little wind, blow down the plain;
Little wind, blow up the sunshine,
Little wind, blow off the rain.

INDEED it is true, it is perfectly true ;
Believe me, indeed, I am playing no tricks ;
An old man and his dog bide up there in the moon,
And he's cross as a bundle of sticks.

KG.

SCHOOL is over,
Lessons finished,
Play begun.
Who'll run fastest,
You or I ?
Who'll laugh loudest ?
Let us try.

K. G.

"LITTLE Polly, will you go a-walking to-day?"
"Indeed, little Susan, I will, if I may."
"Little Polly, your mother has said you may go;
She was nice to say 'Yes,' she should never say 'No.'"

"A rook has a nest on the top of the tree—
A big ship is coming from over the sea:
Now, which would be nicest, the ship or the nest?"
"Why, that would be nicest that Polly likes best."

KG

As I was walking up the street,
The steeple bells were ringing ;
As I sat down at Mary's feet,
The sweet, sweet birds were singing

As I walked far into the world,
I met a little fairy ;
She plucked this flower, and, as it's sweet,
I've brought it home to Mary.

KG

Five little sisters walking in a row ;
Now, isn't that the best way for little girls to go ?
Each had a round hat, each had a muff,
And each had a new pelisse of soft green-stuff.

Five little marigolds standing in a row ;
Now, isn't that the best way for marigolds to grow ?
Each with a green stalk, and all the five had got
A bright yellow flower, and a new red pot.

In go-cart so tiny
My sister I drew ;
And I've promised to draw her
The wide world through.

We have not yet started—
I own it with sorrow—
Because our trip's always
Put off till to-morrow.

Some geese went out a walking,
To breakfast and to dine ;
They craned their necks, and plumed themselves—
They numbered four from nine ;
With their cackle, cackle, cackle !
They thought themselves so fine.

A dame went walking by herself,
A very ancient crone ;
She said, " I wish that all you geese
Were starved to skin and bone !
Do stop that cackle, cackle, now,
And leave me here alone."

You are going out to tea to-day,
 So mind how you behave ;
 Let all accounts I have of you
 Be pleasant ones, I crave.

Don't spill your tea, or gnaw your bread,
 And don't tease one another ;
 And Tommy mustn't talk too much,
 Or quarrel with his brother.

Say " If you please," and " Thank you, Nurse : "
 Come home at eight o'clock ;
 And, Fanny, pray be careful that
 You do not tear your frock.

Now, mind your manners, children five,
 Attend to what I say ;
 And then, perhaps, I'll let you go
 Again another day.

Poor Dicky's dead!—The bell we toll,
And lay him in the deep, dark hole.
The sun may shine, the clouds may rain,
But Dick will never pipe again!
His quilt will be as sweet as ours—
Bright buttercups and cuckoo flowers.

Up you go, shuttlecocks, ever so high !
Why come you down again, shuttlecocks—why ?
When you have got so far, why do you fall ?
Where all are high, which is highest of all ?

K.G

TOMMY was a silly boy,
"I can fly," he said :
He started off, but very soon,
He tumbled on his head.

His little sister Prue was there,
To see how he would do it ;
She knew that, after all his boast,
Full dearly Tom would rue it !

K.G.

Higgledy, piggledy ! see how they run !
Hopperty, popperty ! what is the fun ?
Has the sun or the moon tumbled into the sea ?
What is the matter, now ? Pray tell it me !

Higgledy, piggledy ! how can I tell ?
Hopperty, popperty ! hark to the bell !
The rats and the mice even scamper away :
Who can say what may not happen to-day ?

WHICH is the way to Somewhere Town ?

Oh, up in the morning early ;
Over the tiles and the chimney-pots,
That is the way, quite clearly.

And which is the door to Somewhere Town ?

Oh, up in the morning early ;
The round red sun is the door to go through,
That is the way, quite clearly.

The boat sails away, like a bird on the wing,
And the little boys dance on the sands in a ring,
The wind may fall, or the wind may rise—
You are foolish to go; you will stay if you're wise.
The little boys dance, and the little girls run:
If it's bad to have money, it's worse to have none.

KG

PIPE thee high, and pipe thee low,
Let the little feet go faster :
Blow your penny trumpet—blow !
Well done, little master !

POLLY'S, Peg's, and Poppety's
 Mamma was kind and good :
 She gave them each, one happy day,
 A little scarf and hood.

A bonnet for each girl she bought,
 To shield them from the sun :
 They wore them in the snow and rain,
 And thought it mighty fun.

But sometimes there were naughty boys,
 Who called to them at play,
 And made this rude remark—"My eye!
 Three Grannies out to-day!"

"For what are you longing, you three little boys?"

Oh, what would you like to eat?"

"We should like some apples, or gingerbread—

Or a fine big drum to beat."

"Oh, what will you give me, you three little boys,
In exchange for these good, good things?"

"Some bread and cheese, and some radishes,
And our little brown bird that sings."

"Now, that won't do, you three little chums,
I'll have something better than that—

Two of your fingers, and two of your thumbs,
In the crown of your largest hat!"

O ring the bells! O ring the bells!
We bid you, sirs, good morning;
Give thanks, we pray—our flowers are gay,
And fair for your adorning.

O ring the bells! O ring the bells!
Good sirs, accept our greeting;
Where we have been, the woods are green,
So, hey! for our next meeting.

KC

Then ring the bells! then ring the bells!
For this fair time of Maying;
Our blooms we bring, and while we sing,
O! hark to what we're saying.

O ring the bells! O ring the bells!
We'll sing a song with any;
And may each year bring you good cheer,
And each of us a penny.

I saw a ship that sailed the sea,
It left me as the sun went down ;
The white birds flew, and followed it
To town—to London town.

Right sad were we to stand alone,
And see it pass so far away ;
And yet we knew some ship would come—
Some other ship—some other day.

Yes, that's the girl that struts about,
 She's very proud,—so very proud!
 Her bon-toto's quite as proud as she:
 They both are very wrong to be
 So proud—so very proud.

See, Jane and Willy laugh at her,
 They say she's very proud!
 Says Jane, "My stars!—they're very silly;"
 "Indeed they are," cries little Willy,
 "To walk so stiff and proud."

It was Tommy who said,
"The sweet spring-time is come ;
I see the birds flit,
And I hear the bees hum.

"Oho! Mister Lark,
Up aloft in the sky,
Now, which is the happiest—
Is it you, sir, or I?"

"SHALL I sing?" says the Lark,
"Shall I bloom?" says the Flower;
"Shall I come?" says the Sun,
"Or shall I?" says the Shower

Sing your song, pretty Bird,
Roses, bloom for an hour;
Shine on, dearest Sun,
Go away, naughty Shower!

LITTLE Miss Patty and Master Paul
Have found two snails on the garden wall.
"These snails," said Paul, "how slow they walk!
A great deal slower than we can talk.
Make haste, Mr. Snail, travel quicker, I pray:
In a race with our tongues you'd be beaten to-day."

Yes, it is sad of them—
 Shocking to me;
 Bad—yes, it's bad of them—
 Bad of all three:

Warnings they've had from me.
 Still I repeat them—
 Cold is the water—the
 Fishes will eat them.

Yet they will row about,
 Tho' I say "Fie!" to them;
 Fathers may scold at it,
 Mothers may cry to them.

Now, all of you, give heed unto
The tale I now relate,
About two girls and one small boy,
A cat, and a green gate:

* * * * *

Alack! since I began to speak
(And what I say is true),
It's all gone out of my poor head—
And so good-bye to you!

WHAT is Tommy running for,
Running for,
Running for?
What is Tommy running for,
On this fine day?

Jimmy will run after Tommy,
After Tommy,
After Tommy;
That's what Tommy's running for
On this fine day.

A BUTCHER'S boy met a baker's boy
(It was all of a summer day) :
Said the butcher's boy to the baker's boy,
"Will you please to walk my way?"

Said the butcher's boy to the baker's boy,
"My trade's the best in town,"
"If you dare say that," said the baker's boy,
"I shall have to knock you down!"

Said the butcher's boy to the baker's boy,
"That's a wicked thing to do ;
And I think, before you've knocked me down,
The cook will blow up you !"

The twelve Miss Pelicoes,
Of course, to school were sent :
Their parents wished them to excel
In each accomplishment.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Played music—Fal-la-lal!
Which consequently made them all
The pride of their papa.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Learnt dancing and the globes ;
Which proves that they were wise, and had
That patience which was Job's.

K.C

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Were twelve sweet little girls ;
Some wore their hair in pigtail plaits,
And some of them wore curls.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Had dinner every day ;—
A not uncommon thing at all,
You probably will say.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Went sometimes for a walk ;
It also is a well-known fact
That all of them could talk.

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
Were always most polite—
Said "If you please," and "Many thanks,"
"Good morning," and "Good night."

The twelve Miss Pelicoes
You plainly see, were taught
To do the things they didn't like,
Which means, the things they ought.

Now, fare ye well, Miss Pelicoes,
I wish ye a good day ;—
About these twelve Miss Pelicoes
I've nothing more to say.

LITTLE baby, if I threw
This fair blossom down to you,
Would you catch it as you stand,
Holding up each tiny hand,
Looking out of those grey eyes,
Where such deep, deep wonder lies?

KC

THE finest, biggest fish, you see,
Will be the trout that's caught by me.
But if the monster will not bite,
Why, then I'll hook a little mite.

PRINCE FINIKIN and his mamma
 Sat sipping their bohea ;
 "Good gracious!" said his Highness, "why,
 What girl is this I see ?

"Most certainly it cannot be
 A native of our town ;"
 And he turned him round to his mamma,
 Who set her teacup down

But Dolly simply looked at them,
 She did not speak a word ;
 "She has no voice !" said Finikin ;
 "It's really quite absurd."

Then Finikin's mamma observed,
 "Dear Prince, it seems to me,
 She looks as if she'd like to drink
 A cup of my bohea."

So Finikin poured out her tea,
 And gave her currant-pie ;
 Then Finikin said, "Dear mamma,
 What a kind Prince am I !"

HEIGH HO!—time creeps but slow ;
I've looked up the hill so long ;
None come this way, the sun sinks low,
And my shadow's very long.

KC

They said I should sail in a little boat,
Up the stream, by the great white mill :
But I've waited all day, and none come my way ;
I've waited—I'm waiting still.

They said I should see a fairy town,
With houses all of gold,
And silver people, and a gold church steeple ;—
But it wasn't the truth they told.

My house is red—a little house,
A happy child am I,
I laugh and play the livelong day
I hardly ever cry.

I have a tree, a green, green tree,
To shade me from the sun;
And under it I often sit,
When all my work is done.

My little basket I will take;
And trip into the town;
When next I'm there I'll buy some cake,
And spend my bright half-crown.

K.G

THREE little girls were sitting on a rail,
 Sitting on a rail,
 Sitting on a rail ;
 Three little girls were sitting on a rail,
 On a fine hot day in September.

What did they talk about that fine day,
 That fine day,
 That fine day ?

What did they talk about that fine day, —
 That fine hot day in September ?

The crows and the corn they talked about,
 Talked about,
 Talked about ;

But nobody knows what was said by the crows,
 On that fine hot day in September
